V-LOAN WORKERS PREPARE TO MEET TREASURY HEAD

Secretary Glass Will Address Public on Victory Loan in Omaha, Thursday,
April 24.

Arrangements for the visit of Carter Glass, secretary of the treasury, in Omaha Thursday, April 24, to boost the Victory Liberty loan drive, were outlined by T. C. Byrne, state chairman, at a meeting of the executive committee Tuesday in the Chamber of Commerce.

"Secretary Glass will be met by a committee on his arrival at 9:45 o'clock in the morning," Mr. Byrne said, "and an informal reception will be held, at which all of Omaha's bankers will meet him. His first public appearance will be at the luncheon in the Chamber of Commerce. It is very probable a public meeting will be arranged for at one of the downtown theaters, to be given at 2:30 in the afternoon."

"The fact that Secretary Glass is giving this time to Omaha and to the west argues the necessity for intensive work in getting the Victory Liberty loan over," he has promised that this shall be the last loan called for from all of the people.

A Savings Loan.
"Secretary Glass calls attention to the fact that the notes must not be taken out by banks; but by the American people; that the debt must be paid out of savings instead of additional borrowings."

A Victory Liberty Loan bank will be established in a convenient downtown spot, where notes may be purchased without going to the bank or awaiting a solicitor's visit. It was decided at Tuesday's meeting. The location has not yet been decided.
In previous drives, the National League for Women's Service has maintained a Liberty bank.

Workers Carry Cards.
Every one of the 1,500 workers who solicit for the loan will be supplied with identification cards to show that they are properly accredited. Sam Burns, city chairman of the loan committee has prepared the cards and they will be distributed to workers through their majors.

Prominent Movie Man to Visit Here Two Days This Week

Carl Laemmle.

Carl Laemmle, head of the Universal Film company and one of the biggest figures in the film world, will be in Omaha Thursday and Friday of this week. He will stop here on his way east after his annual tour of inspection through the California studios of the company of which he is the head at Universal City.

Mr. Laemmle, who has been with the film business since its inception in this country, believes that this year will see better and bigger pictures made and that many of the evils which have been uppermost in the past have been overcome and that "the movies" will have a better name in the future than has always been the case in the past.

ported that everything was in readiness to "go at 'em." Swift and Armour plants have already prepared banners, posters and other advertising matter for the loan and will spread them over the walls of their plants. Morris and Cudahy plants are also ready to start.

Fred Cascarden of the Merchants National bank, in charge of the supplies, has tons of material on hand ready for distribution to workers.

Mayor Tells Pupils He Was Not Elected by "the People"

Mayor Smith has announced that he was not elected mayor by the people of Omaha.

On Tuesday afternoon a group of boys and girls of the civics classes of Central High school visited the mayor's office during a tour of the city hall.

In a brief talk to these young people, the mayor explained the commission plan of city government, stating that seven commissioners are elected and that the successful candidates choose the mayor.

Father of Injured Boy Sues Storage Co. for $20,000

Norman Stanfield, through his father, Fred Stanfield, 607 North Twentieth street, filed suit in district court yesterday against the Omaha Van & Storage company and the Omaha Fireproof Storage company, asking $20,000 damages. The petition states that the boy, Norman Stanfield, is crippled for life by injuries alleged to have been sustained when a truck belonging to the defendants struck him at Twenty-first and Cass streets, March 29.

Mayor Threatens to Hurl Hand Grenade at all "Pests"

Mayor Smith has on his desk a German hand grenade which he threatens to throw at any uncouth person who would try to disturb his peace of mind while he is maintaining the peace and dignity of the city.

Charles L. Geyer, who abides near the Smith habitat, near Hanscom Park, picked this grenade from the ground of Chateau-Thierry and recently brought it home for the mayor.

SCOUT LEADER TALKS AT MEET OF ROTARY CLUB

National Secretary Scott Delivers Address While Joy Sut-phen Boosts for Ak-Sar-Ben Membership.

Woe unto those members who were tardy or absent from the Rotary club meeting at the Hotel Fontenelle yesterday. Late members were serenaded by choruses of lusty voices with a song that runs: "Here comes so-and-so, he is late again." Members who failed to report "for duty" were pronounced slackers, and according to the chairman, will be severely punished.

National Secretary Scott of the Camp Fire girls organization, who is in the city for to organize a committee to carry on the camp fire work, delivered a short address on the Camp Fire girls' organization.

Two tables in the center of the room were reserved for late comers and each was required to wear a dunce cap during the luncheon.

Scout Executive Hoyt addressed the meeting on "Scouting." Another speaker was Joy Sutphen, who spoke on "One Hundred Per Cent Ak-Sar-Ben Membership."

Prizes were distributed by drawing numbers. Each man had to tell the name and business of the man preceding him to win a prize. A "selective draft" was held for speakers and no exemptions were granted.

Another feature of the meeting was a "geographical roll call," each member telling where he was born, and what his present occupation was.
A committee of five men was named to bring in absent members "dead or alive," at the next meeting.

Drive for 250 More Members for O. A. C. to Start Thursday

Although the campaign for new members of the Omaha Athletic club does not open until after the meeting of the membership committee Thursday night, the secretary has already received many applications and indications are that it will not take long to dispose of the 250 memberships which the directors have decided upon.

W. B. T. Bolt, chairman of the membership committee which handles the drive for members, will give a dinner Thursday night to the committee, when the new campaign will be launched.

Chief of Weather Bureau in Omaha Called to Capital

Colonel Welsh, head of the Omaha weather bureau, and Mrs. Welsh, left last evening for Washington, D. C., where Mr. Welsh has been summoned by the chief of the United States weather bureau department for consultation. A number of other weather officials of the country will also be in Washington to discuss methods of rejuvenating the service, which was hard hit by the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Welsh plan to extend their trip to New York and Baltimore and expect to be absent for at least two weeks.

FLASHES from FILMLAND PHOTO-PLAY OFFERINGS FOR TODAY

A PRIVATE showing of the United States government's picture for men "Fit to Win" will be given at the Boyd theater Friday morning at 11 o'clock. City officials, physicians and newspaper representatives have been invited as there is a number of prominent Om-ahans. The picture has been made as a part of the campaign against social disease and is being shown throughout the country in an attempt to promulgate the lessons taught to the army to all the people of the United States. The public showing of "Fit to Win" will be next week at the Boyd.

Elsie Ferguson in "The Marriage Price," will be the offering at the Rialto today and for the remainder of this week. Miss Ferguson portrays the part of a society girl, who, at the death of her father, is left penniless. She is offered help by rich idlers, but prefers to live in poverty, and when she is down to her last dime, she is found by a rich westerner who insists on marrying her. When she believes in it, she rich. She decided that marriage under these conditions is a failure, and only the belief that he has lost his money holds the pair together. All ends happily in the end for both husband and wife. It is a strong emotional drama and one in which Miss Ferguson has scored a distinct success.

Enid Bennett in "Fuss and Feathers," at the Strand today and the rest of this week has a stirring story of a girl of a western mining camp whose father suddenly finds gold and becomes fabulously wealthy.
When they go to San Francisco to live in style "Susie" is snubbed by the high society people, but in the end she marries one of the aristocrats of the city. It is a pleasing comedy drama, with Miss Bennett in an unusually interesting role.
In the cast with her are Douglas McLean and Robert McKim.

Lazzari's Rich Contralto Will Ring in Omaha

Carolina Lazzari is possessor of one of the really great contralto voices of the generation. In a single season with the Chicago Opera company she attained such popularity that before the season closed she had booked for more than two score appearances in concert, as well as for numerous important engagements in grand opera.
It is an interesting fact that some of her phonograph records disclose the lowest note ever recorded for a female voice.

Miss Lazzari will appear in joint recital with Rudolf Ganz, the Swiss pianist, at the Auditorium Tuesday evening, April 22. Seat sale opens next Monday morning.
Mail orders to Mrs. A. L. Green, 4904 Underwood avenue, with remittance, stamped and self-addressed envelope will be filled upon receipt. of "pep" and fun. He borrows the uniform of an accommodating policeman in order to woo the girl of his choice, having been told that she is a lady's maid and believing that a policeman would be sure to stand with favor in her eyes. He gets in-

Don't Forget the Children

Children's teeth need looking after as much as your own. Your boy or girl cannot be well unless they are able to masticate their food properly.

If children were trained from infancy to the proper care of the mouth and teeth, they would certainly be less liable to infection from diphtheria, croup, scarlet fever and other germ diseases, besides laying the foundation for good permanent teeth and robust health.

Don't wait any longer. Look after the foundation of all your ailments at once, as delay means unnecessary pain and expense. There is no time like now.

nearly flesh colored that it is not conspicuous.
