

KNUDTSON SUED BY COLEMAN FOR $10,000 DAMAGE

Soldier Starts Action Against Detective Following Shooting on March 19; Complaint Filed by Uncle.

Guy B. Knudtson, detective sergeant on the Omaha police force, now under suspension, was sued in district court yesterday for $10,000 damages by P. Charles Coleman, a soldier stationed at Camp Dodge. Knudtson shot Coleman twice the night of March 19 while trying to place him under arrest. Coleman was at first believed to be fatally injured but is now recovered and has been taken to Camp Dodge under guard on the charge of being absent without leave. He was in the hospital for four weeks following the shooting.

Knudtson was arrested following his suspension from the detective department. The complainant was F. R. Finn of Council Bluffs, an uncle of Coleman. Knudtson had a preliminary hearing before Municipal Judge Holmes Thursday on the charge of shooting with intent to kill and shooting with intent to wound. He was held for trial in the district court.

The National Surety company was also named as a defendant in the damage suit filed yesterday.

Father's Long Search For Children Ends in Omaha

Son and Daughter Are Found In Creche After J. F. Mohlman Visits Institutions In Four States—Says Wife Obtained Divorce and Left Kiddies.

After visiting many homes and institutions for children in Nebraska, Minnesota, South Dakota, and Wyoming, J. F. Mohlman came to his journey's end in Omaha Thursday afternoon when he found his children in the Creche on Park Wilde avenue.

Reinhold, 6 years old, and Wilma, 3, recognized their father, whom they had not seen for nearly a year. Mr. Mohlman's story was that his wife obtained a divorce in Sundance, Wyo., a year ago, and was married again to a man with whom she is living in South Dakota.

After the divorce, Mohlman claims, the children were left in Sundance and he sent a friend for them from Laramie, Wyo., but when the friend arrived the children could not be located. He then started his town-to-town search until he visited the Creche on Thursday. He said he went from institution to institution and looked at the children.

The superintendent of the Creche reports that the former Mrs. Mohlman placed the children in the home last summer and has been paying for their keep regularly. Mohlman appears to be satisfied with the arrangement, his chief interest being to know where the children are and to see them again.

Mohlman was married in Sutton, Neb., September 26, 1911. He says that he intends to make his home in Omaha, that he may be near his children.

as to the legality of the movement among southern cotton planters to reduce acreage with the purpose of holding up cotton prices.

Old Man, Believed a Victim of Foul Play, Is Found by Police

George Wasson, 84 years old, who disappeared from the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. P. Widman, 427 Lincoln boulevard, Thursday, and who was believed to have met with foul play, was found yesterday at Union station by the police. The old man wandered away from his daughter's home and could not find his way back. He stayed at a hotel Thursday night and was recognized by a policeman when he walked into the station about 10 o'clock.

Wasson, who has been making his home in the city for only a short while, is unfamiliar with the city, and as he carried with him a large amount of money, apprehension was felt for his safety.
