Camp Fire Girls

Several new Campfire groups have been organized through Saunders school. Miss Lulu Pasco is guardian of one of these groups and Miss Ruth Bracken of another.

A number of groups are planning to take extended hikes during this week of school vacation. Among them are Bertha Vaughn's group, Gladys Whamp's group and the Iyopita, of which Herbertha Barker is guardian, and Mrs. Gates' group, the Raosu.

The group of which Bertha Vaughn is guardian reports 12 pounds of tinfoil turned in since the close of the campaign.

A very successful program was given under the auspices of the Campfire girls at high school. It took place on Friday afternoon in the high school auditorium. The money collected is to help take care of the French orphans adopted by Central High school. Florice Shaw had charge of the arrangements. The program consisted of a tableau of Campfire girls, some in Minuteman costumes, and some in ceremonial gowns. Speeches by the four high school boys who have been in overseas service. Lt. Allan Tukey and Miss Jessie Towne; a takeoff on "Romeo and Juliet," entitled "Spoonoo and Winneryet," with Virginia White and Ruth Hatteroth in the title roles. Program closed with songs by 10 Campfire girls.

Alice Chambers' group met on Thursday with Mary Gorten.

Mrs. H. F. Gates' group, the Raosu, met on Friday at the home of Thelma Marks. Ruth Peterson, the assistant guardian, had charge of this meeting. The girls worked on the paper dolls and scrap books for the Child Saving institute. At the last meeting the girls started the group record book, each girl of the group having one page and taking charge of it herself under the general supervision of the guardian.

Before the sing on Saturday Bertha Vaughn's group held a ceremonial meeting at the Y. W. C. A. Dorothy Barber took the wood-gatherers rank. A new group, of which Mrs. C. Hamilton is guardian, took their desire at this meeting.

*Mrs. Fritz's group met at Jean Falcoer's home, where they painted on their work baskets. They are going on a hike Tuesday morning. The Toti group and their guardian, Mrs. Hoyt, are busy working on their ceremonial gowns. The next meeting will be held at the home of Martha Box.

Eloise Berka's group has been learning new songs and new motions with the help of four girls from Miss Vaughn's group. This group will hold a ceremonial meeting immediately after the sing on Saturday.

The Chishkhamy group and their guardian, Ann Erickson, will have a social meeting with Miss Eva Swanson on Saturday.

The group of which Mrs. Southwell is guardian has arranged a program for their next meeting with Louise Rosenthal.

Zoe Shalek and her group have planned a hike during vacation week. These girls will take the entire day of Wednesday for their tramp out of doors.

The Skensawane group, with Mrs. Helsey as guardian, will have a candy sale Saturday at the Y. W. C. A.

The girls in Miss Mildred Foster's group are holding their meetings regularly at the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday afternoons. They are now working on their head bands.

The girls of Mrs. J. O. Beebe's group met at her home on Thursday afternoon for a business meeting. Plans were made for a hike which they are going to take during the spring vacation.

The girls of the Abanakee group, with their guardian, Margaret Woodward are working on their head bands.

Guardians, do not forget the meeting at the Y. W. C. A. All Campfire girls please notice that hereafter all tinfoil collected be

Attractive Frock for a Bridesmaid

By GERTRUDE BERESFORD.

For that dressy frock, which although not an evening gown, strictly speaking, yet serves as one on many formal occasions, pink Georgette is the most attractive material. Such a frock may be worn effectively on summer afternoons. An attractive example of this type of gown is shown in this simple model of pink Georgette crepe made over pink charmeuse satin. This model would make an attractive bridesmaid's dress. Bead embroidery in pink and white is employed in a conventional pattern on the blouse and overskirt. The neckline shows the "U" shaped opening, now demanded by fashion. A broad girdle of pink charmeuse ends in a sash at the left side. The overskirt is scalloped and embroidered with beads. A picturesque hat of pink Georgette crepe is trimmed with a pink ostrich pompon.

The girls of the Akita group, with their guardian, Mrs. Charles J. Hubbard, took an eight-mile hike last Saturday. The next meeting will be Friday, April 4, with Gladys Mickel.

Don't forget March 31 is the last day of the contest. Mr. H. R. Bowen offers $25 girls 12 to 15; $25 to girls 15 and over.

The Osoha group held a council fire on Tuesday at the home of their guardian, Miss Margaret Stirling.

The following girls took the wood-gatherers rank and received their rings: Marjorie Corey, Nina Criss, Marion Hoerner, Helen Krug, Ann Pearsall and Elinor Ryner. Honor beads were awarded to Henrietta Clarke and Mary Getty.

Miss Margaret Stirling will be in New York City during the months of April and May in the interests of the Campfire organization. The Osohas will be in charge of Miss Camilla Edholm during the absence of Miss Stirling.

Indian Girls Join Y. W. Club.

To find a suitable Indian name for a club of 14 Indian girls representing 10 different tribes is the problem confronting the Wichita, Kan., Y. W. C. A. The club has been organized to meet Sunday afternoon when the girls come together to read and sing, pop corn and make tea. They have been reading Van Dyke's short stories, also Kipling and Ralph Connor.

It is said that there are today in various European convents more than 30 princesses, members of the great ruling houses of Europe, who are wearing the veil as nuns, and are spending their lives in prayer and fasting and good works.

COME HERE FIRST
"Dental Shopping" is seldom satisfactory and sometimes quite confusing.

You must have more or less dental work done and you want it done right. You realize that "cheap, worthless dentistry" is an aggravated extravagance—more so, indeed, than high priced GOOD dentistry—but neither are necessary.

You may find excellent dentists in Omaha, but it places the responsibility of selection upon YOU—and you may "guess" wrong—or you may select a very superior dentist whose prices are based upon what he can GET rather than what the service is worth. You can undoubtedly find just as good work as is done in this office IF YOU WANT TO PAY MORE FOR IT—and then again you may (being honest yourself) place credence in bombastic claims and find mediocre or even inferior dentists behind the camouflage of alluring adjectives.

It will pay you to let ME take the chances because if by any chance there is the slightest dissatisfaction with the workmanship or material used it will be made right AT MY EXPENSE—NOT YOURS.

Do not come to me merely because I save you pain and money—but because I save you all RISK of disappointment.

Why take unnecessary chances—why take the roundabout way in selecting your dentist?

Take the straight line course—it's the shortest and safest.

Come here first.
