Koreans Look for Wilson to Come to Their Aid Riding Overseas Upon Airplane

Troops Given Instructions to Treat People Charitably and in Consonance With Spirit of Bushido; Missionaries Declare They Will Not Interfere; Soldiers Ordered to Use Guns Only As Last Resort.

By The Associated Press.

Seoul, April 8.—General Utsunomiya, commander of the Japanese army in Korea, has issued a proclamation to the troops to use their arms only as a last resort and to treat the people charitably, sympathetically and in consonance with the spirit of Bushido, and not show hostility to the families of demonstrators.

WILL NOT INTERFERE.

A representative of the Japanese authorities requests the missionaries to use their influence with the Koreans to discontinue the movements. Through Bishop Welch the American Methodist missionaries have replied that they are unable to interfere, first, because it would be ineffective; second, it would impair the success of their own work among the Koreans and third, it would constitute interference with internal politics, which is expressly forbidden by the American government.

ODESSA IS IN HANDS OF SOVIET FIGHTERS

Bolshevik Pressure Against Russian Port Increasing; Military Experts Expect Drive at Center of Europe.

Bolsheviks Lined Up in Square; Every Second One Shot

Warsaw, April 8.—Thirty-three bolsheviks were executed at Plask on the western frontier of Poland Saturday.

EXPECT SPRING DRIVE.

Washington, April 8.—A furious spring drive against the center of Europe by bolshevik armies is what military experts here see in statements given out by the state department.

WITHOUT FOUNDATION.

"With regard to the suggestions which have appeared in some quarters that Lloyd George had advised recognition of Lenin or Trotsky I am in a position to state that these suggestions are wholly without foundation. Mr. Lloyd-George has never suggested that Lenin and Trotsky should be recognized."

TWO ARMIES RELEASED.

"We are getting out of Russia as fast as we can and I have no doubt the British will be obliged to do the same thing at the same time. The bolsheviks are clearing the Odessa port of Russia of the allies and thus two armies will be released for action in Hungary with every possible indication that the Hungarian soviet government will be the first great ally of the Russian enemy from the rest of Europe. It is plain that the war is coming and that the invasion will be one of savage and unmerciful proportions. I read in the attitude of the president who is ordering the troops home as fast as possible and the fact that the American troops who were in Italy are on the way home that we shall not be called on to fight the bolsheviks and Hungarian army and all the allies they can sweep up between now and the end of the peace conference."
