Fourteen Teams to Make Debut on Various Municipal Grounds When Johnny Gonding and His Staff of Umps Call Time; Saturday Leagues Are Organized.

By WILLIAM O. BLOZIES.

Play ball: Those two words are on the lips of all amateur base ball players, managers, captains and backers of the various teams of the newly organized Municipal Amateur Base Ball association, as well as the officials of that organization and the many thousands of followers of the national past-time in this city today.

So promptly at 1:30 o'clock when Johnny Gonding and his staff of municipal "umps" shout these two words, fourteen teams of the association will be on deck to inaugurate the 1919 amateur season, which no doubt, will be the banner year in the history of Omaha amateur baseball circles.

Favorable weather conditions have been promised by Weather Forecaster Welsh for this afternoon and the officials of the association predicts that the call Bill Blozies at Walnut 2625 not later than 7 o'clock.

The fourteen teams which will make their debut in the new association are members of the City and American, both of class B caliber, and the Booster and Inter-City and Gate City, class C organizations. All of the leagues, with the exception of the Gate City league, have been represented on the field of hattle the past four years. The Gate City league will make its first appearance this afternoon, and from advance information should make a strong pid for class C honors.

Practically all of the teams in this new organization have participated on the various sand-lots and municipal diamonds, for the past four years under the banner of the Omaha Base Ball association, which was one of the prime factors in the success of amateur base ball here.

The narrow margin of victory for the Omaha club caused Manager Bill Jackson to get his boys out for more and harder work than they had yet undertaken and he now says they will be ready for the Armour's attack today.

The addition of Hale, the St. the Rourke squad and the appearance of Townsend, the star southpaw secured from San Antonio of the Texas league, in trade for Marty O'Toole, will make the only changes in the leaguers lineup.
