May-Time Hostess Entertains Valeska Suratt and Party Wednesday Noon

Actress Buys Blue Dining Room Suite To Match Her New York Apartment and Declares Work In Omaha Is a Big Holiday.

Although a table had been reserved for Valeska Suratt and her party Wednesday noon at the Maytime lunch room, top floor of Orchard & Wilhelm's, William Ritchie, jr., (349th infantry) and his party were also seated there. And why not? These army men in civilian clothes were hungry and they wanted chicken pie and salad and shortcake.

When Miss Suratt and her friend, Miss Weston, appeared upon the scene, the five or six bowed, smiled and—everybody immediately became a friend to everybody else at the table. Hugh Birmingham, (flying corps) Oscar Peterson (134th infantry), Cloddy Walmer (Canadian infantry), Ralph G. Coad (flying corps), and William Ritchie, jr., who has already been identified, passed the shortcake before the soup just to make everybody feel acquainted. "Here dear," said Miss Suratt to Miss Weston, "you must have some of this wonderful salad. We haven't had anything so delicious since leaving New York. Don't tell me you have plenty of lunch—impossible without salad and shortcake. Miss Waitress, please bring everybody at my table more salad."

And so it came to pass that the men overate and the women became uncomfortable under the spell of the siren just because Valeska Suratt would be impromptu hostess to

LOVELORN

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

He is selfish. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a constant reader of The Omaha Bee and have come to you for some advice. I am a girl of about 18. I am in love with a young man. I have told him that I loved him, but he has never told me that he loved me. One day I got married, he just kissed me and didn't answer. We have been going together for about two years and have been in a few little quarrels, but I have never thought much of that. There has been times when I have tried to forget him, but when he notices that he follows me everywhere and watches me, and wants me to come back, I do so because my love for him is so great. If he sees me talk to some other friend of mine he always lets me know about it. He says I just belong to him. Now, if I didn't love him so much I would go away so he couldn't find me. Dear Miss Fairfax, do you think this man loves me? We have never talked of getting married, as I think there is plenty of time yet. I never hear or see him go with any one else. Is it proper for a girl who has been going with a man so long to ask if he loves her? Please answer in The Omaha Bee. Thanking you in advance.

Friendship Club. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: We herewith extend an invitation to "Lonesome Boy" to join our club, composed of both boys and girls, and though not completely organized, has some very good plans for entertainment, good and wholesome, for the beautiful summer days and lovely evenings yet to come.

War Camp Community

Many inquiries have been made concerning the song leaders' school which opens its session Wednesday evening at the Girls' Community house, at 1716 Dodge under the direction of the War Camp Community service.

Many song leaders are asked for daily to conduct "sings" at welcome home parties, dances and banquets and it is with the idea of being able to fill this demand that War Camp Community service is training leaders at this school. Open discussion is held concerning the best ways and means, songs to be used, and methods of approach to the average audience. All persons interested are cordially invited to attend. Harry Morrison, song leader, is in charge of the meetings.

It is very fitting that on Memorial day the demobilization of the service star should be conducted. Many churches in the city and in the surrounding towns are planning to have this service the Sunday following Memorial day and some to have it in the city parks on Memorial day. War Camp Community service is getting out a new song sheet for this service. They may be had at the War Camp headquarters.
