Alleged Witnesses of Hiawatha (Kan.) Shooting Charged With Transporting Whisky Through the State.

St. Joseph, Mo., April 5.—(Special Telegram)—Homer Anderson and J. C. Banker, both giving Omaha as their home, are being held in Hiawatha, Kan., as witnesses to the killing of Columbus Beeler, 70 years old, and the wounding of his son, Fred Beeler, which occurred Thursday night at the home of John Heikes, near Hiawatha.

The father and son are alleged to have come to the Heikes home to spend the night after the breaking down of an automobile in which they were carrying liquor. Heikes has been arrested charged with the killing of Beeler.

Police Allege Confession.

Police in Hiawatha say he confessed to the murder, but insisted that the shooting was accidental.

Anderson and Banker assert that the shooting followed a violent quarrel between Heikes and Beeler. The two men are neighbors. They say the entire party had been drinking liquor.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Anderson and Banker charging them with violating the bone dry law. Kansas police allege the Omaha men had a cargo of "booze" which they were taking to Omaha from St. Joseph.

Steamer Carrying Eckhardt Homeward Detained at Plymouth

Portsmouth, Eng., April 5.—The Dutch steamer Nieuw Amsterdam, which left New York March 26, is being detained here by the British authorities. No reason is given. It is reported that the former German minister to Mexico, H. von Eckhardt, is on board.

Here von Eckhardt and his family left New York March 26 bound for Holland. It was reported at the time that the allied governments had granted safe conduct to the minister.

At the time the vessel sailed it was said that on its arrival at Plymouth, it would be boarded by British and French secret agents who would watch the German voyagers until the liner left for Rotterdam.

Lincoln, April 5.—The Nebraska supreme court Saturday, in affirming a judgment obtained in the Douglas county district court, against the Otis Elevator company, says a verdict of $25,000 for Daniel M. Thomas of Omaha, crippled for life by a fall of five stories to a cement basement, is not excessive.

Thomas is 26 years old and was an employee of the Omaha Iron works when he was struck by an elevator while working on a new hotel in Omaha.

Thomas' legs were fractured, an arm broken, his jaw fractured and teeth knocked loose as a result of the fall. The accident left him with one knee stiff and one leg and inch and a half shorter than the other.
