Without League We Shall Lose Fruits of Victory Daughters of Revolution Say In Endorsement.

Washington, April 19.—General endorsement of a league of nations, "without which we shall lose the fruits of victory," was voted today at the closing session of the national chapter, Daughter of the Ameri-

A number of resolutions bearing on the league were presented to the committee on resolutions, one of which specifically urged ratification by the senate of the league of naions covenant in its amended form. The attitude of the society was expressed in this resolution, reported out by the committee, and adopted without opposition:

"Whereas at this critical period of world history it is important that every citizen in the United States"

do so record ourselves."

The Texas delegation, which had contended for a recommendation hat the senate approve the amended draft of the league covenant, announced that it would accept the esolution as presented.

Later, on motion of Mrs. William G. Spencer of Tennessee, the congress, by a rising vote, expressed sympathy and loyalty to President Wilson for "his great effort to bring peace to the world."

Resolutions of sympathy on the death of Col. Theodore Roosevelt were adopted. A universal system physical education and the prompt reporting of disloyal acts also were approved.

Labor Leaders Repudiate Council's Anti-Loan Policy

Tacoma, Wash., April 19.-As a repudiation of the Central Labor council's action on Wednesday when that body declined to help push the Victory loan, several union officials called at Victory hall today and took subscription blanks. Among them were Thomas Bishoff and H. C. Pickering of the Miscellaneous Trades council and a vice-president of the state federation of labor. President Frank Krutsky of the Central Labor council predicted today that the council would change its attitude in regard to the loan, and an attempt is being made to sign up a majority of the council dele-gates in a move to participate in the loan drive.
