General Pershing in Commendation of Spirit of Fairness in A. E. F.

Paris, Sunday, April 27.—(By Associated Press.)—In a speech last night to the 8,000 American officers and soldiers attending the boxing championships of the American expeditionary force in the Cirque Paris, General Pershing commending the sportsmanlike spirit that had prevailed.

"Never before," said the general, "have I witnessed such spirit of fairness and friendliness. I feel proud of the boys who battled in the ring tonight."

"I may say that our boys will return home with a higher notion of what clean athletics should be, and if we have accomplished that result of the American expeditionary force since we began introducing these sports last autumn, I feel that we have achieved a great success."

The spirit of fairness referred to by General Pershing did not prevent the spectators from "booing" the judges in awarding the lightweight crown to Leo Patterson of Joplin, Mo. Perhaps it was that very spirit of fairness, as the spectators viewed it, that prompted the demonstration, as a great majority of those at the ringside and throughout the arena thought that "Bushy" Graham of Brooklyn had won the bout, and for fully five minutes they told the judges so in no uncertain terms.
