

ALBERTO J. PANI IS RECEIVED AS MEXICAN ENVOY

Presents Credentials to President Poincare After Withdrawal From That Country Some Time Ago.

Paris, May 14.—(Havas.)—Alberto J. Pani, the new Mexican minister to France, presented his credentials to President Poincare yesterday. The presentation was accompanied with the usual ceremonies.

Senor Pani's withdrawal from France was recently ordered by the Mexican government because, it was stated, of the long period he had spent waiting in Paris without having been given an opportunity to present his credentials. On May 11, however, it was announced by the minister, who was still in Paris, that he had been given notification that he might present his credentials May 13.

Drink Dandelion Wine and Beautify Omaha, Says Improvement Club

"Drink dandelion wine and beautify Omaha" is the slogan of a committee representing the New Omaha Improvement club, which was appointed at a meeting of the organization Tuesday night and charged with the duty of ridding thousands of city lawns of millions of the obnoxious yellow blossoms, which were declared to be seriously threatening the beauty of local landscapes.

It was voted that some incentive would be necessary to enlist the public in support of the campaign against dandelions, and in order to create the desired interest, an announcement was made that the committee would confer with Aaron Lewis and the labor committee on the resubmission of prohibition.

LT. COL. EDWARDS MAY TAKE PLACE OF DR. MANNING

tion with this man indicated a desire to get out of a department which has drawn so much criticism. Dr. Manning's resignation follows: "For some time past the condition has been forced on me that for the best interest of the department of health the man holding the position as health commissioner should be one especially trained for the work. Discussion of the subject with a number of prominent physicians in Omaha, and with others especially cognizant of the public health situation, has confirmed this conclusion. For the above reason, and because of a personal desire to continue my private practice, I hereby tender my resignation as commissioner of health, same to take effect at your discretion, but preferably at as early a date as possible."

Comment by Commissioners. City Commissioners Ure offered the following comment on the situation:

"As a health commissioner I think Dr. Manning has made good. Mayor Smith said: 'I have been pleased with the administration of Dr. Manning and would be sorry to see him leave us. As for the City Detention home situation, I am in sympathy with the new ordinance offered by Mr. Ringer. This ordinance will limit commitments to the home to persons who have been convicted in court, or those who may voluntarily submit themselves for treatment. I am satisfied that none has been committed to the home this year unless first having been convicted of an offense in court. That was my contention last year when the home was opened and Dr. Manning and I had it out along those lines, but we have reached an agreement on the matter, as Mr. Ringer's new ordinance will show. There have been no differences between Mr. Ringer and Dr. Manning.'"

Head of Detention Home. As health commissioner, Dr. Manning has had charge of the City Department home for women. He was instrumental in launching this institution when it was opened in a former residence building at Twenty-second street and St. Marys avenue. When he announced that Dr. Palmer Findley would take charge of the medical work of the home, he expressed his belief that his troubles would be over.

It is known that the institution has been more or less a source of worry to him. A negro officer at the St. Marys avenue place was arrested on a charge of receiving money to allow women to escape.

Many women escaped from the home at its old location. Charges were made that one of the doctors who examined women was collecting money for services performed at his office. This money was said to have been paid in consideration for not committing these women to the home.

Then came the allegations about administering "dope" at the home, making the whole situation one which the doctor has not relished, his friends aver. On the other hand, Police Commissioner Ringer maintains an abiding faith in the home, and yesterday offered an ordinance to more fully define the powers of the health department in this connection.

"I am told that there are only eleven women at the home," stated City Commissioner Zimman yesterday.

Has School Inspection. Dr. Manning is also head of the medical department of the public schools, an agreement having been entered into with the city when he was appointed health commissioner that he would be allowed to carry his school work along with the city work. He is paid $3,000 per year for his services as health commissioner and $2,000 per year for his public school work.

The doctor has served as health commissioner nearly one year. The present city administration began its work exactly one year ago today and Dr. Manning was appointed health commissioner shortly after the administration took charge.

Police Commissioner Ringer, Dr. Manning, and Dr. Palmer Findley, head of the City Detention home, held a private conference in the city last Saturday, but none of the conferees would divulge the nature of the meeting. Rumors in the city hall are that Dr. Manning's resignation will be effective June 1.

South Side Hunnish System FAILS TO BRING WIFE TO TERMS

Hubby Adds Insult to Injury by Eating Bacon and Eggs After Locking Ice Box.

The key to the icebox was the key to the matrimonial troubles of the Mullane family, according to the testimony of William Mullane, 4727 South Thirteenth street, who appeared before Judge Foster in the South Side police court Wednesday, charged by his wife with assault and battery.

"I padlocked the icebox, but it was to keep her from wasting my food and throwing it at me," the master of the house said. "He told me that unless I paid board I couldn't have food," his wife insisted, and a large tear blotted the charges on Judge Foster's record. "He threw out my coffee, turned the gas out under my breakfast and then from his padlocked icebox he took bacon, eggs and coffee for his own breakfast."

It seems to me you're following the Hunnish system of starving a woman to your terms," mused the judge as he fined him $10 and costs.

Flies and Screens Lead to Charge of Disturbing Peace

Relationship cannot stand the test of spring housecleaning and screen doors that let the flies in if one may judge by the case of Gust Kounout, 4434 South 33rd street, before Judge Foster in the South Side police court Wednesday, charged by his uncle, Will Martynovitch, with disturbing the peace. Martynovitch is owner of the bakery which his nephew, Gust, runs and according to the testimony of Mrs. Kounout, in order to force them to leave, he did not keep up the outside of the building but put the screen doors up so that the flies could fly right in.

The judge dismissed the charge and advised the landlord to keep up the outside appearance and keep the flies out.

Cameron Injured. Rod Cameron, a cattle buyer for the Cudahy company, was seriously injured Tuesday when he was knocked down and trampled by a maddened bull.

Cameron was following a bunch of cattle in the yards when the bull charged him. He was knocked down before he had time to climb a fence. The bull was beaten off by a helper driving the cattle. Both of Cameron's hands were bruised and he was taken to his home at Thirteenth and Fort Crook boulevard.

Thief Takes Pig. The little pig went to market—but a thief took him there, Mrs. Eva Orlish, 2715 A street, tearfully told the South Side police.

It cost $2, and for months she had saved her pennies to buy this pig. She was going to get it fat and then sell it.

It was stolen Tuesday night. Early Wednesday morning, Mrs. Orlish, who speaks no English, appeared at the police station. In her arms she carried a little baby for which she had planned to buy many things with the money from the little red pig.

South Side Woman Dies. Mrs. Elva Lee, 54 years old, died Tuesday evening at her home, 5713 South Thirty-eighth street. She is survived by her husband, T. R. Lee, two sons, C. J. Kennedy of Conception Junction, Mo., and Theodore Kennedy of Chicago; a brother, John Williams of St. Joseph, Mo., and one sister, Miss Betty Thomas, of Whitmore, Mass. Funeral services were held at the Korisko chapel at 4 o'clock today. Interment was in the Graceland Park cemetery.

CUMMINS IS PRESIDENT OF THE U. S. SENATE

Root of Wisconsin, and Fall of New Mexico. Progressives Stand Pat. No indication of the fight against Senators Penrose and Warren developed in the conference, which was confined to the routine business of plans for organizing the senate. It was said that the dispute was not mentioned. Seven members of the progressive group met in Senator Borah's office previously to the conference and agreed to nominate Senator Cummins for president pro tempore, after Senator Johnson of California had rejected a suggestion from a delegation of the so-called regulars that he become a candidate.

The contest over the selection of Senators Penrose and Warren to the committee chairmanship is expected to develop in the committee on committees and at the next conference. Senator Borah declared today that he would not attend the conference unless it was open to the public and under an agreement that senators are not to be bound by a majority vote on committee assignments.

A few of the progressives, it was stated, plan to absent themselves from the committee conference while others were reported to intend to vote against Senators Penrose and Warren in conference, but prepared to accept a majority vote of the conference. It was said that the progressives would nominate Senator Townsend, of Michigan, for chairman of the finance committee from the floor of the senate. Friends of Senator Penrose expressed confidence that he finally would head that committee, but there was said to be strong sentiment among the regulars as well as the progressives for election of Senator Smoot of Utah to the appropriations committee chairmanship.

Jobbers Say Higher Prices in Coffee Not Likely in Near Future

Local jobbers say much higher prices in coffee are very unlikely and that certainly not in the near future. Recent reports regarding further advances originated from sources interested in selling green coffee, believing that a scarcity talk would increase their sales. The roasters do not believe that it is a good policy for consumers to rush in and buy coffee in quantity. The summer months are ahead, and coffee easily becomes stale. Coffee contains an oil that becomes rancid like butter, and even though packed in tin cans, coffee does not maintain its delicacy and strength for over 30 to 60 days. A pound of good, fresh coffee, even though it should cost a little more, is worth as much as two pounds of deteriorated coffee in both strength and fine flavor, they contend.
