

OMAHANS TAKEN IN FREMONT RAID, HAD FALSE NAMES

Investigation Fails to Reveal Identity of Stylishly Dressed Couples Arrested in Rooming House.

Fremont, Neb., April 4.—(Special)—Three stylishly dressed young couples, giving their addresses as Page, E. H. Monroe, R. L. Thacker, Bess Brown, Lucile Fox and Grace Smith, were arrested here in a local rooming house. After furnishing cash bonds of $15 each, the men were released. The girls were not held.

A party of three young couples, claiming residences in Omaha, gave the Fremont police names which do not check up, according to investigations made yesterday morning. The names given were: E. H. Page, E. H. Monroe, R. L. Thacker, Bess Brown, Lucile Fox and Grace Smith. The young people were arrested in separate rooms in a Fremont rooming house. The men furnished bonds of $15 each and the women were released.

Dunies Visit to Fremont.
The only "Bess Brown" in the city directory lives at 427 North Thirty-eighth street. She stated Omaha and their names as N. E. that she had not been in Fremont, and is of the opinion that somebody used her name for convenience. She added that she did not know Lucile Fox nor Grace Smith. "E. H. Monroe" is shown in the directory as a resident at 2210 South Tenth street. Inquiries at that number indicated that Mr. Monroe was at home last night. He was emphatic in his denial. It is believed all of the names given by the parties arrested at Fremont were fictitious.

The directory does not show "R. L. Thacker," but "Ralph Thacker" declared that he was not one of the party.

Little Journeys in the Garden

The home garden is profitable, for one reason, because it saves the cost of vegetables that otherwise would be bought. It is a healthful enterprise. It furnishes excellent outdoor exercise. It provides vegetables that are fresher, more palatable and better than many to be had in the market.

The home-garden vegetables are always available, to be had not only without expense, but without inconvenience. Therefore, they are likely to be used more freely than if a trip to market or even a telephone call were necessary.

But there is still another particular in which the home garden confers a great benefit. The boy or girl who is given a part in cultivating a home garden, who is charged with some of the responsibilities and put to solve some of the problems of cultivation, acquires in the process a spirit of self-reliance, a knack of making the means at hand serve the end desired, that will be valuable throughout the rest of that boy's or girl's life in any kind of service that may be required. It is the home garden as a training school in personal efficiency.

Edward Craven, former telegrapher of the Western Union, returned to Omaha Thursday from military service on the Pacific coast. He enlisted in the coast artillery 10 months ago, and was stationed at Fort Scott, Cal.

Souvenir post cards taken off the body of a dead boche who was killed while operating a machine gun were sent to Mrs. M. Rosenthal, mother of Private A. Rosenthal, Omaha boy, now stationed at Bricon Haute-Marne, France. The souvenirs were taken from the body following a raid made by American troops on German outposts. Nothing, not even German helmets, is as welcome to the American doughboy as a newspaper from the United States, according to a letter received from Private Rosenthal. "We never know what is going in the states except by what we hear through some short telegraphic item occasionally," he wrote.

Sergt. Harry S. Pickard, formerly employed by the Swift Packing company, Thirtieth and Leavenworth streets, was wounded in the leg and arm in the Argonne forest drive, according to word received by Mrs. J. G. Fleming from Sergeant Pickard's sister in Dundee, Scotland. After five operations to save it, the soldier's leg was amputated. Lt. Vincent Schmittroth, former employe of the Union Pacific railroad, has been discharged from active duty at Fort Hancock, Ga., where he won his commission in August, 1918. Lieutenant Schmittroth spent 18 months in military service. He was in the officers' training school at Fort Hancock. At the time of his discharge, he was with a machine gun battalion.

Sergt. James F. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Kelly, 2777 Webster street, has arrived safely in New York from overseas. He is a member of the 89th division. He will be discharged at Camp Merritt, and will immediately return to Omaha.

Pvt. Arthur M. Foote, son of Dr. D. A. Foote, who for the last two years has been with the Canadian army overseas, has returned to Omaha to recuperate from wounds. He was gassed twice, and from one of these lost the sight of his right eye. He also suffered from shrapnel wounds.

Private Foote suffered the loss of one eye when the concussion of a huge Hun shell blew off his gas mask. He was eight months in the hospital the first time and three months the last.

Private Foote goes from here to Philadelphia to work for the government.

Shortly after his arrival at Camp Mills, New York, from overseas, Valery White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. White, was promoted to captain. His brother, K. H. White, New York, with whom he celebrated his promotion, wired the news to his parents. Captain White was with the 91st division in France. He arrived from overseas on March 31, and expects his command to be demobilized at Camp Dodge soon. Captain White was graduated as first lieutenant at the Officers' Training School at the Presidio, November, 1917.

Lieut. C. P. Dudley, former South Side commission man, and All-American fullback of 1911, arrived in New York Thursday on the steamer Arizonian. Lieutenant Dudley wore the Croix de Guerre, won for bravery in action. The following aero squadrons arrived on the same vessel: Nos. 19, 21, 30, 31, 32, 33, 37, 43, 101, 172, 174, 257 and 640.

"Dress-Up Week" to Be Annual Affair in City, Local Retailers Say

"Spring Dress-Up Week" will be an annual institution in Omaha, so great has been its success during this week, J. W. Metcalfe of the Associated Retailers of Omaha, announces.

A similar business-boosting event for the fall season is planned by the merchants.

"Business far exceeded our expectations," said George Brandeis. Other merchants reiterate the same statement.

Dress-Up Week closes tonight. Daily changes in windows have been a feature of the Dress-Up Week.

B'nai B'rith Order Will Initiate Big Class Sunday
Omaha Lodge No. 354, B'nai B'rith Order, will initiate a class of 150 candidates, the largest number ever admitted to the order at one time, Sunday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock in Crouse hall, Sixteenth street and Capitol avenue. The class makes a record for this district, embracing five states, as well as for Omaha. Frank Spigle is president of the order.

To Take Up Civil Code Bill.
Lincoln, April 4.—(Special).—Members of the house were notified Friday morning that in the afternoon the civil administrative code bill would be taken up.

Divorce Courts

Ella Cech asks the district court to dismiss the divorce suit of her husband, Michael, against her and to grant her a divorce from him with alimony.

Alleging that her husband, on November 2, 1918, knocked her down with his fist and kicked her as she lay on the floor, Anna S. Fawcett has filed suit in district court for a divorce from Irwin D. Fawcett. She says he has threatened to kill her. She asks the custody of their three children and for $50 a month alimony.

Nora B. Hassloch alleges, in a petition for divorce filed in district court yesterday, that her husband, Frederick, abandoned her and their three little boys in Benson in May, 1911, and that she hasn't seen nor heard from him since then. They were married in 1902 in Kankakee, Ill.

Report Brisk Recruiting Here for Overseas Army

The largest number of daily enlistments in the new army for overseas services was made before 9 o'clock yesterday at the Omaha recruiting station. Nineteen men took the oath of allegiance, five of whom were discharged soldiers.

Men enlisting for three years in the infantry, cavalry, medical or signal corps will be sent overseas immediately. Major O. G. Fritz declared. A recruiting station is being established at McCook, Neb., by Major R. R. Frith, who went there Thursday to investigate the prospects of new enlistments.

Men desiring to see service in the signal corps in Alaska may enlist for that provision, according to a recent circular issued by the War department.

Name New Committee

Paris, April 4.—The council of four has appointed a committee consisting of L. P. Loucheur, French minister of reconstruction; Edwin Samuel Montague, British secretary for India; and John W. Davis, American ambassador to Great Britain, to put into definite form proposals for the solution of the reparations question. These will be passed upon, in principle, by the council, it is reported from French sources.

Accidents will occur, but infection need not.
You never know just when it is going to happen. Generally without warning a slip is made—a deep cut—a broken and bruised skin is the result. That's the time to be careful—to guard against infection. There's safety and security in a jar of Resinol Ointment. Anoint the wound and bandage—it heals twice as fast this way. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment used jointly are excellent for the treatment of all skin disorders on limbs, body and face. They work quickly and well.

If there was a piano that would produce purer tone—more wonderful music than you ever heard from another—would you investigate?

If aside from its beautiful tone it had a beautiful and artistic case design in whatever fancy wood or finish you liked best and it was an instrument of good reputation—would you want it?

If you could by actual test in your own home without cost or trouble to yourself prove the truth about it—would you test it?

If by paying cash at Hayden's Cash Store, you could buy it for less money than anywhere else on earth and at a saving of 33 1/3%—would you buy it?

This is exactly the proposition we wish to make to you. It applies as well to a Player Piano.

For full particulars call at our new Music department.

Inspect our new selected stock of all the good instruments we formerly handled, including Knabe Grands, Uprights and Reproducing Pianos, in all the fancy woods—bright, dull or wax finish—as you prefer. Every one guaranteed as long as it remains in your home.
