

South Side BOOTLEGGERS OF SOUTH SIDE TAKE VACATION

But One Arrest on Liquor
Charge Made During Last Six Days; Look for Strong "Come Back."

Residents of the South Side are at a loss to account for the sudden dearth of police court cases involving illegal sale or possession of intoxicating liquor.

During the six days ending Thursday only one man was arrested by South Side police officials on a liquor charge. This man, Fred Mueller, 1804 Van Camp avenue, had in his possession a half pint of liquor. He was fined $100 and costs by Police Judge Foster. Thirty-five arrests were made during the week.

Reputation at Stake.
With its reputation as one of the wettest spots in the Nebraska Sahara at stake, the South Side is trying to figure out whether Gus Hyers and his force of liquor agents finally have succeeded in closing the underground channels through which the contraband liquor was wont to come or whether the agents are working elsewhere.

Previous to this week about 50 per cent of all arrests and convictions on the South Side were on liquor charges. A great amount of contraband liquor has been confiscated by state agents and city police. Judge Foster also aided in the crusade against violators of the prohibition law by heavily fining and jailing offenders.

Many residents of the South Side believe that bootleggers are but taking a short vacation and will begin their unlawful operations with added fervor in the near future.

No Omaha Soldiers Stranded in New York, Is Report to C. of C.

"No Omaha boys are stranded in New York," Effie Leese Scott, secretary of the Nebraska committee, Hall of States, 27 West Twenty-fifth street, New York, assures W. A. Ellis of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

The New York War Camp Community service recently wired the Omaha Chamber of Commerce that Nebraska boys were walking the streets of New York penniless, looking for work.

This is not true, according to Mrs. Scott.

The state legislature yesterday reversed its decision of Tuesday in denying Governor McKelvie's appropriation bill for $25,000 to carry on this work in New York.

Omega Oil
for Swellings & Inflammation

Rub Omega Oil gently over the place that hurts. Then soak a piece of flannel with the Oil, lay it on the painful part and cover with dry flannel. This simple treatment usually gives quick relief.

Attends Agricultural Meet—Robert A. Smith, supervisor of agriculture for the Union Pacific, has been called to Memphis, Tenn., where a meeting of the supervisors of agriculture of practically all the railroads in the United States is being held.

Rail Official Here—W. S. Basinger, former general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, but now with the traffic division of the railroad administration, is in town for a few days. Mr. Basinger sees no prospect for the return of the railroads to corporate ownership in the near future.

Ask Rate on Coal—The Aztec Coal Mining company, with mines in the vicinity of Madrid, N. M., and general offices at Denver, has applied to the Omaha district freight traffic committee for rates on coal into Nebraska. The New Mexico company is anxious to enter the northern territory with its product. Not having shipped into this territory before, there has never been a freight rate on coal from New Mexico.

Noonday Club Meeting—The Noonday club will meet in the lounge room of the Chamber of Commerce Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Women's Committee to Meet—The women's committee for the Victory loan drive will meet in the south dining room of the Chamber of Commerce Saturday at luncheon. Mrs. F. W. Judson, chairman, will preside. One hundred are expected.

New Order on Trackage—The railroad administration has promulgated a new order relative to industrial trackage in cities. When the railroads were under corporate control and operation, industrial tracks were laid and maintained at the expense of the companies operating. Now the rule is that the railroads will stand the expense of construction, but maintenance cost must be borne by the industries served.

Rudolph Ganz, Noted Swiss Pianist, Will Be in Omaha April 22

Rudolph Ganz, the eminent Swiss pianist who will give a joint recital with Carolina Dazzari, leading contralto with the Chicago Opera company at the Auditorium, Tuesday evening, April 22, is primarily the intellectual pianist, if you take away from "intellectual" its imputation of coldness. He is intellectual as Kreisler, with a highly energetic grasp of the meaning that is in the notes, and an exceptionally clear way of foreseeing the effect needed to convey that meaning. The result is that the listener sees the piece of music spread out before him as though it were a picture.

Man Struck by Bullet Sues Omaha Store for $20,000

Peter A. Peterson filed suit yesterday in district court against J. L. Brandeis & Sons for $20,000 for injuries alleged to have been received on January 9, 1919, when he was struck by a bullet, said to have been shot by Lawrence Finn, store detective, who was in pursuit of a shop lifter.

Insurance Men to Start Campaign With Banquet

Agents of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company of the Omaha district will start their campaign to write $5,000,000 worth of life insurance in 1919 at a banquet at the Hotel Fontenelle this evening.

GRAIN EMBARGO PERMIT SYSTEM LIFTED TODAY

Accept Shipments on Any Road Except for Export;
No Effect on Omaha
Is Expected.

Railroad officials have been advised that beginning with this date the railroad administration has lifted the embargo on all grains destined for primary markets and at the same time has canceled the permit system that has been maintained on grain shipments since early last fall.

Permits must be obtained where grain is routed for export before such shipments can be made. The raising of the embargo will have little if any effect upon the Omaha market, due to the fact that both in and out shipments of all kinds of grain have been light during the last three months.

This letting up in receipts has correspondingly improved the storage conditions in terminal elevators, so that there is plenty of capacity for all shipments in sight.

Shipments have been so great since the first of the year that few of the Omaha elevators are filled.

State Second in Amount of Manufacturing Per Employee

Nebraska stands second among all states in the union in the amount of manufacturing per employee.

This fact was recently discovered by the bureau of publicity of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce in browsing through the new report of the bureau of census, based on 1914 figures.

The reason for Nebraska's high standing is, of course, that most of Nebraska's manufacturing is confined to lines where the percentage of labor is low in comparison with the value of output, such as packing, and butter production.

Magic "Ulypto" For Your Back!

A New Ointment. Extracted From Eucalyptus Tree. Instant Relief!
