

Dr. Fulmer of the U. of Nebraska to Deliver Commencement Address at Graduation of High School of Commerce Class of Thirty-Three

Of 15 Graduates Completing Four-Year Course, 11 Are Boys; Girls Out-number Boys Otherwise.

Thirty-three students of the High School of Commerce will be graduated from the school Friday night, April 4, at commencement exercises to be held in the Central High school auditorium. Dr. Fulmer of the University of Nebraska will deliver the commencement address.

The girls outnumber the boys, but of the 15 graduates who have completed the four-year course 11 are boys. Of the 18 students completing the three-year course, however, only two are boys.

Three playettes will be presented by the graduates Friday and Saturday night in the Central High school auditorium. Proceeds from the plays will be used to publish the first issue of the Commerce Quarterly, which will contain the pictures of the class. "The Maiden Over the Wall," a recent play by Bertram Bloch; "A Colonial Dream," by Miss Mary Parker; and "Tea at Four O'clock," by Mrs. Burton Harrison, are the sketches that have been selected. The players are being coached by Miss Mary Irene Wallace.

The class banquet will be held April 2. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday morning at the Central United Presbyterian church by Rev. Paul Calhoun.

Mr. Ernst Horacek is president of the four-year graduates; Miss Helen Noon, vice president, and Wilbur Cramer, secretary-treasurer. Miss Helen Lindquist is president of the three-year graduates and Jerry Tesar, secretary-treasurer. Miss Jeanette McDonald and Miss Mary Irene Wallace are the class teachers.

Military certificates will be presented to the commissioned officers of the cadet battalion who graduate. Wilbur Cramer, Jerry Tesar, David Greenberg, and perhaps one other, will be so honored.

The High School of Commerce has continuous sessions all year, divided into four quarters of 12 weeks each. This is the second class to be graduated under the quarterly system.

Court Looks Out That Mary Garibaldi Gets Diploma

Someone Else Will Do Family Washing to Allow 15-Year-Old Girl, Who Stayed Home to Look After Sick Mother and Little Brothers and Sisters, to Go to School and Get an Education.

Mary Garibaldi will get her diploma. She was brought into juvenile court, not because she is bad, but because she is good and isn't getting a square deal because of misfortunes in her home. Her mother is very sick and her father earns only $18 a week and there are many little Garibaldis.

So Mary had to leave school and take care of the sick mother and the little Garibaldis.

The teachers wondered why ambitious Mary had disappeared from the school room and they investigated and found out the facts. Then they came to the juvenile authorities.

Mary is a bright, pretty, neatly dressed girl, 15 years old. Her father was with her.

"I like to go to school," said Mary.

"And I wanted so much to get my diploma. Only three months more and I would have had my diploma. But mamma is so sick and papa only makes $18 a week. And what can you do with $18 a week to hire somebody to do the work?"

"The teachers say she is so bright and works hard," said Miss Johnston of the juvenile court.

"I like to go to school, I want to get a good education so I can work for my parents," said Mary, "but I must take care of the family when my mother is sick."

Arrangements were made to hire a woman to do the Garibaldi washing. Mary said that she could go to school the remaining three months if that were done.

GRANT SIX

Economy Without Stinginess

IN other years it was nobody's business how much you spent for a motor car—but today ostentation is out of place. A modest, economical, comfortable car like the GRANT SIX gives you everything that you can think of in motor car service except the evidence that you "don't care for expenses."

The GRANT SIX is long and roomy. It is a real five-passenger car and when fully occupied does not look crowded.

Its overhead-valve engine of advanced design is as large in piston displacement and as powerful as any six-cylinder engine used in a car of comparable price.

Owners average 20 miles to a gallon of gasoline, 900 miles to a gallon of oil and 7000 miles or more from standard tires. You get the smoothly-flowing, flexible power of a six with the economy of a light four.

The new GRANT SIX is a car of quiet beauty. Its lines should be the envy of many a much more expensive car. Its riding comfort has very few rivals.

All over the country this splendid car is selling to people who in other years would not have considered any car under $1300 to $1500.

We advise you to buy your GRANT SIX now

PATRIOT

For All-Purpose Hauling

Patriot Trucks have won their reputation for endurance by service over country roads in the Middle West and Southwest—the worst roads in America during several months of the year.

They have made a great record in farm work throughout the Western States—the hardest kind of service to which a motor truck can be put, not only because of the lack of intelligent mechanical supervision, but because of operation over all kinds of road and field conditions.

In the competitive demonstrations in which the Patriot has been entered, its performance has been nothing short of wonderful, it having outclassed every truck of same rating that has appeared against it.

The Patriot is very modestly rated, as compared with other trucks, many of the units in the 1½-Ton Patriot being practically the same as the 2-ton or 2½-ton of other makes.

All of the above statements are true, and they explain why careful buyers are now choosing the Patriot.

We have a stock of trucks, and can make immediate deliveries.

Distributors and dealers who are looking for a line of Motor Trucks that will sell and make good in this Western Country, are invited to write or visit us.
