INSURANCE CO. DIRECTOR TELLS OF BIG CHANGE

Declares Money Couldn't Buy the Good Tanlac Did Him.

"If I could sell the good Tanlac has done me no amount of money could buy it," said T. B. Whitledge, division director for the Great Western Accident Insurance Company, living at 778 Wabasha street, St. Paul, in an interview recently.

Mr. Whitledge has been connected with the Great Western in his present capacity for a number of years. He was four years in Omaha, Nebraska, five years in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and has just opened offices for his company in the Metropolitan Bank Building in St. Paul.

"Everywhere I go," continued Mr. Whitledge, "I have a good word for Tanlac and the reason is this: the medicine has gotten me over troubles of eighteen years' standing. In 1901 I had a spell of yellow fever which put my stomach and kidneys in very bad shape. My stomach, especially, was in awful condition and I felt very much discouraged. Everything I ate would ferment and the gas from it would bloat me up and cause such fearful pain that the cold sweat would come out all over me and it just looked like I would die at times. There were awful pains in the region of my kidneys and I was all run-down generally. I felt so sick and miserable that I often had to go pretty easy, not getting out of the house for two or three days at a time. I had severe pains in the back of my neck extending up into my head and at times I got so dizzy that it seemed like the ground was coming up to my face. Sometimes, when those spells were at their worst, I couldn't sit up, and while I doctored and took all kinds of medicines, nothing did me any good.

"While in Sioux Falls around a year and a half ago I was attracted by the Tanlac display in a drug store window and decided to take a chance on the medicine helping me. Well, it has not only helped me, it has made a new man of me and I like to pass the good word along for the benefit of others. Before I had hardly finished my second bottle I had a good appetite and could eat and sleep better. From then on I kept gradually improving and when I finished my seventh bottle of Tanlac I was feeling just about right. I could sleep all night long and get up in the mornings feeling good. My kidneys were in pretty good shape and my stomach so good that I could eat just anything, and I am still at it although it has been a year and a half since Tanlac straightened me up. It is very seldom that I ever have a headache now or feel the least bit dizzy. I can't recommend Tanlac too highly.

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forrest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Adv.

PROVISIONS IN SLUMP AT SAME TIME CORN DROPS

at present in position to extend the same credit to Europe that the United States is. Also it has been kept out of the United States by the restrictions of the government which is not un mindful of the record-breaking domestic crop in prospect.

The government long ago as a war measure eliminated wheat from the speculative arena, but the fortunes of wheat are proportionately the fortunes of corn, oats and provisions also, and these staples showed the effect of the pronouncements.

Corn Market Wobbly. Prior to the bulletin the corn market had been wobbly and off a few cents for a variety of reasons, including increased receipts and low quotations for live hogs. There were also many small buyers in the market on small margins. They were sold out wholesale when the real break came in the afternoon. Prices dropped like a plummet and were near the bottom when the closing gong sounded. Even after that curb traders were reported offering July corn at seven-eighths of a cent under the official close, which was $1.53 3/4 to $1.54 1/4.

Milling Protected. New York, April 29.—Commenting on his notice that government purchases of "white" flour for export would be discontinued, with a view to stopping speculation, Julius H. Barnes, federal wheat director, announced through the food administration grain corporation today that the speculative tendency threatened unless checked, to carry flour prices above their proper reflection of the federal re-sale price of wheat.

Under the government re-sale rates, the statement said, legitimate milling was protected for fair returns. Since there was in the hands of American millers, or directed by them, it continued, 80,000,000 to 90,000,000 bushels of wheat, only part of which probably was directed to flour users, the present sharp advances in flour prices were not "fully warranted," if they were continued the announcement asserted, import restrictions would be relaxed to permit foreign wheat and flour to enter.

Today's warning to speculators was the second issued by Mr. Barnes' office this month.

Flour Rise Not Justified. St. Louis, April 29.—Commenting on the tremendous price smashing that took place on the Chicago board of trade today, Julius H. Barnes, federal wheat director, tonight in a statement to the Associated Press, said the government will discontinue, until further announcement, export purchases of wheat as a preventive of speculative hoarding.

Mr. Barnes, who arrived tonight to attend the United States Chamber of Commerce convention, declined to discuss the corn situation, saying that branch of the administration was not under his jurisdiction.

His statement follows: "The steady advance in the market price of flour is not justified by any scarcity, actual or impending, as reserves have been carefully preserved for the demands of the country."

"The mills are grinding 11,000,000 bushels of flour weekly, while our domestic consumption does not exceed 8,000,000 bushels. It is therefore a simple problem to offset any speculative hoarding of flour, to discontinue export purchases.

The grain corporation fortunately, is supplied with sufficient food stocks to carry out its obligations, including the large relief program abroad; and is able to will discontinue wheat flour purchases for export as long as domestic prices make this desirable."

is received from the allies it may be impossible for the Belgian delegates to sign the peace treaty.

The final draft of the treaty is virtually completed. The men in charge of the work say they have no further doubt that they will be able to finish their work by Thursday or by such time as delivery is made.

The latest count shows a total of 80,000 words in the treaty. An official summary of 10,000 words has been made. It is in such shape that it could be made public at once, but the intention is to hold it for publication throughout the world at about the same time that the treaty is delivered to the Germans.

The various governments are calling this summary everywhere for simultaneous release when authorization is given by the conference.

No Action on Ex-Kaiser. Doubt has arisen whether the responsibility of the former German emperor will be included in the peace treaty owing to the failure of the plenary session to take action on the report of the council of four recommending this prosecution, which was on yesterday's agenda.

Parliamentarians say that the council might still include its report in the treaty, but as the subject is one on which a plenary conference ordered the report inaction on the report prevents its inclusion in the treaty unless the expected secret plenary session of the conference directs further action.

present salary of $200 per month. His year as assistant chief was up on February 1 of this year, but he did not retire at that time as he announced that he did not feel that he had outlived his usefulness as a police official. Recently, however, as exclusively announced in The Bee, he stated that he had been asked by Police Commissioner Rinker to retire.

Mr. Dempsey has been offered two positions, one being that of investigator for County Attorney Shotwell, and the other is a government position. It is probable that he will accept the place in the county attorney's office at a salary of $1,500 a year.

Nation-wide Record. Omaha's retiring police official is known throughout the country as one of the most competent men in his line of work. He has encountered the most trying experiences that fall to the lot of a policeman during one-third of a century of service, but there has never been a mark of discredit or bad judgment charged against him. His judgment in "tight places" was always cool and carefully calculated. He won the respect and esteem of the men with whom he was associated, when he was one of the rank and also when he was in various positions of command.

This afternoon he will doff his police badge for the first time in 33 years and six months.

Campaign for Wilson as First League President

Paris, April 29.—A proposal is on foot to hold the first meeting of the league of nations in Washington during the current year. Should the assembly meet first in Washington, it is said President Wilson doubtless would be asked to become the first president of the league.

very grave," said Signor Orlando, "to preserve the greatest calm and serenity."

"This statement aims to be only an impartial declaration of facts so that parliament may have all the elements necessary to pass judgment on the work of the government and of the Italian delegation at the peace conference as well as on the situation created by the last painful events."

"I think it opportune to recall briefly the attitude of the Italian delegation in that phase of the negotiations which began about the middle of March. At that time the preparatory work was finished and a program for definite deliberation had to be decided upon. Questions concerning peace with Germany were given the precedence, but it was agreed that those regarding Italy should follow immediately."

Citizens Demand Annexation. Demonstrations in Rome in support of the government's stand on the Adriatic question culminated in a great mass meeting, convoked by Prince Colonna, the mayor, on the Capitoline hill. The citizens at the meeting adopted unanimously a resolution asking the annexation of all territory given to Italy by the treaty of London and also Fiume. The resolution also urged the government to remember the "sufferings and hope of Spalato and Trau."

The assemblage took a solemn oath to remain united as the famous Capitoline bell was rung. Prince Colonna presided at the meeting and municipal officials attended.

A procession afterward went to the quinal where the king and queen appeared on the balcony of the palace. With them were soldiers who had been wounded during the war.

Street Car Co. Is Not Bankrupt, Says Mayor, Upon Reading Report

"I don't believe that the street railway company is facing bankruptcy," remarked Mayor Smith as he scanned a copy of the traction company's financial report for March, showing comparative figures for the first quarter of this year.

The report shows that on March 31 of this year the company had $883,056.07 cash in bank, working cash funds of $8,800, material and supplies on hand $312,233.72, making a total of $1,004,090.39. During the quarterly period covered by the report the surplus fund of $277,358.87 was increased to $309,310.41.

Receipts from transportation during last month were $310,988.46; during March last year, $275,126.54; increase for the month, $35,861.92. Receipts during the first quarter of this year were $72,162.99 more than during the first quarter of last year.

Lloyd George Intervenes. Paris, April 29.—(By The Associated Press)—The British prime minister has again intervened in the Italian situation by sending one of his trusted associates to communicate personally with Premier Orlando, at Rome.

While the desire is to conciliate Signor Orlando, the premier is advised against the inclusion of Fiume under Italian control, as likely to make a settlement difficult if not impossible.

The person bearing the message was a member of the Asquith cabinet with Mr. Lloyd George.

Tendency to Constipation?

USE THIS LAXATIVE! Dietitians advise a "careful diet," but that is troublesome to most people; physical culturists advise "certain exercises," which is good if one has both the time and the inclination. Doctors advise diet and exercise and medicine. The question is, shall it be a cathartic or purgative medicine? Or a mild, gentle laxative?

Thousands have decided the question to their own satisfaction by using a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known to druggists as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A small dose gives a free, easy movement of the bowels. It is the best substitute for nature herself. In fact, since the ingredients are wholly from the vegetable kingdom it may truthfully be said it is a natural laxative.

Its positive but gentle action on the bowels makes it an ideal remedy for constipation. The dose is small, and it may be taken with perfect safety until the bowels are regulated and act again of their own accord.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN The Perfect Laxative. PRICE AS ALWAYS. In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the war, by sacrificing profits and absorbing war taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 25 years. Two sizes—50c and $1.00. FREE SAMPLES—If you have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin send for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 408 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. If there are babies at home, ask for a copy of Dr. Caldwell's book, "The Care of Baby."
