

FAMINE TAKING HEAVY TOLL IN RUSSIAN CITIES

Two Hundred Thousand Die Monthly From Food Shortage, According to Hoover's Estimate.

Paris, April 12.—Herbert C. Hoover, the food administrator, has issued a statement with regard to the feeding of Russia. The statement says: "With regard to the rumors of food relief to Russia, Mr. Hoover stated that numbers of projects from various sources have been laid before him for provisioning the people in the larger cities of Russia. Dr. Nansen (head of the Norwegian food mission to the United States) and other eminent neutrals came to Paris some time ago with proposals for relief (words missing) of the first order and have therefore all been referred to the council of four as they arose. "The relief administration has carried on a great deal of investigation as to the actual food conditions in Russia. The gravity of the situation cannot be over-estimated. A very conservative estimate would indicate that upward of 200,000 people are directly or indirectly dying from the food shortage monthly at the present moment, and the situation is likely to grow in intensity as the season progresses.

Feed Children. "Under the distribution system rigidly enforced by the soviet government in the larger cities, the children have the first priority on the food supply by way of meal service in the schools, which are open to children of all classes. The red guard and workmen have the second priority and the bourgeois and intellectual classes, etc., receive the remainder.

"Our reports would indicate that the children who attended the schools are being reasonably cared for, that the red guard is receiving a sufficient ration, but that the burden of the shortage falls upon the middle, upper and intellectual classes, and threatens their considerable extinction before the next harvest. How far this will be the practical result, however, is a little difficult to determine because of the great migration to the country. The population of Petrograd has decreased by 70 per cent.

"The Lenine and Trotsky socialization of the processes of production has so wrecked both production and distribution as to create a state of famine in a country, which formerly contributed so largely to the food supply of the world."

Council Withholds Relief. Paris advices Friday night stated that Dr. Hansen and others had been conferring with President Wilson and the inter-allied relief council in an effort to arrange for the feeding of the larger cities of Russia, and that President Wilson had presented a proposition to the council of four to send food to soviet Russia if the bolsheviki ceased hostilities. This plan, however, met with serious opposition, it was added, particularly from the French, on the ground that it would constitute recognition of the soviet government. Mr. Hoover was quoted as stating that as all projects for feeding Russia involved political considerations such projects had invariably been referred to the council of four.

MEXICAN REBEL LEADER KILLED IN MOUNTAINS

General Zapata Run Down by Ruse of Government Troops; Will Be Buried in Zapista Tomb.

Mexico City, April 12.—(By Associated Press).—General Emiliano Zapata, the rebel leader of southern Mexico, news of whose death reached this city yesterday, was killed Thursday during an engagement between his troops and government soldiers who had by a ruse entered his camp at Hacienda Chinemaca, near the village of Petalcingo, Morelos. The government soldiers, under the command of General Pablo Gonzalez, planned to capture the rebel chief and pretended they were a part of the 40th regiment which had come to join Zapata's forces. When Zapata was asked to review the men he became suspicious and took with him a large number of carrying out of the plan and resulted in a general fight. Zapata fell with many of his followers. A number of government soldiers also lost their lives.

The government is taking unusual precautions to establish the fact of the rebel leader's death. Official photographs have been taken of the body, which has been viewed by many who knew Zapata, as depositions have been required from those taking part in the battle.

Champion of Peons. The body will be buried in the Zapista tomb at Tlatizapan, Morelos, which was erected some years ago to receive the bodies of all those who signed the Zapista covenant known as the "plan of Ayala." In this tomb are buried many rebel leaders who have died during the last 10 years, including Eufemio Zapata, brother of the chief. It consists of a great stone pedestal, in the base of which are a number of burial compartments.
