

YOUNG'S FATHER ASKS OFFICERS PROBE KILLING

R. R. Young Starts Legal Proceedings and Declares He Will Sift to Bottom Killing of Son.

On the eve of charges being filed against certain participants of last Thursday morning's shooting that resulted in the death of Louis Young, alleged boy burglar, Abe Sampson, ex-doorman at the old Wick and Moore place, who is quoted as saying that he shot the boy, denies any assertion of a statement to that effect.

merely that Young fell an instant after I fired two shots at him," Sampson said yesterday.

Questions Sampson's Rights.

Incidental to the shooting of Louis Young, R. R. Young, the father, declares he will probe the affair to ascertain what right Sampson had to "use unnecessary force in attempting to capture the boys." Upon the alleged boasting of Sampson to intimate friends that "it was my shot that killed the kid; I got down on one knee and winged him," Mr. Young is starting legal proceedings.

The parents who returned home yesterday from Des Moines where they took the body of their boy for burial declare they still hold the opinion that shooting to kill was unnecessary in the capture of the boys.

"My attorney has taken up the matter," he said. Sampson is said to have stated: "I can't get away from the thought of having killed the kid. I shot because I thought, when I heard a scream, that there were men running away from the place."

"How do we know but what the boys wanted to surrender?" the parents ask. "Maybe they had no chance and when the firing started isn't it possible that they would try to escape the shots? The law states that only necessary force may be employed in the arrest of criminals, and we're going to probe this affair."

Assistant County Attorney Ready declared: "The coroner's jury has put an end to the case as far as I am concerned. Inference of testimony shows that Sampson shot the boy, but I won't prosecute him, for he was helping in the capture of the boys."

Young's partner is still at large. A hat belonging to the unidentified boy was found in the back yard of Joe Loch, 1810 Sherman avenue, across whose lot the boy escaped.

Accept Jury's Decision.

Police heads have taken the decision of the coroner's jury, "that the shooting was justifiable."

"I will not conduct an investigation as to whether Sampson had a right to fire at the boys or not," Police Commissioner Ringer stated. Detective Dolan, who stood several feet from Sampson during the shooting, testified at the inquest that he did not fire a single shot at the boys. Detective Patach was the only other person who fired at the boys. He testified that his shots went wild. At the inquest when shown the bullet taken from Young's body, Sampson stated: "I use a bullet similar to that."

Young was shot and killed after he and a boy companion, it is alleged, had broken into the barber shop of Joe Janous, 1826 Sherman avenue. At the inquest held over the body, it was determined "that the killing was justifiable."

No mention was made of Sampson in the decision of the jury.

Burgess-Nash Store Has Spring Week in True Egyptian Style

Oriental spring has come to Omaha with its waving green palms and Egyptian luxury softened by Nile green lights.

It will be here for one week—the week of the spring exposition at the Burgess-Nash store.

At the end of each isle some new scene of Egyptian contour appears—painted between drooping palms and jungle plumage sets off the variegated lights.

The windows have changed their western appearance. They show a background of brocaded draperies and jungle plumage set off the various spring novelties of north, south, east and west.

The spring opening will continue until Saturday, and each department has also set aside winter and taken up this extra ordinary type of spring decoration.

A Great Purchase and Sale of Porch and House Dresses That Are Known as "Factory Seconds"

We were fortunate in being able to secure a large assortment of pretty tub dresses for porch or house wear, and they were received in time to be placed on sale Tuesday in the Downstairs Store.

They are slightly imperfect, a small oil spot, or something of the sort, but so slight you can scarcely detect the imperfection, and it is on this account that the price is so extremely low.

In the Downstairs Store, Tuesday at $2.95

The dresses are made in splendid quality percale; light and dark ginghams in plaids and stripes; all white madras and pink and blue chambray. Also nurses' stripe gingham.

They are daintily trimmed with white organdie, or pique collars and cuffs. Some have collars and cuffs of self material.

Pockets and buttons are another trimming feature. All sizes in the lot, including stouts.
