

"OVER-THE TOP" THIS WEEK PLAN OF LOAN TEAMS

Omaha Subscriptions Far Ahead of Balance of State, Where Purchasing of Notes Is Backward.

Another $300,000 was added to Omaha's subscription to the Victory Liberty loan since Saturday and the figures at noon yesterday were $7,800,000, which leaves less than $1,400,000 still to be secured.

"We expect to go over the top sure before the end of this week," said Sam Burns, chairman of the Omaha committee.

The women are still operating the Liberty bank in the court house corridor and subscription bureaus run by the women are in many public buildings, office buildings and stores.

State is Backward. Omaha is said to be "a shining star" in comparison with the rest of the state, from many parts of which come reports of great backwardness on the part of the people to subscribe.

State chairman T. C. Byrne is bombarding the county workers with letters, urging them to renew efforts for the loan and he believes the state will still go "over the top" before the end of the drive.

U. P. Makes Subscription of Over Two Million to V-Loan. With a subscription of $2,094,000 the Union Pacific is over the top in its Victory loan drive, but it is still going.

Up to last Saturday night 70 per cent of the 31,400 officials and employees of the Union Pacific had subscribed to the Victory loan. Work of obtaining subscriptions will be continued until at least 90 per cent have taken of the securities.

Judge to Give Decision In Sellers Hearing Today

Sixty-two-year-old Confessed Lover and Former Employer of "Peggy" Sellers Sues Her for $816.44 and Is Sued by Her for $2,500.

Judge Holmes in municipal court yesterday announced that he will hand down a decision at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the case of George C. Chrisman against "Peggy" Sellers for $816.44, and the latter's counter claim for $2,500.

Testimony in the case was concluded yesterday and the judge decided that he would not hear any arguments by the attorneys. Peggy, recalled to the witness stand, declared that she does not have to sell oil stocks or oil land leases for a living; that she can play a pipe organ and has had several offers for her services as organist.

"I have not been in Omaha for my health," she said. Explaining certain transactions which have not been clear to the court and others, Peggy involved F. L. Harris of Billings, Mont., in an alleged attempt to deceive Mr. Chrisman. She referred to Harris as having been publisher of an oil trade journal at Billings and also in the oil stock and promotion business. She said he had been her former employer and Chrisman referred to Harris as a man whom he believed to have been his friend.

"I found out that Mr. Harris investigated the whole thing and I returned to Omaha to tell Mr. Chrisman," testified Peggy, who added that Harris inspired several telegrams sent from Casper, Wyo., in November to Chrisman, and purporting to have been sent by "P. Gilchrist."

Peggy claimed that when she returned to Omaha, to protect Chrisman from imposition by his supposed friends at Billings, Chrisman told her that he owned 500,000 shares of stock in the Success Refining company of Billings, and that she and Chrisman entered into business arrangement.

"According to the oil code, Mr. Chrisman should have given me $1,000 for having taken him down to Kentucky and showing him the oil lands on which he will make thousands," Peggy continued. "I think it is very unappreciative of him."

"When the case was called yesterday Mr. Chrisman remarked: 'This affair can be over as soon as possible as far as I am concerned, and I think that Peggy is satisfied, too.'"

Wanted to "Freeze" Harris Out. Peggy said she went into business with Chrisman for the avowed purpose of "freezing" Harris out.

Chrisman started the action in municipal court by obtaining service of a writ of attachment on Peggy's personal effects, including most of her clothes, which are now in storage with a constable holding the key.

Chrisman's claim is based on alleged unpaid amounts of money advanced by him to Peggy during a period of several months. Peggy came back with allegations that Chrisman spent this money on his own account and even made love to her.

She filed a counter-claim for $2,500 for alleged services as office manager, promoter and posing as a "Kentucky heiress," learning the southern dialect, and an assortment of other work.

She alleged that Chrisman referred to her and introduced her as "his" protegee, the mascot of the company, "the Little Lady from Kentucky," and other sobriquets.

Mr. Chrisman entered vigorous denials of the various claims made by Peggy and refuted much of her testimony.

The letter was dated April 9. "We have now repatriated all prisoners except 400,000 Russians. There were 1,200,000 Russian prisoners here four months ago," he wrote.

The general said that he expected to travel in Russia, thence to Serbia and Roumania, and then visit France on his way home.

Audubons to Hold Field Day Program Saturday

"It is very gratifying to me," said H. S. Mann, "to see that the Audubon society has made special arrangements to hold a Forest Lawn cemetery in the bird field day program Saturday morning. In my opinion there is no bird sanctuary in this region to compare with Forest Lawn. It is a large tract having many native trees and shrubs and it is free from molestation by the enemies of birdhood. The result is that a number of rare species of birds have made homes in the cemetery, making it doubly attractive to Audubons. Street cars leave Twenty-fourth street and Ames avenue at 6:15 and 6:30. Mrs. Neely, Mrs. Boyd and Miss Ellsworth will conduct the party."
