DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

Iodine stains can be removed by means of liquid ammonia. Pour latter over the spot, then dab repeatedly with the finger tips until it disappears. Rinse in tepid water, then wash in the usual way with strong soapsuds.

Kitchen Kinks

Apples are delicious baked with raisins and marshmallows. For scraping dishes a small wooden knife is very handy. A little grated nutmeg gives a pleasing taste to meat toast.

Oyster force meat for stuffing vegetables is something new. Food selection is a science and should be studied accordingly. Mint Tulip. Five lemons, 1 bunch fresh mint, 1 1/4 cups sugar, 1/2 cup water, 3 bottles ginger ale, ice.

Squeeze the juice from lemons, add leaves from mint, sugar and water. Let stand 30 minutes, add a large piece of ice and ginger ale. Serve in small glasses.

The sweets could be red and white heart-shaped candies or anything suitable.

Stop Itching Skin

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and skin irritation almost instantly and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Ask any druggist for a 35-cent bottle of Zemo and apply it as directed.

One of the Many

The battle was raging fierce and fast Mid the screams of the shot and shell, I tell you boys 'twas just awful—

A genuine touch of hell, And there at my feet lay my comrade All wounded and bleeding and torn, In his hand he held a locket Which close to his heart he had worn.

He looked in my face with a little smile, Come closer comrade, he said, If you ever get back home again Tell mother I am not dead But just gone on o'er the river To wait on the other side, And ask her please not to grieve for me

For my country and her I died, And while at home she is waiting And thinking all day of me To remember that I, too, am waiting On the bright shores of Galilee And some day I'll hold her hand again

And caress her silver white hair, And I'll be waiting there to kiss her At the head of the golden stairs, And comrade, just one more message: Tell my sweetheart I died like a man

And that when dying I thought Of her and of the life I led, And ask her please, if she can, To go every day to see mother And ask them to think of me still.

Now goodbye, old comrade, I'm going— Don't grieve, it is our Father's will, And all I have left is this locket And a sorrow as deep as the sea

And the memory of you, old pal Who would gladly have died to save me, Then like a child tired out with his play He smiled—put his hands on his breast, I gave one great sob, then I turned away— He had gone to his last sweet rest.

Now somewhere in France there's a lonely grave, Marked with neither a flower or stone, But God will know where to find the lad When at last He shall claim His own.

—MRS. L. E. SUCHART.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Love Comes Unbidden and, "To Love or Not We Are No More Free Than the Ripple to Rise and Leave the Sea."

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Write to Miss Gross. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: The young people of my neighborhood are planning a box social, and I thought perhaps you would give me a few suggestions as to how to fix a box. Thanking you in advance, I remain, MISS NINETEEN.

Write to Miss Irma Gross, editor of our home economics department, and she will be glad to help you through her columns. Box socials and cooking are not among my specialties.

Rings. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: If a girl is engaged and her friend should die, should she continue wearing her diamond? If a girl is engaged and it should break up and her friend refused to take it back should she wear it and on which hand? MAXINE. You may continue to wear the ring after your fiancé's death. After a quarrel change the ring to another finger if you wish to wear it—any other finger will do.

Soldier's Love Letter. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: As for beauty, I'm no star, there are others more lovely by far. But I do not mind it for I am behind it. It's the fellow in front gets the jar. This explains my looks. Now, for my question. I went with a young man for several months when he was drafted into the army. He asked me to write, which I did. My letters were only those of a friend, while his became more like love letters, every time he wrote, which was twice a week. As I do not care for him only as a friend I stopped writing to him. He still writes, although I have not written to him for five or six months. Do you think I should write and tell him that I want him to stop writing.

BLUE BELL. It would be more honorable to write and tell him that you no longer wish to correspond.

Mercy Me! Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have often read your "Advice to the Lovelorn" and think you will help me and my friend.

We are two boys of 16 and 17 and are much in love with two widows of 46 and 44. They are very rich and we love them and know very well they love us.

Now, Miss Fairfax, do you think it is right to take them out riding and kiss them? They are considered very good looking. They are Catholics and we are Protestants. Is there much difference in our religion? Deaf—Write to the Deaf and Dumb Institute at Forty-sixth and Boulevard avenue and they will give you information concerning the school. There is no reason why a deaf and dumb person could not learn typewriting.

Two Lonely Boys—Find some other girls and ignore these two for a time. If they care for your friendship they will soon show evidences of it.

William J. Boda—If you will confine your ideas to 200 words I shall be glad to print same.

Four Girls—Remove your hats when you take your seats and put them on before leaving the theater, and age? They each have one child of about 8 years.

What does a half unposted stamp with the letters S H under it mean? What should we do with the children? Should we keep them if we get married or shall we put them in an orphan building? Thanking you in advance, we remain, MIKE AND ALECK. There seems to be every reason in

THE superiority of Atwood Grapefruit is not an accident. From the first planting the Atwood Grapefruit Co. has sacrificed everything for QUALITY. An initial expense of hundreds of thousands of dollars was incurred, while everything that scientific culture and experience could suggest was done to produce QUALITY. Even then some trees at maturity bore simply good grapefruit, but not good enough for the Atwood Brand. Other trees were cut down and replaced by superior varieties.

So through selection and cultivation has evolved the delicious ATWOOD GRAPEFRUIT—"the Aristocrat of the Breakfast Table."

NOTICE There are but three reasons why your letters do not appear in print—because they are too long (more than 200 words), because you do not send your correct address as a postscript or because they are not suitable for publication.

Worth Knowing For grilling purposes you can secure a clear fire quickly by sprinkling a little powdered nitre over it. If there are paint spots on the window, apply a strong solution of baking soda. This will soften the paint and it can be easily rubbed off. Then rub with alcohol to polish the glass.
