

GIRL VICTIM OF LETHARGY SHOWS RECOVERY SIGNS

Though Physicians Say Danger Is Not Yet Passed, Present Condition of Patient Is Favorable.

Frances Bell, 17-year-old Central High school girl, is showing signs of recovery from an attack of sleeping sickness with which she was stricken a week ago. She was awake for several hours on Sunday, and although present indications are favorable, the attending physician is not ready to say that all danger has been passed. Many friends and acquaintances called at the home, 4107 Lafayette avenue, on Sunday, but they were denied admittance to the room of the patient, who must be kept quiet. Omaha physicians are interested in this case, which is one of the few cases of lethargic encephalitis to appear in this city. Miss Bell was asleep all of last week, with the exception of a few brief intervals. Read The Bee Want Ads for the Opportunities You are Looking For.

Naming Baby Easy Compared to Naming New Hiking Club

Mass Meeting in Public Library Called to Decide Whether New Organization Is to Be Called Hikers' or Prairie Club or Neither—Officers Already Elected.

Naming the baby (for those who have them) was a light task compared to naming the new hikers' club, composed of leading Omaha men and women, who went on their first jaunt to Childs' Point Sunday afternoon, old clothes, pedometers, staffs and all. The momentous question will be decided tonight at a meeting in the public library. Schism threatens to rend the factions, which favors the appellation "Omaha Prairie club," and those who would have it known as "Omaha Hiking club," and those who favor neither. "Not Dignified Enough." "Hiking club," while descriptive of the organization, is not dignified enough, some of the high school teachers who make up its membership, maintain. "Prairie" club finds favor with some of the organizers of the club because they are familiar with the Chicago Prairie club, an organization of 1,600 members, who hike in the sand dunes of Lake Michigan each Sunday. Others oppose it as deceptive of real conditions about Omaha. "Plenty of easterners think Oma-

OBTAIN CLUE ON DISAPPEARANCE OF MISSING MAN

Coroner in Iowa Town Received Letter Which Was Mailed After C. W. Mendenhall Left Home Here.

Relatives of C. W. Mendenhall have not received any information which would explain the mysterious disappearance of this elderly resident of 4220 Cumming street. Mr. Mendenhall, who is 70 years old, ate his dinner at home last Wednesday noon and remarked that he would go downtown and would return at 6 p. m.—Since that time his family has been unable to trace his whereabouts. The case is just as much of a mystery as it was on the first day of Mendenhall's disappearance. Charles Smith, coroner at Missouri Valley, Ia., telephoned to the family to state that he received a letter from Mr. Mendenhall, postmarked at Omaha, 3 p. m. last Wednesday. The letter was relative to a proposed visit of Smith to a farm owned by Mendenhall at Loveland, Ia. Private detectives are working on the theory that Mendenhall is being held by a gang of crooks.

4,000 Americans Are Identifying Graves of Killed in Action

In the American Battle Area, March 31.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Four thousand men of the A. E. F. are now engaged in the registration and search for the graves of Americans who died in battle. The work of seeking the resting places of American heroes is being undertaken by the section of graves registration, which is directing its efforts so as to be able to designate the grave of every American should congress authorize the return of the bodies of the fallen. Tireless seeking for identification tags marks the daily task of the men of the graves registration section. They set out on their solemn mission equipped with pick, shovel and gas mask. Sometimes they pry down into the ground for the identity of the dead warrior, sometimes they ferret into the recesses of discarded dugouts and sometimes they clear away the brush of the forest to find some trace of the victims of battle. Each cemetery where Americans have been buried is fully plotted on maps. The graves registration service is now extending every energy to complete the burying, marking, recording and classifying of the heroic Americans.

in May, accompanied by Major McKeever and a wireless operator. Colonel Collishaw expects to accomplish the flight in 20 hours. His machine will be equipped with five motors of 400 horsepower each, capable of carrying 50 people and remaining in the air for 30 hours.

Bee Reader Praises 13th Engineer Regiment

"There cannot be too much said in favor of the Thirteenth engineer regiment, the first volunteer regiment formed, which was trained in Chicago for only about six weeks and then sailed for England, where it was reviewed by King George." writes a reader of The Bee. "Shortly after the review the regiment sailed for France and was attached to the Fourth French army. From August 18, 1917, to September 18 the outfit served with the Second French army in the Verdun sector and later took part in the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives. "The regiment was decorated by the French and American governments as the first American unit to fight in France."
