Omaha Boy Cooks For Y. W. at Coblenz

Hostess House Feeds 1,000 People for Regular Meals and 500 for a Tea.

At least one establishment in the world is exempt from the servant problem; they are not afraid of losing their cook, or of having her strike for higher wages and a parlor to entertain her beaux; and that place is the Y. W. C. A. hostess house which has recently been established in Coblenz, Germany, for the women in the army of occupation.

The Y. W. C. A. hostess house in Coblenz is one of the busiest places in this busy German town. It feeds 1,000 people for regular meals every day and 500 for tea every afternoon and evening. This takes a great deal of food and the only way to get it is to go to the rail head and haul it home.

Two of the secretaries have been detailed as mess sergeants to take care of the job, Julia Chagin of Holyoke, Mass., and Zilla Mills of Tecumseh, Mich. They have to go to the rail head at 8 every morning with a great truck, and stand in line with all the mess sergeants from the army of occupations—the only women in the long line waiting for provisions. A detail of Germans usually does the loading for the "lady mess sergeants" who stand by and direct the Y. W. C. A. usually carries away about 600 pounds of meat at each visit and about 12 sacks of potatoes.

From the rail head the mess sergeants go to the U. S. bakery which is on the outskirts of the city, and here the "woman's portion" is 300 loaves every day.

"The girls always stand by and check up the number of loaves they are getting. None of the boys ever do that," was the baker's comment on these "lady mess sergeants."

Miss Mary McMahon, superintendent of nurses for the institution, acted as lieutenant and reported a splendid spirit of co-operation given by the sisters furthering the work of the drive.

The Firestone Tire company subsidized $5,000 in Victory bonds Wednesday afternoon through the women's committee.

The Omaha Public Library board invested $3,000 of the employes pension fund in Victory notes. They bought the notes through the women's committee Wednesday.

Extension Society.

Mrs. W. Fletcher will entertain the Extension society at the home of Mrs. M. Kent, 2612 N. Twenty-fourth street, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Heart Beats

By A. K.

Once Upon a time We had; the very Erroneous idea that We were important Or at least prominent And perhaps popular Maybe We hoped That a wee bit of fame Attached to our name Or if not fame Some notoriety Clung to our Identification.

But we were entertaining False hopes Riotous ideas Vagrant thoughts Bold assumptions For the sad awakening Is upon us at last And we are realizing From the depths Of despair. That we are but Average mortal And we find ourself Inconsequential Infinitesimal And not very much In this Terrestrial plan But we are awake! At last! And know that our Estimation of ourselves Was all wrong For we have no popularity And no prominence And no fame. Through these thrilling Days we have waited And waited and waited And not a single soul Has sent a bomb To us.

Removes Hairy Growths Without Pain or Bothers

(Modes of Today) It is not necessary to use a painful process to remove hairy growths, for with a little delatona handy you can keep the skin entirely free from these beauty destroyers. To remove hair, make a stiff paste with a little powdered delatona and water. Spread this on the hairy surface and in about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. To guard against disappointment, be careful to get real delatona.—Adv.

On the Square "It's Wonderful"

Stick a Pin Right Here!

here are two events that deserve more than passing notice

First--THE Hat Sale!

Notice we said THE--properly we feel using the definite article--for this is no ordinary no indefinite article--or event--If any such Hat Value has appeared anywhere this year, we haven't seen it.

THE PRICE $4.00

A woman who has spent a lifetime in the Millinery business, remarked in our hearing, as she looked at the window display, "The bare untrimmed hat is worth double the price—twice four dollars." This she said as she pointed with her finger to first one hat and then another.

ABOUT 300 HATS to sell — and there'll be a good-natured scramble for them. Store opens at 9 A. M. AND THE SALE STARTS ON THE DOT.

Mothers' Day--Sunday! Attention! Soldiers!

Boys don't forget Mother this year if it takes your last cent. Oh, if you knew how Mother has thought of you, dreamed of you and prayed for you, you would do everything to make her happy now. She's so proud of you, and so are we all. "Cobb" has special "Mother" boxes of Candy — and most Mothers love sweets.

Cards this year are especially appropriate. Don't put off buying until the last moment! ATTENTION SON!
