Says Husband Threw Her Out of House Into Storm

Elizabeth Callier testified yesterday before Judge Troup that her husband, William, threw her out of their sod house on a claim near Dalton, Neb., during a storm and while she was clad only in a night gown. She said later he tied a rope around her neck and threatened to drag her at the back of a wagon. The wife said he struck her with a club and later forced her to sign a quit claim deed to their farm, giving her $50, which the next day he took away. Callier alleges that his wife entertained his brother Jim while he was away working on a threshing machine. The Calliers were married in Council Bluffs in 1911. Mrs. Callier had previously been married and divorced. In 1913 they moved to Cheyenne county, Neb., and there they were remarried in the Catholic church at Sidney. The husband says his wife left him several times before the final time in August, 1918. Since coming to Omaha she has been living at 216 South Twenty-fifth street. She worked as an elevator operator in the Brandeis theater building for a while.

Red Cross Calls for Clothes for Refugees of Europe

Omaha's quota of 35,000 pounds of used clothing for the Red Cross still is to be filled. Red Cross headquarters, 313 South Seventeenth street, is open and is calling for shoes, cloth and blankets, dresses and coats of all kinds. This is part of the nation-wide campaign to help the refugees of Europe. Bundles will be called for by arranging with headquarters, Tyler 2721; W. S. Jardine, Harney 2765; or J. P. Jerpe, Tyler 850.

Clean-Up Alleys and Yards, Manning's Plea to Citizens

"Clean up your alleys and back yards!" is Health Commissioner Manning's plea to Omaha citizens. The health department urges citizens to begin their annual spring-clean-up, inside and outside. Emphasizing this matter, Dr. Manning said "Good citizens will clean-up; others must clean-up." Health inspectors will be around in a few weeks to serve notices on the delinquents.

Jazz Coat, Latest Art Creation, Now Shown at Burgess-Nash Store

Sing your names in spring shopping! They are hard to pronounce. You can't help yourself if you even speak the names of the gorgeous creations and materials that appear under the oriental background of the spring exposition at Burgess-Nash as a forecast of what all Omaha will be in the coming "Dress-Up Week." Black and white, and pastel shades, dark and navies in various patterns, Fantasie-shimmery Kum-si-Numsa—if you say kum-si and kum-si—with equal accent on each syllable, you'll keep saying and singing it—they all vie with each other in color, shimmer and spring festivity. And the Jazz coat! Music again—but it doesn't look as conglomaterated as the music sounds. Trim, blue of medium length, that is what the Jazz coat is. Suits—black, white, tricolor, pique, velours with Victory cloth in predominance, sport coats and coats of silver-tipped bolivia—all are here. French cloth—in the draped dolmans of evora and peau de peche—is a favorite. Waists are equally given to French and Victory names. True hand-made "coquette" blouses, made, every inch of them, by the little old ladies in France, with the finest of tucks and embroidery, are new. And yarn is on everything!

Women Find Clear Skin In Simple Laxative

A sense of false modesty often prevents women from admitting that many of her ills and disorders are due primarily to constipation. But women who know themselves have learned that headache remedies and beautifiers only cover the trouble but do not dislodge it. What is needed is a remedy to move the bowels and stir up the torpid liver. An ever-increasing number of sensible women take a small dose of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold by druggists under that name. It will save a woman from the habitual use of headache remedies, skin lotions and similar makeshifts. Once the bowels are emptied and regulated, the headache and the pimples and blotches disappear. It is the rational, natural method. A bottle of Syrup Pepsin lasts a family a long time, and all will find use for it from time to time. Thoughtful people are never without it in the house. The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised. Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN The Perfect Laxative. FREE SAMPLES—If you have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin send for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 468 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Once Upon a Time the Prettiest Clothes Came Only in Regular Sizes

Today the Smart Modes May Be Found Here in Extra Sizes

TIME was when women who required a suit or frock larger than 44, or a skirt belt larger than 33, had to accept rather shapeless, uninteresting styles, made with little regard for anything save size. Yet, the woman who requires these larger sizes is the very one who wishes most for a well tailored frock, who most carefully selects this line in becoming silhouette.

WE knew this, and in placing orders for new modes, on each buying trip have evolved the smart measurements, after which clothes were ordered drafted, modes which were especially designed with regard to slenderizing lines and the clever placing of ornamentation. Many of these new styles are on display now and many more arrive each day, quite as interesting from a style viewpoint as those offered in the smaller sizes.

Extra sizes are offered in the following lines, providing a choice of styles and fabrics quite unusual.

Frocks, Wraps, Suits, Skirts, Petticoats, House Dresses, Hosiery, Lingerie, Etc.

Extra Size Corsets and Brassieres Have had special consideration

Style Notes

As Co piled By Our Store Shopper...

Hosiery

Such beautiful new Hosiery as are displayed for the early Spring wear. One pair, that would make a lovely gift for a bride-to-be, is of white silk with a butterfly and forget-me-not pattern embroidered in black silk. Then, of course, there are the Silk Hosiery with the lace insets to wear with milady's evening gowns. One pair is of white silk with a lace inset of black, gold and silver, and yet another is hand-embroidered with daisies and butterflies. Of course, we are showing all the new Spring Hosiery to match one's new suit, smoke, gray taupe, Russian calf, silver canary, and Cordova brown.

Gloves

After looking around at the suits, frocks, lovely underwear, hats and shoes, one's thoughts turn to the gloves to complete their costume, and I found the prettiest light gray Arabiag Mocha, also a putty color, with the two-tone combination black and self-embroidered backs for one's street suit. There are some very fine light weight French Kid Gloves in the new shades of African brown and Oxford gray, and the lovely white Gloves with embroidered backs to wear with one's best suit or afternoon frock.

Children's Department

Such clever clothes for the little folks and school girls. They showed me one school girl's Cape in a lovely shade of Blue Silverstone, made with a deep yoke effect and cunning little pockets. Also there are the new Spring Coats for school and auto wear for the little miss. I saw one lovely little Dress suitable for afternoon wear, in a Pink Japanese Crepe, with touches of hand embroidery, in blue, pink, green and lavender shades, featuring the new round neck, with a narrow velvet ribbon of dark blue running through eyelets worked in the dress. The dress was made with a high waistline and tiny pockets of a triangle shape, with an embroidered motif on each one.

Silk Dept.

In looking around the Silk Department I found some wonderful new Crepe de Chine in hand-blocked effects, in two and three-tone combinations. One in particular is of antique blue, with a chateaux and beige combination in motif and scroll design. These Crepes would make such lovely afternoon frocks for the tea dante. Then there is the new Patriote for tailored dresses and separate skirts, just like the Jerseys, but without the sag and stretch that made Jersey a bit of woe. One piece that is particularly smart is of royal and silver combination.

Skirts

Sport Skirt of Georgette and Fantasi Silk in a sunset shade. This skirt is made of rows of half-inch tucks in the Georgette, with wide bands of the fancy block pattern Fantasi Silk, finished at the bottom with a deep hem of the Georgette and has a wide crushed girdle of the Georgette. Still another Sport Skirt or rather Golf Skirt, is of silk and wool knit material, in a peach shade, with a very deep border of blue. Very chic.
