Popular Prices of One, One and Half and Two Dollars to Prevail; All-Nation Wrestling Stars With Carnival.

Boxing fans all over the state have been sending in orders and money for reservations for the Jack Dempsey athletic carnival which show plays the Omaha auditorium April 24, even though Manager Franke of the big show house has not yet received the tickets. Franke says he will get the tickets this

MRS. SELKIRK SUFFERED FOR FOURTEEN YEARS

Says She Was Completely Restored to Health by Tanlac—She Gains 17 Pounds.

"I could buy a nice automobile with the money I have spent during the last four years trying to get rid of my troubles, and my efforts failed completely until I commenced taking Tanlac," said Mrs. J. W. Selkirk, who lives at 135 Livingston street, Peoria, the other day.

Mrs. Selkirk is one of the best known women in Peoria and occupies one of the most important offices in the Eastern Star Lodge No. 113 of that city. In relating further her experiences with Tanlac, she said: "Sometimes for months at a time I would not average over three hours sleep each night on account of extreme nervousness which was the result of long years of suffering. My stomach was in very bad condition all the time and almost as soon as I would finish eating a meal, my food would begin to sour, and gas would form so bad that I would be miserable for two or three hours. Sometimes this gas would get all up in my chest and I would almost choke up, and I would become very much alarmed at the way my heart would palpitate. I would have terrible spells of nervous indigestion, and when these spells would come on me my whole body would break out with cold perspiration. These spells would usually be followed by severe headaches. My husband did everything that was in his power for me. He had me examined and treated by the best specialists he could find, but in spite of it all I just kept on getting weaker all the time, and I finally came to the conclusion that nothing would ever do me any good.

"It was a hard matter for me to make up my mind to take this Tanlac, for I had been disappointed so many times that I had about lost faith in all kinds of medicines. I finally made up my mind to get one bottle of Tanlac, and if I felt that it did me good I would get more. To my great surprise I commenced to feel better before I had finished my first bottle. My husband noticed it too, and he was very careful from that time on not to let the Tanlac run out. Well, to tell you the truth, it is all so wonderful that I just don't know how to express myself, so I will just say that Tanlac has removed all my troubles, and I am in as perfect health now as I ever was in my life, and have gained seventeen pounds in weight and I think that speaks mighty well for Tanlac. All my acquaintances are talking about my recovery, and you just ought to hear me tell them that Tanlac is responsible for it. Tanlac has restored my health and I am now so happy and grateful that I never lose an opportunity to speak a good word for this great medicine. I am more than glad to give this statement."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Adv.

evening and they will be placed on sale tomorrow morning. The popular price admission will be in vogue for this attraction so that the fellow with the thin pocket-book as well as the man with the fat purse, can see the heavyweight challenger. The first five rows downstairs will be sold at $2, the next five at $1.50 and the balance at $1. The balcony seats will sell at $2 for the first three rows, $1.50 for the next three, and $1 for the remainder.

With prices such as these, it is dollars to doughnuts that the old Auditorium is packed to the rafters with boxing "bugs," supporters of Dempsey and backers of Champion Willard.

An added attraction to the show is the all-nation wrestling card, there being an Italian, Irishman, Swede and American with the carnival.

If it can be arranged the affair will have a little local touch to it, for a deal will be made if possible, for Harry Williams to spar in an exhibition with Dempsey.

Townsend to Report Some Time This Week, Says Manager Jackson

Manager Bill Jackson of the Rourkes received word from Leo Townsend, the left handed pitcher who was traded from the San Antonio club in the Texas league for Marty O'Toole, that he would leave his home in Mobile, Ala., some time this week. Jackson expects he will be here in time to work a couple of innings against the Armour's Sunday.

Five Cardinal Pitchers Injured in Collision

St. Louis, April 16.—Five members of the regular pitching staff of the St. Louis Nationals were injured here today when an automobile in which they were riding collided with a street car.

The injured were: William Doak, Leon Ames, Oscar Horstman, William Sherdel and Lee Meadows. The car was driven by Meadows.

Annapolis Oarsmen Barred; Studies Unsatisfactory

Annapolis, Md., April 16.—The Navy's hopes of success in the rowing regatta here Saturday when the Navy first and plebe eights will be pitted against the varsity and freshmen crews of Harvard and Princeton were dealt a blow yesterday when it was announced that several of the oarsmen would be barred because they were found unsatisfactory in studies. Several members of the base ball squad also are affected.

Copious, Trotter, Dead.

Calgary, Alberta, April 16.—Copious, owned by Fred Johnston of Calgary, Canada's most famous trotter, died today at the age of 10 years. Out of 41 starts, Copious got 28 firsts, six seconds and five thirds. For the last five years Copious never lost a race on the western Canada circuit.

"TWO AND THREE" "PUTTING THE NEXT ONE OVER" WITH "BUGS" BAER

GREEK HOPPING. WE ALWAYS figured that Europe was the dizzy side of the pond, but the dope shows that the tax-spangled U. S. A. is also doing considerable waltzing above the collar button.

A congressman wants to erect a monument to the sappy who invented elbow spaghetti. Over 300,000 New Yorkers sniff coke. One out of every ten New Yorkers is a sleight-of-hand, while the rest of us ride in the Interborough in habit forming quantities.

The government can't grab the war tax on that $69,000 Stock exchange seat until the lawyers decide whether it is an amusement or a light opera. Five bandits in raincoats trim St. Looney bank for $58,000 smackers, which beats the army contractors' profit on the same number of garments by 8 cents and two loose buttons.

That's some dizzy exhibition on the cranial trapeze. But what grabs the brown derby in the early spring vertigo contest is the annual Greek dancing epidemic among our wealthy debutantes of the better class. Vassar, Bryn Mawr, Barnard and all other stylish nose-powdering asylums of learning have entered soprano teams in the unequal contest, which will be held at some place not yet designated on the police blotter.

Classical Capillary Tremors. The Greek or hippodrome brand of shaking the wardrobe is danced with the accent on the first syllable. It's a lovely way of passing the summer, but a poor way of passing the cops. The Barnard college flappers are rehearsing their Grecian tableau and doing very well on a Hooverized lawn. They dance the fragile ankle and elbow style of hopping on the law like a grasshopper on a wire door mat. All the candidates for the Greek varsity crew are anxious to earn their letters, and will probably get them as soon as the police grab their addresses.

The Greek style of dancing is so simple that we wonder why Simon wasted his time fishing in a pail when he could have grabbed off some easy velvet as a dancing instructor. Greek dancing is easy to learn but hard to cure.

The symptoms are so characteristic that Greek dancer can easily be spotted in a riot of other maniacs. The fingers are wigged like a cross-eyed old lady knitting sock for a bow-legged soldier, while the toes play an imaginary typewriter.

The costume is one of those formal affairs worn by Ghunga Dhin in the poem of the same name. The method of transportation is the skip-stop system. Just skip along until you stop. Voluntarily or by request. The dance is more spectacular when performed by ladies within the draft age, but dowages aren't barred.

Although nobody knows what a Greek dance is all about, everybody agrees that the sentiment is excellent. The most popular dance is the one where you gyrate around the terrace amphitheater, waving your bunions at the sky as if you are afraid it is going to rain and run the parade.

Great stuff, but we figure it would be less trouble to go down to Child's and swipe an umbrella. Practice These on Your Toe Piano. There are all kinds of ideas for Greek dances, but, usually, an idea spoils the dance. Here are a few that have never yet been danced in any American sanitarium.

Ajax defying the lightning. (Either gas or electric.) Ajax is surrounded by prancing bill collectors who threaten to turn off the power. He is pointing to the meter which has been hyped up.

Satyr and the income tax. Satyr is galloping around in circles while a trope of nymphs from the Olympic Roof gardens flatwheel around. Satyr claims 1,000 beans exemption for each nymph, but income tax collector slips him the Grand Raz.

Shepherd and goats: Beautiful pastoral scene in sub at Grand Central Stadium. The goats are passengers and shepherd tells 'em there is plenty of room up in front.

Bacchus and Bevo: Bacchus is limping around a fountain of ginger ale. Some of the spray gets on his whiskers and he swoons.

Pan and the sirens: The sirens are holding a suffragette parade and Pan pans 'em. He plays sweet tunes on his flute but decides that a graphophone is less trouble. The sirens dance all around and try to lure shipwrecked mariners on the rocks. The mariners hesitate, and doughboys beat 'em to the rocks.

Sport Shorts

In John Pollock's Fistic News and Gossip in the New York Evening World, he says Jack Dempsey must be making a pot of money traveling with his athletic carnival which, by the way, stops at the Omaha Auditorium a week from tonight. Dempsey is meeting all comers in the east, stopping ambitious young heavies in a round or two. He stopped two in Syracuse, N. Y., not long ago, one in 30 seconds and the other in 40 seconds. He K. O'd Jack Williams at Watertown, N. Y., a night or so afterward in one round. Packed houses at every performance, too. It would be a treat for local fans to see Harry Williams, our local flyweight boxer, in a short bout with Dempsey on the twenty-fourth. Maybe it can be arranged.

It seems that Johnny Kilbane has refused to meet Frankie Brown, the lad who recently floored him in Philadelphia scrap. Both Cleveland and Philadelphia clubs are after the bout, but the champion has turned them all down. Al Lippe, Brown's manager, says Kilbane is afraid of Brown, but when the affair gets enough publicity and the right kind of an offer comes along, Johnny will step in with Frankie and then, sweet music for Brown. Lippe wants to bet Jimmy Dunne, Kilbane's manager, 1,000 plunks on the side. Better keep your money, Al.

Central High Has Big Squad Out for Track and Base Ball Teams

With one of the biggest squads of track men hitting the cinders that ever turned out at the Central High school prospects are rosy for a champ team that will nab state honors in the annual meet at Lincoln billed for May 17. The interclass meet promises to be anything but a lopsided event this year, although the seniors will have a strong man in Captain Dave Noble.

A heart-warming crew also was on hand to try out for places on the diamond nine. A team will be formed to combat the other local high school combinations and perhaps Lincoln. The base ball captain will not be chosen until after the men have been out a while. Coach Schmidt and Mr. Hill will work with the pill slingers, while Coach Mulligan will devote his time to the sprinters.

KING AK'S DRIVE FOR MORE MEN IN FULL SWING

"Go-Getters" Join Hustling Committee to Lasso at Least 2,500 Omahans for Ak-Sar-Ben Organization.

The Ak-Sar-Ben membership campaign was formally launched on Tuesday noon at the Henshaw hotel where the hustling committee was joined by a group of picked "go-getters," who will begin a city-wide canvass on Thursday.

The present membership is 1,126; a year ago at this time it was 422. The objective this year is 5,000. Chairman J. E. Davidson of the membership committee heartened the workers, and L. A. Nash told of the plans in prospect for the Ak-Sar-Ben exposition grounds on West Center street.

"It is estimated that we will spend not less than $750,000 on these grounds, but we expect to distribute this over a period of four or five years," Mr. Nash said. "We anticipate that these grounds will be at the disposal of Omaha 365 days each year. They will be available for race meets, band concerts, aviation events, encampments, summer theater, water attractions, and even world's series base ball games. There will be nothing in reason that may not be held at these exposition grounds.

Incorporate for Million. The general scheme of financing the project is to obtain subscriptions for $750,000 and to incorporate for $1,000,000. The campaign will be started as soon as the Victory loan campaign is out of the way. It is expected that this year we will restore the mile race track, build one unit of the grandstand, erect horse barns and do some landscape work. There is no organization except Ak-Sar-Ben that could put over a project like this."

F. W. Judson urged business institutions to take Ak-Sar-Ben memberships for their employes. He said his business concern is taking 10 memberships as against five last year.

"It is a good business asset for any commercial enterprise," said Mr. Judson.

Bill to Legalize Boxing Passed by New York Senate

Albany, N. Y., April 16.—The Walker bill to legalize boxing in New York under the jurisdiction of the army, navy and civilian board of boxing control was passed by the senate tonight. The lower house now has before it both the Walker and the Gibbs bills to legalize boxing under a single commissioner.

Today's Calendar of Sports

Racing: Spring meeting of Business Men's Racing association at Hot Springs, Ark. Spring meeting of Hartford Agricultural and Breeders' association at Havre de Grace, Md.

Boxing: Michigan state championship tournament opens at Detroit.

Best Ball: A. A. P. national championship tournament at Los Angeles.

Besting: Mike Gibbons vs. Soldier Bartfield, four rounds, at San Francisco. Pete Herman vs. "Kid" Regan, eight rounds, at St. Louis.

Tonight, at Greene's opera house, Cedar Rapids, Ia., Jack Reynolds, welterweight wrestling champion, meets Joe Novak of Minneapolis, challenger, in a finish match, best two out of three falls, for the welter title. After this match, providing he wins, it is Reynolds' intention to tour the state of Nebraska.

Owen Daily, Adam Kreiger, Charley Pesek and Young Gotch will all be after Jack's scalp while he is in this state.

Out in Frisco this evening, Mike Gibbons will give Soldier Bartfield his third boxing lesson. In their first engagement, Mike gave the soldier a trimming in New York, but the New York scribes that can't see anybody but their local talent went so far as to give Bartfield a verdict. Others called it a draw. As a matter of fact, Gibbons was an easy winner, though fighting with a broken rib, sustained two nights previously in another scrap. Then they met in St. Paul about two months ago and the "phantom" gave the New York a tasty lacing. Tonight, he'll slam him around in a four-round mild and after a bit's over, perhaps Bartfield will lay off the clever Michael for a while.

Plea of Selling Wine for Passover Fails to Free South Side Man

A plea that the wine he sold was used in the Jewish ritual when celebrating Passover failed to clear Abraham Lipman, grocer, 5108 South Twenty-fifth street, and he was fined $100 and costs by Judge Fitzgerald on the charge of illegal possession of intoxicating liquor Wednesday morning.

Lipman was taken into custody Sunday afternoon. Three and a half gallons of an alcoholic mixture, resembling wine, were found in the Ford truck which he was operating. He stated that he was selling the wine to fellow Hebrews to be used in celebrating the feast of the Passover, which began last Monday evening.

Lipman will appeal from Judge Fitzgerald's decision.

South Side HOGS REACH TOP PRICE OF $20.65 ON MARKET HERE

Commission Men Unable to Prophecy, What Figure Will Be Reached Before Next Crop Is Ready.

With the price of hogs climbing to dizzy heights and reaching a record figure of $20.65 on the local market Wednesday, commission men and live stock producers are unable to prophecy to what point the price will go.

Two hog crops are marketed each year. One of these crops is sold on the November and December markets while the other crop is disposed of in June. The November crop is almost exhausted, record prices having led the farmers to market their entire crops before a possible break in the market. The demand for pork products of all kinds is greater than ever. Lifting the government restrictions against exports to foreign markets has increased the demand.

In the intervening seven weeks, before the June crop of hogs is marketed, hog prices may climb to undreamed of heights, according to live stock men.

Cottage Prayer Meetings to Be Held Thursday Night

Six cottage prayer and social meetings have been arranged by Rev. R. L. Wheeler, pastor of the Wheeler Memorial church, for Thursday evening.

Following is a list of the meetings: Parishes A and B, in charge of Elders J. A. Bradley and W. J. Grother, meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Clinchard, 3610 South Twenty-fourth street.

Parish C, in charge of Elder Perry Wheeler, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lee, 3609 South Twenty-seventh street.

Parish D, in charge of Elder E. Roberts, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Berger, 4323 South Nineteenth street.

Parishes E and H, in charge of Elders G. H. McCormick and H. M. Wells, at the home of Mrs. Phoebe Wilson, 2207 I street.

Parishes F and G, Elders W. Barclay and F. M. Oakes, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Green, Twentieth and K streets.

Parishes I and J, Elders M. G. Zerbe and A. A. Thurlow, at the home of Elder and Mrs. H. M. Wells, 4818 South Fifteenth street.

Negro Confesses to Holdup of Chicago Saloonkeeper

Admitting complicity in the hold-up and robbery of a Chicago saloonkeeper last November, James H. Rankin, colored, 2521 Ohio street, it is said by police, has made a complete confession to Police Captain Madsen of the South Side, naming the two accomplices who aided in the holdup. Over $100 was taken from the saloon.

Rankin was arrested Wednesday afternoon by detectives at the Swift packing company, where he was employed. He talked readily of his escapades.

Chicago police authorities have been notified. Rankin has volunteered to return to Chicago without extradition papers.

Wartime Romance Results in Marriage of Miss Purcell

A wartime romance culminated in marriage Wednesday afternoon when Miss Ellabelle Purcell and Sergt. William E. Taylor were joined in marriage by the Rev. Charles W. Savidge at the home of the bride, 4752 South Sixteenth street.

When the first call to arms was sounded Sergeant Taylor was in the national guard. He had just returned from the Mexican border. While being mustered out from active service at Fort Crook he met Miss Purcell, who was a teacher at the post at that time.

After two years of service with the 127th field artillery Mr. Taylor was recently discharged. His home is in York, Neb.

Miss Purcell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Purcell. She is a former student of Bellevue college. Only immediate friends were present at the ceremony.

The couple departed for an extended tour over the state. They will make their home, temporarily, with the parents of the bride at Bellevue.

Terrifying Discomfort From Skin Diseases

itching and Burning Eruptions Torture Victims.

Only those who are afflicted with Eczema, Tetter, Erysipelas boils and similar so-called skin diseases can appreciate the relief that comes from this medicine. The constant pleas of those afflicted is the oft-repeated question, "How can I find relief from this constant torture?" Not palliative, temporary relief that causes the terrible itching to abate for awhile, but real genuine relief that shakes off the shackles of the disease and restores the skin to its former healthy condition.

And temporary relief is the most that can be expected from local treatment, such as ointments, salves, lotions, etc., which is one reason why such diseases seem to hold on with such tenacity. It is not because they are incurable, but because they are improperly treated, that they appear to be so stubborn and so difficult to cure.

The real cause of the disease is a germ in the blood, which multiplies by the million, and sets up an irritation in some tender location of the delicate skin.
