

Simply make up your mind—and HAVE ONE

Simply a question of how badly you want a player or piano in your own home—of how nearly you realize the happiness such an instrument will mean for you and your dear ones.

It's Just a Question of Making Up Your Mind

We repeat that. We want you to recognize that one, big fact. The rest is easy—far easier than you'd ever realize.

Come in and Hear the New Q. R. S. Rolls

These are the popular new songs—the whole country is talking of them. Come in, any time at all, and hear them.

Make the start today

Come to MICKEL'S any time, and hear the latest music splendidly played. Why not today? Why not TODAY make the start toward that player, that piano, that VICTROLA, or that Grand? TODAY will never return. Make it today!

SUES 20 FORMER SALOONMEN FOR RUIN OF HUSBAND

Mrs. Marie Larsen Alleges That Anton Larson Spent $2,000 in One Month; Asks $50,000 Damages.

Mrs. Marie Larsen filed an amended suit yesterday in district court asking $50,000 damages from 20 former saloonkeepers and bondsmen for the alleged debauching of her husband, Anton M. Larsen.

Mrs. Larsen alleges in her petition that the Fred Krug Brewing company stored 1,500 cases of beer and about 1,000 gallons of whisky on Larsen's place just before the prohibition act went into effect.

Started in 1916. She says that at that time her husband had become so weak that he was utterly unable to keep from drinking and bought and stored 25 cases of beer and 45 gallons of whisky at his home just before the prohibition act went into effect.

Her husband started drinking in 1916. Mrs. Larsen says. Before that time he had been thrifty and industrious and had an income of $5,000 from his dairy business.

Went to Kansas City. Some time after prohibition began in Nebraska he went to Kansas City, his wife says, because C. S. Rockholm, who had operated a saloon here, had opened one in Kansas City. In a single month, Mrs. Larsen says, her husband paid $2,000 in checks and cash over Rockholm's bar for liquor which he consumed and for other liquor which, she alleges, was sold to the bootlegging trade in Omaha.

Her husband, she alleges, finally became in such condition that he was sent to the hospital for the insanity in Lincoln where he remained three months. She says he is a complete physical, moral and financial wreck.

Men Who Are Sued. The men sued are all either former Omaha saloon keepers or bondsmen for saloon keepers. They are as follows: C. S. Stockholm, J. H. Davis, Henry M. Miller, Fred Krug Brewing company, Otto Vorsatz, Charles Sorenson, Chris Neilsen, Owen, McCaffrey, W. J. McCaffrey, M. M. Bushman, George Rief, John F. Ragan, William Unzieker, E. M. Storms, E. C. Gunnell, John Nittler, Helmer Neilsen and Daniel Hedgren.

Auto Club in Favor of Parallel-With-Curb Parking of Motors

The Omaha Automobile club, according to an announcement made by Secretary S. E. Smyth, favors parallel-with-curb parking of automobiles, as provided for in the proposed new traffic ordinance.

There is one point which the club would like to see changed in the restricted district, and that is to allow diagonal parking of cars at both curbs of any length of time, on Douglas street, from Fourteenth to Twentieth streets. Douglas is a wide street with no car line, and will accommodate many automobiles," said Mr. Smyth.

Community Service to Be Continued After Peace

Community service is the outgrowth of the results obtained by War Camp Community service during the period of the war. Many communities have been so developed and united in their efforts to stimulate the morale of the army that now they are going to preserve their organizations and stimulate the morale of the community in the same way that the morale of the army was improved.

The function of community service is to co-ordinate and stimulate the activities of existing agencies and to use every facility in the city before creating new ones—to use existing organizations that are fitted for and have the funds to conduct the work which is needed.

Film Magnate and "Wid's" Editor Visit In Omaha

Jesse L. Lasky, vice president of the Famous Players Lasky Picture corporation, and F. C. "Wid" Gunn, editor of "Wid's" magazine, stopped off between trains Thursday to meet H. M. Thomas, manager of the Biograph theater of this city. Both men were greatly interested in the fight the motion picture men have just won in this state against the proposed censorship bill and wanted to hear about it first hand from Thomas, one of the leaders in the battle.

Both Mr. Lasky and Mr. Gunn are of the opinion that the year started will bring forth better and bigger pictures than have ever before been produced. The condition of the country's being released from war time restrictions has freed the picture business in a great many ways and many of the larger companies are just starting now into real production work of this year.

Claims He Was Thrown From Pullman Berth; Asks $20,000

Thomas J. Nugent alleges in a suit filed yesterday in district court that he was thrown from an upper berth in a Pullman car while en route from Alliance to Anselmo, Neb., December 19, 1918. He asks $20,000 damages, alleging that he sustained injuries which will make him a cripple for life.

Hindu Philosopher to Wed Pretty Omaha Girl in June

A trip through the mystic orient as the bride of a Hindu dreamer and philosopher, is to be the honeymoon of Miss Minnie Jensen, attractive Omaha girl, if plans are carried out as planned. Miss Jensen, who is the adopted daughter of Isaac Kahn, was in Omaha on a business trip, two months ago obtained a license to wed Dr. Kesheva Deva Shastri, a Hindu, whom she met in Omaha two years ago.

Miss Minnie Jensen.

She now announces that Dr. Shastri will come to Omaha in June, when they will be married. Then they will go to India. Dr. Shastri has already secured his passport to his native land from the British consul in New York, according to Miss Jensen, who has also written the British consul for a passport.

Expecting Passport Soon. "You see, when I wed Dr. Shastri, I will also be a British subject," explained Miss Jensen, "so I must get my passport through the British consul. Dr. Shastri wrote me just what information to send, and I'm expecting my passport soon."

Miss Jensen is wearing an engagement ring of unique oriental design, finely engraved with Arabic and Sanskrit lettering. She recently received a shawl, made in the Vale of Cashmere, which has figured among the treasured possessions of Dr. Shastri's family for many generations. A purse of fantastic design, containing a huge, uncut garnet, is the latest present received by Miss Jensen from Dr. Shastri.

"He fairly worships me," she explained happily. "He writes me one and sometimes two letters every day, beautiful, finely written letters of three and four sheets, and on Sunday he always sends a letter by special delivery."

"Think what a wonderful life it will be, living in wonderful India with such a man as he. I can fairly picture the splendor of that oldest country, with its temples, its jewels, its brilliant tropical foliage, its holy rivers."

Yet it is not so much the lure of Kipling's India or perhaps even her Hindu dreamer that seems most to appeal to the happy Omaha girl. She gives the intellectual side of her intended marriage much thought.

"Dr. Shastri is a thinker, an ideal-

YOUTHFUL CHECK FORGER TRIED TO PLAY STOCK CURB

Boy Who Attempted to Buy $5,000 Home for Estranged Wife, Forged Check for Stock Purchase.

Howard M. Brock, 17 years old, who sought to win back his girl wife by buying the Max Burkenroad home at 2066 Florence boulevard with a forged check for $5,000, besides passing two other worthless checks for $50 each, also attempted to play the stock market. He wrote a check to Tom Canino, 417 South Sixteenth street, for $1,000 in payment for 100 shares of stock of the Shane Furnace and Metal company, Mr. Canino told Chief of Detectives Dunn. When the check went through the State bank, officials there investigated.

Tried to Regain Wife. Brock told police he wrote out the checks to win back his wife, formerly Miss Edith Kelley of Oil City, Pa., who is working as a maid at a hotel at Council Bluffs. They were married several months ago in Franklin, Pa., and came here in search of work. The youthful bride threatened to secure a divorce from her husband if he didn't support her. Brock's home is in Elkton, Md., he says. Through a minor, juvenile authorities say they have not jurisdiction over Brock because "he is married." County authorities have filed no formal charges against Brock as yet.

Likes Indian Literature. "When life goes on smoothly, one is apt to become shallow," declared Miss Jensen, "but in dark moments it is Indian literature which soothes and satisfies." Commenting on oriental-occidental marriages Miss Jensen said: "I believe in most cases the contracting parties are happy. The orient is much misrepresented by missionaries who give the darkest side of life there, that they may obtain money for more work among that element. They entirely neglect the wonderful intellectual development of eastern countries. Of course, Dr. Shastri is a Hindu, and Hindus belong to the white race."

The engagement of Miss Jensen and Dr. Shastri has never been formally announced, according to Isaac Kahn, father of Miss Jensen by adoption. Mr. Kahn does not deny that the engagement exists, however, but will make no comment on the marriage.

Divorced From Third Hubby and He From Second Wife. Holmans, Muchly Married, Tell Troubles to Judge, Who Grants Decree to Wife After Hearing Testimony—Husband Says She Hit Him With Pieces of Furniture.

Amanda S. Holman obtained a divorce from her third husband and Edgar F. Holman was divorced from his second wife when Judge Troup, sitting in divorce court yesterday, granted a decree to Mrs. Holman. He is a special officer for the Union Pacific railway. Their home is at 1411 South Twenty-third street. Mrs. Holman testified that they were married in Council Bluffs because they could not be married in Omaha for the reason that Mr. Holman had been divorced from his first wife only a few weeks. Their marriage took place in 1907. Their two little girls, 9 and 10 years old, were in court and were pried on the witness stand. Both testified to seeing "papa" choke "mamma" and to the loud language and swearing going on about the house. Mrs. Holman testified that her husband called her "a dirty Swede."

"He cursed me because it rained," she said. "He threw bread and meat in my face. Once he spit in my face because I didn't walk to suit him." She said he once remarked that he "wished she was under the sod."

Mr. Holman declared on the witness stand that his wife "could swear as easy as the could winks." Once, he said, she came and turned out the light while he was reading the paper. On one occasion, he declared, she hit him with a stove lid lifter, and on another occasion she hit him with a dining room chair, he testified. The Holmans have considerable property, which they have arranged out of court to divide. The mother was given the custody of the two little girls.

Sell Surplus Supplies. Washington, April 25.—Prices received by the War department in the sale of surplus supplies totalling $140,000,000, the War department announced today, averaged 91 per cent of the initial cost. Military railway material disposed of brought $71,000,000, exactly what these supplies cost the government. Aircraft production material was sold at 90 per cent of its cost and ordnance supplies brought 57 per cent.

Boy Scouts to Launch Craft On Missouri; Pay Federal Tax. Toot! Toot! Another trusty craft is about to brave the waters of the fickle Missouri. Boy Scout Executive Hoyt yesterday paid the internal revenue office at the federal building the required tax on one power boat 30 feet in length. The boat was recently purchased from a resident of East Omaha by the Omaha local council of Boy Scouts for the transportation of supplies from the Douglas street bridge to Camp Gifford, seven miles south on the river. It is a regular craft, according to Mr. Hoyt, and will be launched next week.

"All we need is a name and a bottle of pop to christen it, and then all will be plain sailing unless we hit something," said Mr. Hoyt. Camp Director L. N. Bexton has been made "skipper."

Says Husband Wanted Her to "Walk Streets for Livelihood"

Mrs. Nettie Koking, Arrested With Other Man for Alleged Adultery, Will Seek Divorce From Her Husband on Charges of Wife and Child Abandonment, She Says.

When Mrs. Nettie Koking, elevator operator in the Securities building, flatly refused to "walk the streets to earn a livelihood for the family" her husband abandoned her, she said. Thursday night she was arrested, together with P. C. Sheets, stationary engineer, at his home on a complaint sworn out by her husband, Ben J. Koking, charging both with adultery.

In the matron's ward at the police station, Mrs. Koking, 34 years old, told of her husband's demands made upon her. She had been supporting herself, since her husband left two years ago, taking their 9-year-old child with him, she said. The circumstances surrounding the arrest of Mrs. Koking and P. C. Sheets grew out of the fact that the woman had been a roomer at the Sheets home for nearly a year.

When arrested they were in separate rooms. "Because I refused to accede to my husband's desires and demands, he had me arrested," Mrs. Koking said. Seek Reconciliation. "I flatly refused to stain my honor and name, and shortly after we moved here from Ashton, Ia., where we were married, he left me," she said. "He took the little girl with him and I never learned where he went. Several weeks ago he wrote me that he wanted to come back. I told him I could earn my own living, and that all I wanted was the child."

Mrs. Koking says she will institute action for divorce and wife and child abandonment. Preliminary hearing of Mrs. Koking and P. C. Sheets will come up this morning.

FOUR BOYS HELD BY POLICE FACE ROBBERY CHARGE

With the arrest of four boys, ranging in ages from 14 to 18 years, who were sleeping in a vacant house at Twenty-first and Hickory streets, police believe they have broken up a gang of automobile thieves which has been operating in Omaha during the past several months.

The boys confessed, the police say, to stealing two automobiles recently. One of the cars was stolen from T. W. Doerr, 3123 South Nineteenth street, and the other machine was stolen from Mrs. D. J. Condon, 2308 J street. Mrs. Condon's machine was driven to Lincoln 10 days ago and disposed of, the prisoners told Detective Chief Dunn.

In the house where the boys were arrested was found a set of burglar tools, which detectives declare were stolen from a blacksmith shop at Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth streets. A "jimmy" belonging to the set of tools was found in the Royal Drug store, Nineteenth and Harney streets, according to detectives. The boys disclaim any knowledge of the drug store robbery.

The names of the prisoners are, Joe and Edward Nachtigall, brothers, 1516 Martha street, Glenn Baysdorfer, 1933 South Twenty-first street, and Charles Moore, 1951 Douglas street.

Mrs. Pearce and Friend Fail to Answer Charge of Vagrancy in Court

Clara May Pearce and Herbert Eckstrom, both of Bennington, Neb., who were arrested in a room at the Lovel hotel on April 16, charged with vagrancy, forfeited $50 bond each in police court yesterday morning. The arrest of the couple was the outgrowth of a sensational divorce suit by Mrs. Pearce against Harry Pearce, South Side.

A legal fight for the possession of their 2 year old child ended with the court giving the custody of it to Mrs. Pearce. On the day of her arrest with Eckstrom, Judge Troup sitting in district court signed an order giving custody of the child to the father. Mrs. Pearce is making a fight in the district court for the return of the child.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "tummy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.
