The 3,480 acre ranch on east Pine Ridge, 20 miles from Crawford; 13 miles from Marsland, with its 300 acres under cultivation, its 2,000 acres farmable, its most excellent soil and all its improvements, at only $18 an acre and only $18,000 or $20,000 down, and the balance back on long time at 6 per cent, is all off in just a few days. I have already been legally notified to take this off the list if I do not sell it. That means a big jump in price. If you can't see your way clear to control as big a ranch as this yourself, come and buy it anyway, out out 1,000 or 1,500 acres that you do want to keep, and turn the rest of it back to me to sell in smaller tracts. I will list it back at from $20 to $22 and $24 an acre, if you will let me sell it in half section tracts. You could pick out your choice and sell off the rest. It is located in the best farming section of all the west. Everyone will admit that. Don't wait and let the price go up. It is absolutely all off on April 18th. Please act today. If I wasn't tied up in so many places, I would buy it in myself. It is a dandy. I hate to see my listment run out. I would like to hand it to a client. I could stretch a point and handle 1-3 or '4 interest in it until we could sell off enough to pay me out. I you wasted me to. Come at once and look this over. Arah I. Hungerford,

New York, April 10.—Yesterday's advance, was followed by rather nervous and irregular fluctuations in the market for coffee futures today.
