South Side POLICE SEARCH FOR CINDERELLA

Footgear With Bottle of Hair Tonic Mystifies Sleuths Assigned to South Side Station.

Prince Charming, slipper in hand, must again search for his Cinderella among the highways, byways or sideways of South Omaha.

The slipper in question, now awaiting its Cinderella in the South Side police station, is of leathernot glass-and was holding two bottles of hair tonic when picked up Monday night by Officer Zurack as the clock struck 12—on Twenty-fourth street between L and M

The officer searched the vicinity but found no traces of burglary.

The police have decided that "whomsoever the shoe shall fit, let him-or her-put it on" and like-wise become owner of the hair tonic.
