ing, to deliver the bonnet which was to be worn. That's all past and gone now, but still the habit clings, and everybody today, as then, wants a new bonnet for Easter. For all these we are going to make a special offering on Saturday. These days the bonnet is a hat, and how beautiful the hats are this year.

Changed Time, Note Please-We were told a day or two ago a hat, and how beautiful the hats are this year. No words of ours could possibly convey to you the charm that lies in the Hats that we show for this Easter. There runs through them a sort of triumphant air—"A Victory Air," if you

Good Dressers

Women of refined taste don't need to be told the importance of starting right with inner garments, if they desire perfect fitting outer garments. Fashion's founders have thought of all this in their designing and making of Gowns, Camisoles, Envelopes, Pajamas and Petticoats. And you'll find them in dainty silks, as well as sheer and heavier muslins. Conforming to a fixed habit, we offer a special here for Saturday-just a small lot of Camisoles this time, made from wash silk or satin, trimmed daintly in lace or ribbon, at $1.39 each.

We were lucky in securing under price a lot of Muslin Gowns. Gowns such as are usually sold from $1.75 to $2.00; trimmed with lace; we offer them at a bargain at $1.35.

And Here's an Attraction in Petticoats or rather a Petticoat attraction. Made from fine Jersey and Taffets Silk; plain colors, prettily trimmed with wee flully ruffles. You'll readily recognize the value at $5.95.

Attractions for Easter

Wherever possible, we are letting down the prices, convinced that if things are to reach a lower level the start must be made with wearables, rather than wages-with commodities, rather than pay check-and so in our Ready-to-Put-On-and-Wear Department for Women, we show Saturday some specially attractive things for Easter. First Suits, new arrivals, just one of a style. Not every size. Serges, Velours, Gabardines, Checks, English Tweeds, in plain tailored, semi-tailored. Loose back and Russian Blouse.
