added to the military spirit of the occasion. There were Red Cross workers, canteen workers, representatives of the National League for Women's Service, Y. W. C. A., Knights of Columbus, War Mothers of America, Jewish Women's Welfare league, Joan of Arc club and other organizations. Victory Float Attracts.

One of the distinctive features of the parade was an attractive float on which O. T. Eastman appeared as Uncle Sam, Miss Erna Reed was Victory, and Miss Louise Dinning as Red Cross. The theme of the float was that Uncle Sam brings victory; that victory was won by the army, the navy and the Red Cross. America with these five leaders is a worshipper at the shrine of victory The army and navy are repesented by characters in representaive uniforms.

The Jiggs float, urging enlistnents in the new army, also atracted attention along the way. This float showed pictures of the amous cartoon character telling Maggie that he is off for the army, that he is going to get a ticket for ali points of the world and be a regular soldier.

"Beat it over to the Auditorium," shouted the famous evangelist, as he took hold of Governor McKolvie's arm and started for his automobile.

War Mothers March. An appealing feature of the parade was a group of war mothers who walked along, some with trembling step and others with more certain tread.

Less than two years ago these mothers stood with the admiring crowds on Farnam street and bid their sons godspeed as they went away to war.

Their sons did not come back, but these patriotic mothers intend to do their bit to help "finish the job."

WHY RUN-DOWN PALE EXHAUSTED WOMEN SHOULD TAKE IRON

There can be no beautiful, bealthy, resy-chooled, at a a dy narved women without iron. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roase so from their chooles—their charm and attractiveness depart. I always insist that my patients take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—(not metallic iron which often corrodes the stomach and does more harm than good). Nuxated Iron is easily assimilated, does not blacken nor injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. It will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, irritable, careworn, haggard women in two weeks time in many cases. I have used it in my own practice with most surprising results."—Ferdinand King, M.D., wellknown New York Physician and medical author.
