

OMAHA HEROES TO BE OFFICIALLY WELCOMED JULY 4

Monster Homecoming Celebration Planned for Returned Soldiers, Sailors and Marines.

Mayor Smith announces that a meeting will be held in the council chamber next Tuesday evening to begin plans for a general homecoming celebration to be held July 4 for the returned soldiers, sailors and marines.

It is proposed that the celebration shall be held under the auspices of the city and that various organizations will co-operate.

"We expect to appoint a general committee next Tuesday night," said the mayor. "We will be pleased to receive suggestions from those who may have ideas. It is probable that 10,000 Omaha men will have returned by July 4 and we want to give them a real good time."

"We will not ask them to parade, but will have them assemble in one of the parks and give them one day of genuine entertainment. A pyrotechnical display in the evening has been suggested and community singing and a program of sports have been mentioned."

"We will, of course, see that they are served with plenty of good things to eat and will make them feel that we are glad to have them back again with us."

The Chamber of Commerce has already indicated a willingness to assist.

Many Discharged Soldiers

File On Land In Wyoming

Within the last 10 days the Burlington land department has sent close to 100 persons to Wyoming there to file on government homestead lands. Of this number, nearly half have been returned soldiers.

The applications for government land indicate that a large number of boys who have returned from overseas are anxious to engage in farming operations and stock raising. Some of the young men are buying out the settlers and still others are going back some distance from the railroads and filing on unoccupied land.

In filing on government land, the soldiers are given credit for the time they were in the service and this time is taken from the five years required prior to making final proof.

Corp Whitney D. Sherman

Corp. Whitney D. Sherman, 18th Company, Fifth Regiment of Marines, Second Division.

Corporal Sherman is as good as they come. He was wounded in action at Belleau Wood and since he is a marine, he calls the place, "Bois-de-la-Brigade-de-Marine." He was one of those hurried forward in motor trucks to stop the drive on Paris. He went over the top with a dashing disregard of danger, making deadly use of his rifle and bayonet, displaying an astonishing skill at arms under murderous fire of the enemy machine guns. This in spite of being wounded in the leg, thus proving himself unbeatable and setting an example to his fellows which they were not slow to follow. Later he was removed to a hospital but rejoined his company in time to participate with continued gallantry in the last drive of the war.
