DEMPSEY DRAWS GREAT CROWD TO ATHLETIC SHOW

SWEETHEART IN INDIA -

Fine Carnival Greeted With Leud Applause; Some Disappointment at Non-Appearance of Harry Williams.

A good-sized crowd witnessed the Jack Dempsey athletic carnival at the Auditorium and were well pleased with the show, Dempsey's out of the army. 200 000 000-2 exhibitions with John Lester Johnson, the New York negro heavyweight for two rounds and Denver Jack Geyer for two rounds, yet audience were disappointed. Billy McCarney, the advance agent for the carnival, made arrangements for Dempsey to spar three rounds with Harry Williams, Omaha's favorite heavyweight boxer. Williams was on hand and stripped for the exhibition, but Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, refused to lets the title challenger go on with Williams.

"Dempsey will spar with no one but his own sparring partners." One of the Dempsey sparring partners one Miller, was sought to box with Harry but had gone to a vaudeville show and could not be found. hence the disappointment of the many fans that had gone to the Auditorium to see Wiliams perform It was freely mentioned among the great number of fans that wanted to see the Omaha boy box, that Kearns made no friends among them for refusing to let Jack go on with Harry. Dempsey Fast As Heavyweight,

Naturally Dempsey did not extend simself in his bouts with his sparring mates; he had no need to, for he outclasses them so far, that had he tried, neither of them could have gone over a few seconds with him, but even as easy as he tried to be Johnson was a weary brunette when his two rounds were over. Jack accidently hit Geyer a little too hard on the chin over in one corner of the ring and he had to play around and wait until the Denver man's head cleared before striking at him again. It was easily noted that Dempsey is all that is claimed for him in the way of speed, for he danced around as lightly as a lightweight and it seemed to require no effort for him to strike out at his

The show was opened by Matsuda Ouishi, the Japanese, and Ludecke, the Central American champion, in a contest, Japanese style, which lasted only a few minutes with the little Jap a winner. Ludecke then asked for a trial with the Jap at the American style, without coats. Ouishi agreed and he gave the Central American his hands full for a while, but Ludecke finally pinned ais shoulders in seven minutes and 35 seconds. Joe Stangl of Omaha, and Charlie Peters then gave a 15minute wrestling exhibition, which was coundly applauded.

Gibbs-Cutler Match Near Fight.

Following the Stangl-Peters bout, Marty Cutler of Chicago and Jack Gibbs of New York, went on for a 15-minute match. These two big fellows got mad and it was as much fight as a wrestling match. They bunched, butted, kicked and did everything but scratch and bite in their nill, but neither scored a fall. The ouse was in an uproar all the time he men were in the ring.

Billy Romanoff, the challenger for he welterweight wrestling title, went on in a 15-minute bout with Tony Rotuillo, which was a good one Max

The manager of Jack Dempsey, Jack Kearns, then entered the ring and explained the purpose of the tour as to show the American publis that a professional boxer is not necessarily a bruiser with an ugly look in his eye and couple of "tin-ears" and a mean disposition. He also declared that Dempsey would be' the next heavyweight champion and then introduced John Lester Johnson and Jack Dempsey, "the puglistic marvel of the age." He refereed both the boxing exhibitions.

Though Jack Reynolds is in Omaha primarily to get some more instruction and training from Farmer Burns, the peerless teacher of the art of wrestling, the champion will
