

CHILD GETS SICK
CROSS, FEVERISH
IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach or bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailments, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bipro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing muscles and bust, and relieving wily hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

"Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nervous system. One bottle of phosphate, then is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as Bipro-phosphate, which is incorporated in the Bipro-phosphate Tablets of Sherman & McConnell.

AT THE THEATERS

ONE of the most important bookings of the season at the Brandeis is that of David Warfield, whom David Belasco will present there tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening, in a revival of his first great success, "The Auctioneer." A new generation has come into the theater since this comedy was first brought out 17 years ago, to whom Mr. Warfield's creation of Simon Levi will appear in the light of a novelty. But the older generation remembers with affection, and all will have the opportunity of enjoying through smiles and tears, the reincarnation of the old Hester street second-hand dealer and auctioneer, who grew ambitious, branched out into the luxurious surroundings of a Lexington Avenue home and then returned sadder and wiser to the locality where he had first made his fortune. The charm of "The Auctioneer" has been and always will be the sentiment woven about the main character as portrayed by David Warfield, for the part and he are synonymous.

It is not easy to put into words the charm of "Maytime" which is now being played at the Boyd by an excellent company. It has a delicious quaintness that can not miss in its appeal to all. The pictures it gives of bygone days and manners are accurate and valuable for this reason, and are the more enjoyable and worthy. To all this must be added the beauty of the music, the allurement of the dance, and the joy of youth that pervades the whole.

Richard Walton Tully's new production, the merry comedy, "Keep Her Smiling," with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in the stellar roles, will be the attraction at the Boyd theater three days beginning next Monday night, with matinee Wednesday. Mr. Drew plays a character similar to those in which he has made so great a success in the picture field and never has Mrs. Drew's beauty and winsome charm been displayed to better advantage than in this return to the legitimate speaking stage. "Keep Her Smiling" is

A wholesome and refreshing as a mountain breeze on a spring day is the story un-lead Flashes from Filmland. . . . folded in the picturization of Harold Bell Wright's celebrated novel of "The Shepherd of the Hills," which comes to the Brandeis for a return engagement on Thursday.

In its heart-warming fashion it tells of the stranger who comes to the little community for the more pretentious life and how from a simple tender of sheep, he becomes a shepherd of men. With such a splendid subject matter as this, the scenes follow each other in kaleidoscopic variety, forming a picture drama which is being viewed by thousands of theater-goers with wonder and intense interest.

Can an actress be so affected by her own emotional work that she can cry when she sees herself on the screen?

Dorothy Phillips, star of "The Heart of Humanity," which appears at the Brandeis, Sunday, was caught crying when she attended the opening performance of the picture in New York City. She was asked to explain why she should boo-hoo.

"It isn't my acting that affects me," she declared as she wiped away a tear. "It's the story. I believe I forgot it was myself on the screen. You see, an actress is subject to her director. Of course, we can't help but learn something of the story, but it is only the director who knows the entire details. He places us within a certain scene and tells us to smile, to walk, to cry, or whatever the story calls for. The characters are not in all the scenes. Consequently, we have to wait until the picture is entirely completed before we get the full worth of the story."

"An actress must have imagination. That's why it is I forget I am looking at myself. I see on the screen only the characters I portray. It isn't egotism, I assure you. I've cried more over Mrs. Mann's work in the elderly mother role

Many Popular Home-from-War Records in Columbia List Nora Bayes sings for Columbia records this month the popular home-from-the-war ditty, "How You Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm—away from Broadway—away from Harm—After They've Seen Parade?" She sings it as only Nora Bayes could sing it, and on the other side of the disc is the just as attractive in a different sort of homecoming song, "When Yankee Doodle Sails Upon the Good Ship, Home Sweet Home."
