Monroe Dectrine Protected. Thomas W. Gregory, former attorney general of the United States, The bill is completed with a sensa- run at the Gayety. His "snow bird" who is advising the peace conference commission on the league of nations with reference to legal phases of proposed amendments to the covenant, takes the view that it is not necessary to introduce a specific amendment affirming the Monroe doctrine. He holds that the doctrine is sufficiently protected by the instrument as it stands, but as a matter of expediency he says no objection to introducing a general provision which would safeguard the doctrine without spe cifically mentioning it, as a specific mention would introduce a controversy over the specific wants of various states.

"My health had been broken since times this smothering feeling was

'I am restored to health now, and make this statement so that others may know about my case and be saved from the pain and suffering had to endure for so many years. hadn't finished my first bottle of Tanlac before my appetite came back and now I eat three hearty meals a day and don't have a bit of trouble with gas or palpitation of the heart. I retire early every night, go to sleep almost as soon as I lie down and sleep peacefully all night long. I am rid of rheumatism and can walk and work now as well as I could 20 years ago. I am so happy to be well again that I could just shout for joy and I never get tired telling people about thank the man who made this grand Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forrest and Meaney Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading drug-
