

CAMPAIGN FOR PRESIDENT IN MEXICO STARTS

Six Candidates in the Field to Succeed Carranza As Chief Executive of Southern Republic.

Washington, April 18.—Six candidates are in the field for the presidency of Mexico in July, 1920, despite President Carranza's request that politics be put aside for the present, advice from Mexico City received here today said. The successful candidate will take office December 1, after the election. President Carranza himself is not eligible for re-election under the constitution, but two members of his cabinet are candidates.

Public opinion in Mexico divides the candidates into two classes, civil and military, with the latter said to be the more popular. The candidates already in the field, either personally or through their friends, are Gen. Alvaro Obregon, Gen. Pablo Gonzalez and Gen. Salvador Alvarado, on the military side, and Luis Cabrera, Felix Palavicini and Aguirre Berlanga on the civilian side.

General Obregon's popularity rests largely on the fact that he is the only officer who has defeated the bandit, Villa, in battle. He recently came into close contact with a number of the business men of the United States and it is reported that he is more friendly toward this country than formerly.

Friendly to U. S.
General Gonzalez directed the operations which resulted recently in the defeat and death of the bandit leader Zapata, which, it is said, has increased greatly his popularity. He is friendly toward the United States, having been the only man of prominence who openly approved President Wilson's address to Mexican editors on their visit to Washington last year.

General Alvarado is known principally for his administration of Yucatan, where he put state socialism into operation.

Two Cabinet Members.
Luis Cabrera and Aguirre Berlanga are members of the Carranza cabinet who are openly candidates for the presidency. Cabrera, who was appointed secretary of finance recently, has been known to have been hostile to the United States and failed utterly in his efforts during the war to align the other Latin-American countries against this country. Since then he has publicly stated that his eyes have been opened and that he does not consider the United States a foe of Mexico. Berlanga, as minister of the interior, has charge of all the electoral machinery, which is considered as giving him an excellent strategic position. He is reported to have been strongly pro-German during the war.

Amusement Admission
Tax Regulations Issued

Washington, April 18.—Regulations governing collection of the tax on admissions, soon to be issued by the bureau of internal revenue, define the four classes which are exempt from the tax. They are children under 12 years old, bona fide employees of the places of amusement, municipal officers on official business and soldiers or sailors in uniform. All other persons are subject to the tax, which is 1 cent for each 10 cents or fraction thereof of the price of admission.

Germans Consider Sending Troops to Fight Munich Reds

Berlin, April 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The German national government is considering seriously the sending of government troops, or at least German general staff officers, to aid in the relief of Munich from the communist forces, although neither the Bavarians nor the German governments wish to cause such an invasion of state rights if it can be avoided.

The bulk of the Bavarian peasants, it is reported, are still loyal to the government of Premier Hoffmann. The peasants' association has issued a declaration asserting that the devastation of the country, the plundering of houses and barns and the murdering of peasants by communist bands have become intolerable.

Munich, it is said, is affected only slightly as yet by the action of the peasants in cutting off food supplies. It is declared that there is enough food in the city to feed the inhabitants for one week, but the communists have seized all the supplies and can live comfortably for a long time if they do not feed the non-communists.

Gandorfer, a leader of a small section of the peasants which went over to the communists, has been arrested by the Hoffmann government.

On with the New Easter Clothes 'Tis Spring's Ultimatum

THE babble of advertising in every American community contains considerable froth—claims that are simply a spattering of ink—carelessly made and usually read with large grains of salt. We choose words with precision—always with the wish to use the right ones. Read what we say concerning the hundred and one new things for spring and Easter, displayed in our fourteen Individual Shops.

Tailleur Suits

THE separate Suit Shop expresses the Victory joyousness with an assemblage that is not only brilliant, but bewilderingly irresistible as well. There was never before such a gathering together of suits that give zest and cheer, thrill and throb to the patriotic woman, who has worn the somber and conserved modes of war-time.

RUSSIAN BLOUSE—the innovation in "suit-dom" has asserted squatter's sovereignty upon a whole boothsite.

"JAUNTY BOXIES"—severely simple tailleurs, not-so-severely-simple-semi-tailleurs, and loosely belted models fill a section that is the Texas of our Suit Shop.

Serge, poret twill, gabardine, wool velour, suede velour, and tricotine, are employed in the making of these suits. The tailoring—style—beauty—fit—and trimming features cannot be pictured on paper. That is the treat in store for you.

By way of summary—we can fit any woman who can be fitted in ready-to-wear clothing.
