norses in the background. His injured leg will not allow Logan to get into the state title games. South high is expected to be the team to drag the rag from the Lincoln team's clutches. The south siders have trimmed the Centrals and already have one victory over the Lincoln players. They will probably meet the Capital city's representatives in the finals. Commerce high hardly has a chance for Class honors, having been beaten by all the local high school teams, but better caliber than they have been for the past season or two, the School for the Deaf will have no great trouble in annexing honors in this division for Omaha. The Creighton high team will not be entered in any class. The team has been disbanded.
