

AMBULANCE CO. NO. 335 TO ARRIVE IN U. S. NEXT WEEK

Parade and Public Reception Planned for "Omaha's Own;" to Be Mustered Out at Camp Dodge.

Ambulance company No. 335, composed almost entirely of Omahans, will be in Omaha probably next week, according to a wireless dispatch received yesterday by Gould Dietz, one of the organizers of the company. The dispatch was sent from the United States steamer Von Steuben, via naval radio, and is as follows:

"Gould Dietz, Omaha, Neb.: Easter greetings, ambulance company 335 to Omaha. Arrive New York Saturday. Captain A. L. Linquist."

Prepares for Reception. Mr. Dietz sent a cordial reply to the message. He is now busy making preparations for a big reception to the returning men.

"The entire company is to be brought to Camp Dodge for mustering out," he said. Dr. A. F. Jonas, Dr. O. S. Hoffman and myself will go to Camp Dodge as soon as the company arrives there and will make arrangements for bringing the entire company to Omaha intact. I expect to get a special train for the purpose.

"We will arrange a big blowout in the Auditorium with a parade preceding it and a general hurrah by the whole city.

"These are 'Omaha's own' and we're going to give them a rousing welcome when they arrive."

Organized Here in 1917. Ambulance company No. 335 was organized in Omaha in the summer of 1917 and was sent to Camp Taylor, Louisville, Ky., where it remained for about a year, going overseas in August, 1918. "Over there" it was attached to the 26th and 77th divisions of the Fifth army. Major-General Summerall wrote a letter of appreciation of the company's work to Captain Linquist.

"I wish to convey my deep appreciation of the loyalty of the company," wrote General Summerall. "The company has performed efficiently and satisfactorily every mission entrusted to it."

Tank, Built for War, Refuses to Work in Peaceful Nebraska. Battle tank No. 2, which started out from Ashland Monday morning for a tour through the state in the interest of the Victory loan, has gone "to the bad." Its itinerary has been cancelled and, riding a flat car of a railroad train; it is on its way east to be junked or repaired.

Tank No. 2, while in France, fought its way through the Argonne Forest, crossed all kinds of German trenches and battered down fortifications, but when it got onto the level ground of Nebraska, it was not equal to the emergency.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the tank was exhibited in Ashland, Columbus, Schuyler and Central City. Then it reached Grand Island where the surface of the ground is as smooth and level as the top of a billiard table. There it refused to perform. Expert mechanics were unable to discover the difficulties under which the tank labored. Men from the Union Pacific shops were called upon to diagnose the case, but were unable to locate the ailment. Now the tank "rides" on a flat car eastward bound.

Seven Trains, Carrying 2,786 Soldiers, Pass Through City. Seven trains, carrying soldiers returning from France are passing through Omaha. The movement consists of 2,786 officers and men. Of this number 186 are destined for Fort Russell, Wyo., and the others for California. They are a part of the 91st division.

The soldier trains began to arrive at 5 o'clock this morning over the Northwestern. The next train came at 10 o'clock and the others followed along at an hour apart, all going over the Union Pacific. In Omaha stops long enough to change crews and ice the cars were made. None of the men had an opportunity of coming up town.

LARENCE G. BADGER, directing Madge Kennedy-Goldwyn features, is one of those modest fellows who give no indication of the ability they possess. Recently one of the extra men gave it as his opinion that Badger "must be a rotten director," and when asked why, he replied: "He don't order anyone around; you can only just hear him talk, and he ain't got no megaphone!" The remarks were repeated to Badger, who enjoyed them hugely.

Lloyd Ingraham, Lewis Stone's director, and company are back from the northern show country, glad to be in the sunny southland. Ingraham had his usual "Lloyd's luck," as his good fortune is termed in the profession. He says "I went out to get a blizzard and a blizzard met us—a peach of a blizzard—and we got it, too!"

Charles Ray will be called upon to win a prize fight in his latest picture, now in the making. He is training hard and intends to win because he has the best of it and not because the director tells his opponent to quit.

The Marion Davies picture, "Getting Mary Married," written by John Emerson and Anita Loos and directed by Allan Dwan, will be released this month.

"Relations" is the title of a new movie. There is surely ample material for all sorts of complications and interesting situations in the subject. The picture will serve to introduce Evelyn Greeley as a full-fledged star.

The sister of Mae Marsh, Marguerite, is now starring in the movies. She divides honors with Jack Conway in "A Royal Democrat."

"The Unknown Quantity," an O. Henry story, has been made into a movie, with Corinne Griffith in the stellar role.

"where, why and how"—of Minnie Ha Ha, Mickey's foster mother. Long ago Minnie slipped away from her Oklahoma teepee to see a picture show. Later Minnie went to Los Angeles and into pictures at the instigation of the Miller 101 ranch people, and one day, on "location" came face to face with Miss Normand. Long since they had exchanged photographs; Mable in her most shimmering summery dress, Minnie in her brightest blanket and oldest corn cob. Recognition was instant, and for half an hour directors stormed and stamped without avail.

Klaw & Erlanger will bring to the Brandeis the last half of next week their musical comedy success, "The Riviera Girl." The cast will include Miss Grace Walsh, J. Clarence Harvey, Miss Sylvia de Frankie, Henry Mowbray, W. Romaine, Royden Keith, Nelson Riley, Miss Marjorie Bridger, Roy Cutter and Frank Earlington, as well as a large and beautiful chorus.

Such an exhibition of dancing as Tojetti and Bennett are presenting at the Empress theater is seldom witnessed. Under the caption of "The Boy With the Sunny Smile," Bob Mills presents songs, talk and piano playing. Tomorrow there will be an entire change of program headed by the musical comedy "Follies of the Day" one of Menlo Moore's girl acts.

South Side Man Injured When Run Down by Motor Car. T. A. Morrison, of 4404 South Twenty-fifth street, sustained a fractured left leg this morning when he was run down by an automobile on the Q street viaduct. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital.

The automobile was driven by Anton Trusha. Morrison was walking over the viaduct, it was said, and did not see the approaching car. He attempted to cross in front of the machine and was struck by the fender on the car.

Eddie Rickenbacher To Be Honor Guest of Local Auto Societies

Edward Rickenbacher, ace of aces among American aviators, will be the guest of honor of the Omaha Automobile Trade association and the Omaha Automobile club in the near future, according to the statement given out yesterday morning by C. G. Powell, representing the trade association.

Meetings were held yesterday by both organizations, and following the announcement that the famous air pilot and fighter would return to his home city about the middle of May, it was voted by each organization to plan a demonstration for the occasion. Mr. Powell was appointed chairman of the committee to represent the Omaha Trade association and W. B. Clark will head the committee to represent the Omaha Automobile club. The arrangements will be completed later.

A monster automobile parade will likely be one feature of the day's program, it was said.

Several Subscriptions to V-Loag Already Received. Some Omahans are so anxious to subscribe to the Victory Liberty Loan that they can't wait for the opening of the drive Monday. Friday Sam Burns took a subscription for $50,000 of the Victory Liberty notes, and Thursday one of the firm's where a speaker addressed the employees sent in a check for the first installment on a $5,000 subscription.

One-Minute Store Talk. Crowds are a compliment to a store. We appreciate your confidence in our ability to serve you. We've the best organization of salespeople that money can hire, but—

Please help yourself to better service by Shopping Saturday Morning. So many men must buy Saturday afternoons, that it's only fair to ask all who can conveniently do so to please shop in the morning.

'Corned Willie' Keeps Name of Omaha Before Soldiers

Boys of Eighty-Ninth Division Tell Germans Something of Omaha and Nebraska; Urge Local Chamber of Commerce to Take Steps to Facilitate Homecoming. "Omaha" stamped on cans of business to attend to on the Meuse-Argonne front after which we were excited to Germany. For some time we had absolutely no form of amusement, letters were few and far between and we had terrible streaks of homesickness. Finally the Y. M. C. A. left us some books and magazines and in Leslie's Weekly of December 28, I found another clipping of Omaha.

The division consists almost entirely of farmers and men needed at home. It is ordered home in June. The men ask the Chamber of Commerce to facilitate their homecoming if possible.

Tell Germans of Omaha. "We have accomplished the task for which we left our homes and loved ones and are somewhat provoked at being held here so long," he wrote. "If the Germans never heard of Omaha and Nebraska before it is certain that they are learning now and Omaha and Nebraska may well feel proud of their representatives as they are as true gentlemen now as they were courageous soldiers during hostilities."

"Corned Willie" and publicity ads placed in leading periodicals by the Omaha Chamber of Commerce brought joy to the hearts of Nebraska boys in the 89th division, stationed at Echterbacherbruecke, Germany, according to a letter received from Fred C. Nelson, Omaha lad with the 354th ambulance company of 314th sanitary train. Nelson made his home here with E. W. Dixon, 2720 North 49th street.

Omaha on "Corned Willie." "The only thing we have seen to remind us of home was the name 'Omaha' stamped on cans of 'Corned Willie' we have consumed since the St. Mihiel drive," he wrote. "At Andilly I picked up a tattered World's Work magazine and opened it haphazard. Well now it was like meeting an old friend when my eye fell upon the words 'Open an office in Omaha,' which stood out prominently on that page.

"I assure you that I would have been delighted to follow the advice of that ad but we still had a little
