Public Debt Increase in April Half Billion Washington, May 4.-Sccretary Glass said in a statement tonight that the published comparison of the government's expense of appreximately $1,190,000,000 in February created a wrong impression. "Ordinarily expenditures during April were less than $1,004,000,000, said Mr. Glass. "This is less than for any month subsequent to ...pril, 1918. Although the net increase in the public debt during the .hree months of January, February and March, 1918 aggregated more than $3,344,000,000 or at the rate of more than $1,100,000,000 a month the net increase in the public debt during the month of April, 1918, was only $510,000,000 as appears by the treas-
