"The working class of the world is awakening. This great class of wealth producers is at last manifesting its power. Kaisers and czars, kings and potentates have felt the strong arm of labor. Thrones have crumbled into dust. Scepters have vanished into thin air.

"Labor now knows its strength. Labor now makes demands. And these demands are heard, they must be heard, for labor in its might has learned to achieve for labor, and labor's word is fast becoming law.

L. E. Dean In Role of 'Peeping Tom' Gets 30 Days in Jail

In explanation of his arrest as a "peeping Tom," L. E. Dean, 801 North Sixteenth street, told the police judge yesterday morning that he "wasn't doin' nuthin' but detective work."

As evidence of his skill, he produced a pair of highly magnified spectacles, partially resembling sash doors. With a quick shuffle of his slippery feet, he started for the "bull pen" to begin a jail sentence of 30 days on a charge of vagrancy.

Doffner Boys Charged With Beating Red Cross Relief and With Forgery

Ray and Ernest Doffner, under arrest at Council Bluffs charged with forgery and obtaining money from the civilian relief bureau of the Red Cross, waived preliminary examination in police court at Council Bluffs yesterday morning and were held to the grand jury under $1,000 bonds.

Ed Bishop and his sister, Mrs. H. Beck, were held for further investigation under similar bonds in connection with forgeries and obtaining money under false pretenses from Mrs. Marcy, local Red Cross worker.

Both the Doffner boys made written confessions to Assistant County Attorney Northrup, detailing their acts and implicating the others.

They said they had a room at the Woodrow restaurant. They told how they had worked upon the sympathies of Mrs. Marcy by posing as soldiers and sharing her sorrow over the death of her soldier son in France. They had obtained two checks from Mrs. Marcy, one for $7 and the other for $5. They thus became acquainted with her signature, which was later used in their forgeries.

Bishop was taken to Mrs. Marcy and introduced as A. Tiarks, and she was told he was a contractor who was going to take the Doffner boys to Kansas City to work. He told her he would advance $60 to them, but would arrange to take from it the $12 they owed her.

Friday Ernest Doffner came to her with a $60 check signed by Tiarks, and she was asked to cash it by giving her own check for $48. She grew suspicious and said she would call up the bank. Doffner protested, but said he would go to the bank with her. They started, but Doffner made an excuse to meet her there and slipped away.

Mrs. Beck was brought into the case in an apparently innocent manner. The Doffners told her, who permitted them to write checks, but that the writing must be in a woman's hand.

Upon representation of her brother that he knew the statement to be true, she said she wrote as requested. The number of checks written has not been stated definitely.

TO PAINT TOWN RED WHEN BOYS COME FROM WAR

Council Bluffs Plans Great Reception for Saturday, When Company L Soldiers Arrive.

Saturday will be the big day, when Council Bluffs will show the soldier boys what the home folks think of them. Company L boys left Camp Upton Sunday afternoon. A message from Col. Matt Tinley to Mrs. Tinley, yesterday, filed at Savr, Pa., at 10:30, said the train was making fast time and would reach Des Moines Wednesday morning. Only the briefest stay is expected at Camp Dodge. The boys are expected to reach Council Bluffs Thursday.

It will be difficult to hold the boys long after they arrive here. They will be too anxious to get to their homes. It was decided last night at a meeting of the general reception committee to advance the date of the reception to Saturday afternoon, instead of waiting until Monday. It was also realized that the Saturday half holiday would make it easier for thousands of working men and office employees to get away and would also avoid the necessity of closing the schools. The program as originally outlined will be followed, but there may be new features.

There will be seven colonels in the parade, all men who have won honors in the line of duty. They are Colonels Matt Tinley, Donald Macrae, E. A. Merritt, Ernest Irons, G. F. M. Dailey, Hugh Gallager and Fred Test.

Company L Comfort club, while taking prominent part in Saturday's festivities, has planned a big family reception for the home boys. It will be held May 24. There will be a banquet and dance. The banquet will be the real thing, for all the goodies will be made by the mothers and wives of the men. The dance will be given at Eagles' hall.

The employees, demanding increased wages, have been out several days.

South Side OFFICER LEAPS FROM SPEEDING CAR TO SAFETY

Man, Crazed With Drink, Opens Throttle of Machine as Policeman Jumps on Running Board.

Police Officer Frank Zurek of the South Side police station narrowly escaped death early Monday morning when he took an enforced ride with John Pratt, an employee of a garage, Twenty-third and M streets. Pratt was crazed with drink and heedless of all danger drove his car with terrific speed through the streets of the South Side.

The officer fearing death leaped from the flying car and sustained several severe bruises. Pratt was arrested by Zurek at Twenty-fourth and J streets on a charge of drunkenness. Pratt took the wheel while the policeman stood guard on the running board to guard him. Once at the wheel Pratt suddenly turned the car to full speed. The machine hurtled forward. Unable to wrestle with the crazed man for fear he and Pratt would be killed, Zurek leaped from the flying car. Pratt continued on his way with unabated speed.

Placed Under Arrest. With the aid of two other policemen Zurek finally succeeded in arresting Pratt at a garage near Twenty-third and M streets.

Judge Foster, sitting in the South Side police court, fined Pratt $75 and costs on the charge of drunkenness and speeding.

About two months ago Barney Rovinski, an employe of the same garage, succeeded in temporarily escaping arrest by following the same tactics as were pursued by Pratt.
