

Women! Here Is A Dandy Thing

Few drops stop corns hurting then they lift right out with fingers

Your high heels have put corns on your toes and calluses on the bottom of your feet, but why care now? This tiny bottle holds an almost magic fluid. A genius in Cincinnati discovered this ether compound and named it Freezone. Small bottles of Freezone can be had at any drug store for a few cents. Apply a few drops on your tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you can lift it off with the fingers. Just think! You get rid of a hard corn, soft corn or a corn between the toes, as well as hardened calluses, without suffering one particle. Millions of women keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let corns ache twice.—Adv.

FARMER DIDN'T WORK A DAY FOR FIFTEEN YEARS

His Troubles Got the Best of Him, But Tanlac Restores Health—Works Every Day Now.

"I came about twelve miles to get this Tanlac, and while I am here I just want to tell you that since my trouble began, thirty years ago, Tanlac is the only medicine that has done me any good at all," said Albert Ernst, a well known and prosperous farmer who lives at Danlap, Ill.

"I hadn't put in a day's work in fifteen years when I commenced taking Tanlac," he continued, "and it has been so long since I was able to sit down and eat a square meal without suffering agonies afterwards, that I couldn't remember it. I had rheumatism in my legs so bad that it just looked like the pains would kill me at times, and many times I couldn't sleep a wink, and when I got up in the mornings the leaders and muscles would be so drawn and sore that I would have to rub my legs for a long time before I could stretch them out. I also suffered terribly on account of the condition of my stomach, and I had to live on the very lightest kind of food, and even that would sour shortly after meals and I would be so badly bloated up with gas that I would be perfectly miserable for hours. I would often have such terrible cramping pains in the pit of my stomach that I would bend double, and I finally got to where it was a hard matter for me to retain anything I ate. All these troubles were regular, too, day in and day out for thirty years, and they just finally got the best of me all around.

"I commenced taking Tanlac a month or so ago, and I began to improve pretty soon after that, and I have been constantly getting better ever since. I have taken seven bottles so far, and I just couldn't ask for better health that I now have in every way. Why, if you could see me at work on my farm now, you wouldn't think I had ever been sick a day in my life, and I work hard every day, too. I have a dandy appetite, and since I have gotten rid of my stomach troubles, I eat just anything I want, and I never have indigestion afterwards, and am not bothered with gas any more. All that rheumatism I left me, and the soreness and stiffness has gone from my legs, and I can get around as well as I ever did in my life. Tanlac has just made a sound, well man of me in every way, and I never have the slightest sign of any of my old troubles. I would advise anybody who suffers as I did, to give Tanlac a trial for it is the best medicine I ever took in my life."

PUT HANDCUFFS ON MAN WHO HELD POLICE AT BAY

Insurance Man Threatens Life of Former Wife In Court; Mother Says He's Been Driven Insane.

Police had to put handcuffs on James Rybin, insurance man, yesterday morning in police court when he became suddenly violent at his former brother-in-law, A. J. Nelson, 1247 South Fifteenth street. "And I'll kill you when I get out," he threatened his former wife.

Rybin was arrested Sunday afternoon after firing several shots at detectives whom he held at bay near his home, 4715 South Fifteenth street.

Police gave chase at Fifteenth and Williams street, where he snatched his baby from its mother's arms.

Threaten to Kill Baby. At the point of a gun he compelled a motorcycle rider to drive him to Twentieth and Missouri avenue.

When detectives arrived there Rybin held the gun at the baby's breast and defied the officers to come nearer. "Come a step farther and I'll blow his brains out and kill myself," Rybin yelled.

Sergeant Thomas Baughman testified in police court that Rybin pointed a gun at him four times before he was captured. Rybin was arrested after detectives talked him into putting the gun away. He was charged with discharging firearms and threatening to kill.

Woman Obtains Divorce. The trouble grew out of a refusal of his ex-brother-in-law to allow him to see his baby. Mrs. Rybin obtained a divorce from her husband six months ago, and also custody of the child.

Mrs. Jones Rybin, mother of the arrested man testified in court that her son's former wife and relatives had driven him to insanity. I want him examined before the board of insanity. They have driven him to madness," the mother said.

The case was continued till Saturday.

Omaha Women to Take Active Part in Peace League Meet. Ten Omaha women have been named to direct the women's activities of the state convention of the Nebraska branch of the League to Enforce Peace, at the Omaha Auditorium Saturday afternoon and evening, May 31.

Leaves For China to Be Reunited With His Family

A large crowd of Omaha Chinamen gathered at the Union station Sunday evening to bid "good bye" to two of the most popular Celestials in Omaha's younger Chinese "set."

Moch Ah Young was leaving on his journey to the other side of the globe to see his wife and small son, captured by bandits a few months ago, held prisoners in the mountain fastnesses west of Canton and released recently after Young had paid $5,000 for their ransom.

Jim Chin, son of Chin Ah Chin, wealthy Omahan and proprietor of the Mandarin cafe, was the other traveler.

Young is prohibited from returning to the United States. Chin will return here within a year.

Young asked exemption from the army draft in June, 1913, on the ground that he had a wife and child and that he was working to get money to pay the ransom demanded by the bandits. In deliberating on his claim the federal authorities decided that he would have to be deported to China.

Young is a wealthy man in China, owning a large tract of rich land near Canton. He says the bandits who captured his wife and child are greatly feared, that they always carry out their threats and that they have killed more than 10,000 people.

Young came to the United States in 1908 and came to Omaha the same year. In 1915 he returned to China and married. This is a business matter that every true Chinaman must attend to, because it is a great disgrace and misfortune to die without children who will take care of the grave and "worship" the father. If a Chinaman has no child of his own he adopts a boy to attend to this posthumous rite.

Upon his arrival in China, Moch Ah Young will start a match factory. He believes he will get rich at that even in China and will have a large family of children to burn paper figures on his grave on the feast days of the year.

Jim Chin, who is making the trip back to the ancient land of his much-to-be-respected ancestors, is an Omaha educated youth, a student at the High School of Commerce.

POWERFRANCHISE PASSED ON BY SUPREME COURT

High Tribunal Refuses to Interfere With Decisions Already Made by Other Courts.

The last hope of the City of Omaha to "knock out" the franchise of the Nebraska Power company, formerly the Omaha Electric Light & Power was crushed yesterday when the United States supreme court refused to interfere with decisions already made by the federal court for the district of Nebraska and the United States court of appeals.

The fight on this particular phase of the litigation between the company and city started in 1914 following a decision by the United States supreme court that the company has a perpetual franchise.

"The city then took the position that the company had a franchise to supply electric light, heat and power only to the consumers which it then had on its books," said W. D. McHugh, attorney for the company.

Council Passes Resolution. "The city council proceeded to pass a resolution instructing the city engineer to stop the company from laying any more wires or making any further connections for electric service of any kind. Enforcement of the resolution would have kept dozens of new buildings from having electric light."

"The company immediately went into federal court and secured a restraining order and later an injunction. Federal Judge Woodruff held that the city council had no power whatever to enforce the resolution.

"The city appealed to the circuit court of appeals and a decision was rendered from that bench, affirming Judge Woodruff's decision.

"The city had no right to make further appeal of the case, but it did ask the supreme court to review the case and this the supreme court has done, affirming the decisions of both the lower courts. This ends litigation on the question of the company's perpetual franchise."

While the present decision affirms the possession of a franchise by the Nebraska Power company to supply electric light, power and heat in the city of Omaha does not give it an exclusive franchise, it is pointed out by city officials. The city is at liberty to buy the plant or to build a competing plant at any time.

Associated Press Wins Suit to Prevent Pilfering of News.

New York, May 19.—The suit brought by The Associated Press against the International News Service in the United States court came up on the calendar today and a decree was entered for the complainant.

Divorce Courts

Ethel Dale asks the district court for a divorce from Homer Dale and the restoration of her maiden name, Hurst. They were married in St. Joseph in 1911 and she charges him with extreme cruelty.

Ethel Mae Gilson charges in a petition for divorce filed in district court, that her husband, Ralph, struck her and abused her in other ways. She asks custody of their child and alimony of $10 a week.

Elizabeth Rase, in a divorce suit filed in district court, against Roger Rase, charges him with cruelty. They were married in Omaha in 1917.

Marion W. Casey, in a petition for divorce filed in district court, charges her husband, John Casey with cruelty. She asks that their child be left in the custody of her husband's mother where it is now.

Charles E. Newton alleges in a petition for divorce filed in district court, that his wife, Edith, departed from his home with another man on January 6.

"Eddie Rickenbacker," A Good Horse, Wins Big Race In Jamaica.

Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker told this little story yesterday while making the rounds with friends in automobile:

"I have a friend down in Pittsburgh who loves horses. Recently he bought a speedy 2-year-old and he named it 'Eddie Rickenbacker.' I have just received a letter from him, stating that the horse won its first race in Jamaica. Now I am wondering whether it was my name or Jamaica ginger that caused the animal to win its first race."

Then he told this one about his "chorus-lady" experiences doing one a night:

"When I was in Columbus, O., they assigned me to a dressing room usually occupied by the female of the species. When the time came for me to go on, George looked in every dressing room ordinarily used by men. Finally George went to the stage manager and asked where Rick might be. The stage manager replied, 'She is over there in the ladies' dressing room. Knock gently and maybe she will let you in.'"

"Peggy's" Teddy Bears, Shoes, Hosiery, Etc., to Be Sold at Auction

Marguerite Gilchrist "Peggy" Sellers' dresses, shoes, ivory toilet set, vari-colored hosiery and Teddy bears are going to be sold at auction.

She has failed to appeal from the recent judgment of $237 entered against her by Judge Holmes in municipal court, and she has likewise failed to pay the judgment.

W. H. Hatteroth, attorney for George C. Chrisman, yesterday formally demanded that the court issue an order of sale, as the time has expired for filing an appeal.

Chrisman sued Peggy for $816.44 and obtained a judgment for $237, which was the amount of three hotel bills he paid for the young bride.

IRRITABLE NERVOUS

Was Condition of Indiana Lady Before Beginning to Take Cardui, the Woman's Tonic.

Kokomo, Ind.—Mrs. H. Hankemeier, of this town, says: "I look so well, and am so well, that it does not seem as if I ever needed Cardui. But I was not always this way. I think I have taken a dozen bottles... before my little girl came."

I was feeling dreadfully bad, had headache, backache, sick at my stomach, no energy... I was very irritable, too, and nervous.

I began taking Cardui about 6 months before my baby came. As a result all those bad feelings left me, and I just felt grand, just as if nothing at all was the matter, and when the end came I was hardly sick at all.

Since that I have never taken Cardui at all... It has done me good, and I know it will help others, if they will only try it."

Many women have written grateful letters like the above, telling of the good that Cardui has done them. Why should it not help you, too? If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, and feel the need of a safe, reliable, strengthening tonic, we urge you to begin today and give Cardui a fair trial. HAVE YOU STOMACH TROUBLE?

If So Build Up Your Nerve-Force.

"I suffered many years from indigestion, but since I began taking your Nuga-Tone I am completely cured. I will recommend Nuga-Tone to all my friends," says Theodore Laine, 316 Providence Building, Duluth, Minn.

The stomach is a miser. It churns the food and mixes it with the Gastric Juice. Nerve-force keeps the stomach working. Let this force become impaired and see how quickly you'll have trouble. Gas, belching and bloating come from fermentation of half digested food which, passing into the bowels makes more trouble—biliousness, constipation and headaches.

Don't fool with hit or miss medicines. Nuga-Tone strengthens the stomach by increasing its nerve-power. Use it and you can have a wonderful appetite, good digestion and regular bowel action. Nuga-Tone feeds the nerve-cells, enriches the blood and strengthens the body through and through. You will be so well satisfied with Nuga-Tone, you'll recommend it to all your friends.

Druggists guarantee Nuga-Tone. Buy a bottle. A bottle will last you a whole month. Use it 20 days and if you don't feel better and look better, take the remainder of the package back to the druggist and get your money back.

Good druggists everywhere sell Nuga-Tone. Try it. Get a bottle today at Sherman & McConnell Drug Co. Store
