Merritt of Council Bluffs will give a cinema demonstration, following the banquet, of the United States of America Roentgen field apparatus as used at the front, and a comparison of the apparatus used by the enemy. War Correspondent Is Speaker at C. of C. Luncheon

A drive for 100 per cent Ak-Sar-Ben memberships was conducted by Walter Byrne and Ed O. Hamilton at the Kiwanis club luncheon yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce.

Henry Wood, former Omaha newspaperman, who served as war correspondent and reported sessions of the peace conference, was the speaker.

Mr. Wood, who was one of six correspondents awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, returns to Paris April 17.

Less Than 100 Final Returns Made Out of 3,500 Income Reports

Less than 100 final returns of 3,500 tentative income tax reports, that have already been filed in the internal revenue department, have been made, according to K. J. Carson, chief deputy of internal revenue in this district. May 15 is the final date on which full returns of corporation taxes may be made.

"The delay of more than 3,000 firms in Nebraska in making their returns will cause considerable difficulty during the last few days," Mr. Carson said. "We have plenty of men who will aid incorporated firms in making their returns now."

The internal revenue department in the work of bringing in the corporation taxes before May 15.

NEW EXPOSITION FIELD FOR USE OF OMAHA ONLY

Ak-Sar-Ben Governors Inspect Grounds and Make Plans for Buildings; Will Improve Old Race Track.

A general inspection of the site of the Ak-Sar-Ben exposition field, consisting of 130 acres near Sixty-fourth and Center streets, was made by the board of governors of the Ak-Sar-Ben yesterday afternoon following luncheon at the Omaha club.

The general opinion of the committee was that the south end of the tract, 40 acres of level pasture bordering on the paved road, will be the exposition grounds proper, on which will be constructed the main buildings, concessions and entrance. The north end of the field, consisting of 90 acres, is to be platted for the improvement of the old mile race track, grandstand, parking places, scenic gardens surrounded by trees, to be planted between now and Arbor day, April 22.

To Build Lagoon.
Besides the artistry to be exemplified in the new buildings and outdoor surroundings, a feature of the Ak-Sar-Ben exposition field is to be an artificially constructed lagoon, in the center of the group of exposition structures. Shade trees and artistic footbridges will beautify the grounds, according to the plans. The race track, graded 30 years ago for use at the old state fair grounds, will be improved to revive horse racing in Omaha. Drainage of the interior area will be constructed, leading into the Little Pappio, flowing along the west boundary of the field. The interior space of the track, being low, will be used for automobile parking because of its convenient location, even affording a broad view of the complete track to grandstand spectators. A wide enough banking at the turn of the track will be constructed to permit automobile racing, the directors say.

All for Omaha.
"The construction of this exposition field is for Omaha only," Everett Buckingham said. "It is a community proposition, and will be used to boost Omaha. Fairs, races, picnics and other events will be staged here—all for Omaha."

Louis Nash, member of the board of Ak-Sar-Ben governors, said: "Omaha is in need of an exposition site. We're entirely satisfied and enthusiastic of the new choice for public events. The field will be used for occasions of community benefit."

At the noonday luncheon, Thomas Wood Stevens, Pittsburgh organizer of public pageants, spoke about various plans of community fairs and festivals. He spoke highly of plans of the Ak-Sar-Ben governing board in building the exposition field.

Members of the board who inspected the field were: Everett Buckingham, J. D. Weaver, Kansas City, Mo.; J. E. Davidson, Louisville, Ky.; J. W. Gamble, William Wood, Gould, Dietz, Arthur Thomas and Roy N. Towle.

As yet no contracts have been let for building and landscape work.

Nash Motor Head in City Tells of Boom Sweeping Country

"So far as I know there was never a time in the history of the United States when money was as plentiful as it is now," said C. B. Nash, president of the Nash Motor company of Kenosha, Wis., who was in the city between trains yesterday afternoon, enroute home from a trip to the Pacific coast.

While in Omaha, Mr. Nash spent most of the time with F. H. McDearmon, Nebraska agent for the Nash cars and the Nash motor trucks.

Speaking of the automobile business, Mr. Nash said: "All automobile and truck manufacturers are going to have a tremendous sale this season. We expect to sell 25,000 cars and indications are that we could dispose of double this number if we had the capacity for their manufacture. Of this number, our Omaha agency will sell 2,500 and I am confident Mr. McDearmon could sell 5,000 if we could spare him that number. However, his allotment is but 2,500. What is true with us is equally true with the other manufacturers. They are all going to readily dispose of their capacity output."

Alleged Burglar Is Bound Over to District Court
Tony Scolla, alleged burglar, and accomplice of L. R. Young, the boy who was shot and killed two weeks ago by the police while burglarizing the Janous barber shop in North Sixteenth street, was arraigned in police court yesterday and bound over for the district court.

Scolla was arrested yesterday afternoon at Fourteenth and Douglas streets by detectives Dolan and Hagerman. The prisoner confessed, the police say, to having been one of the boys who were robbing the barber shop when Young was killed.

Hart Great to Look at
Louis Hart, appearing at the Empress theater, is a treat to look upon. He first appears as a cigarette smoking dandy and startles his spectators by seizing a huge soldier and lifting him high into the air. Later six of them stand on his suspended body. He poses as a statue in a classical act and causes audible whispers of admiration. As a portrait painter Hart enjoys quite a reputation in Europe, having been decorated by the French government with the Violet Ribbon of Merit.

Omahan to Direct Work of Construction of Plane to Cross Ocean

A. J. P. Bertschy, Omaha mechanical engineer, who has been doing war work at McCook field, Dayton, O., is home for a short time before leaving, he says, to supervise the construction of an all-metal airplane on the east coast to cross the Atlantic ocean.

Mr. Bertschy is said to have made valuable discoveries during the war to protect steamships from submarine torpedoes and to have discovered a new method of tempering steel at a small fraction of the usual cost.

"Airplanes will soon be used for regular passenger traffic," he says. Before July 1 they will be in operation between the big cities on the Atlantic coast. Four others will be sent from the Glen Martin factory to the Pacific coast. They will have a speed of 120 miles an hour and will carry a useful load of 1,769 pounds each at a cost of operation of 25 cents a mile.
