Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can lase for shompoing, as this can't posase for shompoing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes A Free Trial Package is Mailed to dency?

Love Comes Unbidden and, "To Love or Not We Are No More Free Than the Ripple to Rise and Leave the Sea.'

Take the Auburn Hair. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Please tell me what to do. I am nearly 19 years old and two men are in love with me and want to marry me. One of them lives about years old, but he is a Catholic and won't change his religion for me; the one living in Omaha is the best ple stop tickling you than to looking and is about 25 years old, strengthen your knees, I wager but has red hair. The out-of-town man writes nice loving letters and sends me nice boxes of candy. My parents object to the man in town, and I like him because he is so nice and tall and owns a house and lot in a nice neighborhood, and I am a good cook and would like to have a home of my own. Which one should I marry—I like them both? Please answer in the morning paper.

MISS FARR. What has red hair to do with love? I should say, from what little information you give, that the younger man would be preferable. Where there is a great difference in ages, trouble of some kind usually results. Religion, too, is cause for many heated discussions.

She Annoys Him. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have come to ask you something unusual. I have a girl friend (at least I go with her); I don't like her and my parents don't want me to go with her, but she follows me all over and when I come from school she is waiting for me outside. I have tried to quit going with her, but when I do she will write notes to me and ask me what's the matter, and that she is sorry if she has done anything I don't like. But she tells me my clothes don't look good on me and most anything to make me mad. Her brothers and sisters are not nice. Her brother at the age of 13 smoked all the time. She is always talking about someone in my family and none of it is true. Thanking you, I remain

BLUE EYES. I am sorry for you. Suppose you try this: Don't answer her notes, be polite, but not cordial, and, above all, try having a will of your own to do what you think is best, if you do not wish to be annoyed.

Address. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Could you get the name and address of the girl who signs her name Bay-

Poor Fellow. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee I am a soldier returned from over-seas.
