

EXPECT WILSON TO INSIST UPON HIS 14 POINTS

Germans Will Reject Peace Which Surrenders Sarre Region, Says Head of German Assembly.

Paris, April 26.—(Havas.)—The German delegation to the peace conference, it is announced semi-officially, will not arrive at Versailles before May 1.

Copenhagen, April 26.—(By Associated Press.)—The president of the German national assembly, Konstantin Fehrenbach, speaking at Freiburg yesterday, said he was certain that President Wilson was inclined to insist on his 14 points. "I was very possible that a plenary session would be convoked to decide regarding the signing of a preliminary peace treaty, as well as to cooperate in the peace negotiations. "We are in no doubt as to what it would mean for the southwestern corner of the empire if we refused to sign the peace treaty," said Herr Fehrenbach. "I take it that in any case we shall not sign a peace which leaves prisoners still in captivity and does not bring a raising of the blockade. Neither will we sign a peace which surrenders the Sarre region to our enemies and promises Danzig to the Poles."

"The government and parliament jointly bear a tremendous responsibility, but behind them stands the entire German nation. Our enemies must know, and it must penetrate their countries—we will not accept any dictated terms and will not be a slave nation."

Thousand Recruits Ready To Join U. S. Army In Germany

Washington, April 26.—The first contingent of 1,000 recruits enlisted by the War department for foreign service to relieve men in the army occupation will leave Camp Meade April 30 for New York preparatory to embarking. With this first unit will go a number of officers who have asked foreign service to relieve officers in the American army in Germany.

Adriatic Territory Which Is Causing Peace Conference Crisis

Twenty-seven days before Italy declared war against Austria a secret treaty was signed in London by Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy. The treaty was signed on April 26, 1915. Italy declared war on May 23, 1915, and the soviet government of Russia published the secret treaty in their organ, Ivestia, on November 30, 1917. Clause four of this treaty guarantees Italy in the future treaty of peace the district of Trentino and the southern Tyrol, and clause five gives her the province of Dalmatia and the islands along the coast. Under the latter clause and because Italians predominate in the city Italy also demands Fiume. President Wilson wants to internationalize the city. The Iugo-Slavs want a plebiscite in Dalmatia, and the Italians insist on the treaty being carried out, but are willing to concede part of Dalmatia or the city of Fiume. France and England according to latest despatches, do not wholly agree with President Wilson, as was at first reported, but are bending every effort to bring about a compromise.

Religious War Brought On By Trouble in Italy

Saloniki, April 26.—The Italian government has closed all the Greek schools in Argirocastro, northern Epirus, and has sent 100 Italian school teachers there, according to information received by the Hellas, a Greek newspaper. The Italians also are declared to be stirring up religious hatred by playing up the Moslems against the Christians. The Christians wish northern Epirus to be joined to Greece, while the Italians are agitating for an Italian protectorate over Albania.

ORLANDO GETS OVATION AS HE REACHES ROME

vations and sacrifices we find ourselves faced with fresh sacrifices and privations. At this moment Italy is ready and greater than ever—greater than in May, 1915.

Advices Careful Consideration.
"The decision must be a well-considered one. Food supplies are failing us, but Italy, which has known hunger, has never known dishonor. I do not conceal from you the danger of this very critical hour. (Cries of 'we will face anything!')

"I am with you," continued the premier, "a brother among brothers and also a chief who asks to obey and follow the will of the people. It may be that we shall find ourselves alone, but Italy must be united and have a single will. Italy will not perish."

At the close of his address, the premier was given an ovation. General Diaz and Signor Barzilai, of the peace delegates, then spoke and were cheered by the soldiers and sailors.

Prince Colonna, mayor of Rome, asserted that there was complete solidarity of the people with the government.

Premier Orlando, General Diaz, Prince Colonna and Signor Barzilai entered motor cars and a procession was formed which proceeded to the royal palace in Quirinal square.

The passage through the streets was extremely slow owing to the density of the crowds, which insisted on drawing the car occupied by Signor Orlando.

At the palace the party joined the king, queen and crown prince on the balcony, and the entire group was acclaimed with enthusiasm by the assemblage below.

Sing Patriotic Songs.
The fervor of the crowd was unbounded. Patriotic songs and all kinds of yells filled the air, with cries of "Viva Fiume," and "Dalmatia."

The city was decorated only with Italian flags. The Via Nazionale was brilliant with Italy's tri-color, and only one foreign flag was to be seen; that was the British over the British army headquarters.

No feeling antagonistic to Americans was shown, the whole demonstration being a fervent manifestation in behalf of Italy's claims. One American lieutenant cheered the premier, with the rest of those assembled, and the Italians near by cheered the American, crying out, "Viva America."

Banners were displayed bearing the inscription: "Fiume, Dalmatia or death." Airplanes hovered above, among them a gigantic bombing machine.

For more than an hour the automobile containing Premier Orlando, General Diaz and Signor Barzilai was so surrounded by the immense crowd outside the station that it could not move. The premier was repeatedly obliged to address the people amidst uproarious applause.

Allusion having been made to possible retaliation against Italy by the restriction of her food supplies, the premier exclaimed: "The Italian people have often known hunger, but never dishonor."

These words were received with intense enthusiasm, the people crying: "Death rather than betrayal of our brothers across the Adriatic."

D'Annunzio Voices Protest.
The crowd received with great enthusiasm the announcement that Gabriele d'Annunzio, the aviator, had accepted the invitation sent by the mayor of Rome to come to the capital to voice "a deep protest from the heart of a country torn by an outrage in which its most sacred national aspirations have suffered."

The body of socialists who supported the war have adopted a resolution that to prevent the annexation of Fiume by Italy would mean opposition to the "fundamental principles of a just and lasting peace built upon recognition of nationality and the self-determination of peoples."

The republican party has adopted a resolution unanimously demanding possession of Fiume by Italy, and complaining that the Italian government had been placed in an isolated position at the peace conference.

90TH DIVISION INSPECTED FOR RETURN TO U. S.

Brig.-Gen. Hugh McAlexander and Six Men Decorated; Many Iowa and Nebraska Men in Ranks.

Coblenz, April 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—What may be the last official review of American troops in Germany took place Thursday afternoon when the men of the Ninetieth division marched past General Pershing after they had been inspected by the commander-in-chief on the meadows near Wengersdorf.

Brig. Gen. Hugh McAlexander was decorated with the distinguished service medal, while six distinguished service crosses were awarded. The colors of the infantry regiments and the machine gun and engineer battalions also were decorated. The Ninetieth is known as the Texas and Oklahoma division, the majority of its members being national army men from those states, although there are many men in the ranks from Iowa and Illinois.

The review of the Ninetieth completes the reviews of the divisions of the army of occupation. The function is taken by the men to indicate that the Ninetieth will board trains on the first stage of their journey home, probably not more than a month from now.

Spartan Mob Lynchers Slayer of Premier Eisner

Berlin, April 26.—Count Arco Valley, who assassinated Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian premier, at Munich, February 21, and has since been in a hospital there after an attempted lynching by a mob, was recently dragged from the hospital by a Spartan crowd and killed according to a political agent who has reached Bamberg from Munich.

THREE POWERS ARE UNITED ON FIUME MATTER

mier Orlando in pressing the extreme demands made by Italy. These reports are particularly disturbing, as the Americans and British delegations to the peace conference are said to have had reason to believe that Premier Orlando might adopt a course before the Italian parliament which would lead to an amicable adjustment. Premier Lloyd-George was particularly hopeful that this result would be brought about.

The reports of the popular agitation at Rome and many other Italian centers, however, have led to fears that the Italian prime minister's conciliatory attitude may be swept away in an outburst of feeling by the populace, which will insist upon demands far beyond those of the council of powers or President Wilson will feel themselves able to accept.

It has just developed that the British, American and French admirals in command in Adriatic waters had formulated a plan for giving Italy certain Dalmatian islands, which would have assured Italy of control of the Adriatic. This joint plan was presented to the Italian representatives and was rejected as not sufficient.

Deny Rumor of Settlement.

London, April 26.—Reuter's Paris correspondent sends the following on the Italian situation. "The Italian delegation in a statement denies reports from Rome received yesterday that the Adriatic differences were in course of settlement. The delegates considered absurd the plan for an autonomous Fiume, but under the sovereignty of Italy."

COMMERCE HIGH FACULTY TO GET SALARY RAISES

about the scope of his organization: "We did not organize primarily to obtain higher pay, although that will be one of the objects. We have a committee now investigating the salaries paid in commercial high schools in other cities and that committee will have a report to make in due time. We have not decided on any particular amount of increase and will not formulate this until our committee has reported on its investigations. The matter will be presented to the school board."

We are not ready to make any definite statement on the salary question at this time, because when we do make a statement we do not want to say anything which we will have to retract. We will have an organization that will include every member of the High School of Commerce faculty. All but two or three have signed the roll and we expect to get these during the next week."

Do Not Favor Organization.

The members of the Board of Education do not look with favor on this commercial high school organization which they refer to as a "union." They aver that it is not necessary to organize in this way to obtain increase of pay; that the teachers' committee of the board has already started an investigation of pay to teachers in commercial high schools in other cities and that they are inclined to believe that the scale should be raised in the Omaha High School of Commerce.

The Commerce Teachers' league however, intends to "beat the school board to it," by getting their facts and figures before that body at an early date and then backing their case up by a 100 per cent faculty organization, which includes the principal of the school.

crossing as he approached. Leaving the engine running, its driver jumped on the locomotive, threw back the reverse lever, opened the throttle and was backing the train off the crossing before the astonished engineer could move. Then something happened quickly. The fellow was picked up bodily and thrown off the engine.

Both Cars Wrecked.

A few moments later the Hudson was speeding down South avenue. Four miles out on the Glenwood road Dorsey Byers of Henderson, Ia., driving into town with his wife and daughter, saw the reckless driver approaching and sent his car as far as possible to the side of the road and stopped, but he did not escape. The Hudson side-swiped him, tearing off two wheels and throwing the people out. It was also the finish of the Hudson. It went into the ditch a wreck, its driver knocked senseless. Byers sustained injury, but Mrs. Byers sustained a broken arm and perhaps internal injuries. She was brought to Dr. Merritt's office and cared for.

Police officers and Sheriff Groneweg's men took charge of the situation. At the police station Nemic refused to utter a word but headquarters officers immediately recognized him as an Omaha man arrested May 7 last for reckless driving. He then gave the name of Antone Maceley. Omaha detectives could not identify him.

In the meantime the Nebraska secretary of state had been reached on the phone, and the car was found to have been registered by Antone Nemic, Clarkson. He finally admitted that to be his name and told detectives that he lived at the Worthington place address. Nemic refused to make any statements. No booze was in the car.

Thomson's (Glove Fitting) Corsets

The correct poise of the figure has more to do with the flat effect of the back than any other one thing.

If the figure is rightly poised, the back flattens voluntarily, but it is necessary to wear the correct corset model.

This we are showing in one of our new Thomson's glove-fitting corsets.

Voile and Gingham Dresses

A first-time showing tomorrow of smart new street dresses for Spring and Summer wear.

Fashions in French and Scotch Ginghams, as well as the finest domestic grades. Also imported and American Voiles and Dimities. These dresses would appeal from the standpoint of attractiveness alone, but that in combination with unusually moderate prices makes their appeal irresistible.

A dress of Anderson gingham in various plaid patterns, with long plain sleeves, set off with buttons and a collar outlined with dainty lace, $10.50.

French gingham in small checks is used in another dress; a pleated skirt and flowing Parisian sash, complete one of our most likeable models, $10.25

A dress of French chambray, in various colors, has a white hand-embroidered vest, collar and cuffs, and attractive large buttons, $14.50.

"English prints" now so fashionable. Really a calico dress, but none the less interesting for that. It's the newest style idea of the season, $7.50.

A most becoming dress of American gingham, in striking plaids, with collar and cuffs outlined in white, $5.95.

A dainty white dress of barred dimity, with ribbon trimmings, is a wonderful value for $4.95.

A voile dress in several striped patterns is very much worth while for $3.95.
