here in May than at present. On the other hand, the extremely bearish character of the government crop report on winter wheat seemed to have been thoroughly wheat seemed to have been thoroughly discounted in advance. Pit traders sold on the bulges, but covered quickly when any important commission fouse buying appeared. Absence of aggressive leadership on the part of the bears was especially noticeable at the finish, which was at about the topmost point reached.

Oats displayed independent strength. Surprise over the large decrease of the visible supply served to stimulate demand. In provisions the government report on breeding sows tended to lift values. Besides, export business was good. Packers led the buying.

New York, April 8 .- Diaregarding the New York, April 8.—Diaregarding the shifting and less favorable phases of the peace conference, higher rates for money and the uncertain status of the steel industry, pools extended their builth maneuvers in various quarters of the stock market today.

Substantially higher quotations prevailed

at the broad opening, a few specialties making immediate gains of I to 5 points. For the most part these were materially enhanced during the session, incessant profit-taking making little impression until the final hour. Noteworthy exceptions to the higher thend encompassed rails, coppers and steels, although the latter came moder-ately forward later, despite prospects of an adverse United States Steel tonnage statement on Thursday and misgiving con-cerning the dividend for the first quarter. The backwardness of rails in the face of one of the most remarkable crop reports ever issued by the government, was the subject of considerable comment, but seemed to cause little restraint among professional traders.
