My Heart and My Husband ADELE GARRISON'S New Phase of "Revelations of a Wife" joyment of the pleasures so long renewing it penditure of money. Knowing, as a swift vision of the ugly precipice I did, that his income had been re-I did, that his income had been re-duced to a meager sum by his South ing.

He looked at me quickly must be spending in this one day all the small savings he had managed "Something troubles you about that by much scrimping to put by dur-ing the year. But there was a dig-nity, an authority in his manner "There's nothing worth telling," I even hinting my dismay.

matinee, where we had a box to ourselves, even the orchids which he purchased and insisted upon my wearing as boyishly as if he were the art of the first eventheart all 19, and I his first sweetheart-all sounded the same lavish note. It ly, then laughed like a boy at my rewasn't until the sweets course of wasn't until the sweets course of our dinner in one of the most ornate and expensive of the Broadway eating palaces, that he explained his ing palaces, that he explained his reference to "celebrating."

upon my extravagance, although ing memories which the thought of I've seen that you had a struggle to the wife he had deserted brought to subdue your alarm. And now you him. shall have your reward. Things "Let me see that pretty bag you have taken a turn with your old have with you," he said in another moment, in a patent effort to change the conversation. although, of course, I wouldn't be warranted in doing this sort of thing Wondering I p often. But upon the occasion of having the news confirmed of the rescue of some of the securities I me for these," he said. "They're with some one else, you can look had thought lost, I ought to be for- just a rememberance of this red given if I splurge a little, especially letter day." if the dearest daughter in the world agree with me?"

Words of Praise.

have been of you all these lean if to shut out the sight of something months, when you've so bravely put he had seen. your shoulder to the wheel to help out the family finances. But ,thank

Not Too Serious!

Thanking you very much I am,

Ho-hum! These three-year, enagements are about as romantic as sewing party, I fear that your arents may have reason to object this young man. What are they?

of course it is possible that you are

1 love with him, but not probableuppy love is so deceiving! I see o objection to the young man call-ig to say goodby, but it wouldn't worth meeting him secretly. Tell our parents that you would like im to call this last time. No, I hould not tell him he will have to orget-that makes things so much nore difficult. Why try to forget im? Keep him as one of the sweet emories, or foolish memories, for iture retrospection. The main oint is, do not take this offer too riously-from where I sit this orning the affair isn't worth it-

Movie Ambitious.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I

ere are others to follow.

BLONDY.

just returned from France.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Love Comes Unbidden and, "To Love or Not We Are

No More Free Than the Ripple to Rise and Leave the Sea.

What Her Father Told Madge on goodness, the necessity for that is the Day of Celebration. over and done with. I am not a rich over and done with. I am not a rich I have never seen my father in man, dearest, not even as well situahappier mood than he was during ted as I was before, but at least I our "day on Broadway"—as he have enough so that you will not laughingly dubbed our outing-al- have to do anything to earn even though more than half of our time your own pin money after this. Of was spent on other streets than the course, I honor your decision to famous thoroughfare. He had been keep on with your teaching because so long a semi-invalid, shut away you had given your word to do so, from the things he loved, that he but when your contract is ended was like a boy let loose in his enthere will be no necessity for your

An Amazing Incident. One thing I noted with uneasi-ness, and that was his lavish ex-of doing," I returned fervently, with that effectually kept me from re- returned carelessly, mentally begmonstrating with him, or, indeed, ging pardon for the falsehood. "Some of my associates aren't as Luncheon, a culinary poem, the pleasant as they might be, but I

some women," my father put in shy-

"You've been a very dutiful, respectful daughter today, Margaret," he said playfully, smiling at me across the flowers he had ordered placed upon our table. "You haven't expostulated with me once the place of abruptly, white to the lips. I knew that my mother's name had been almost upon his lips, the name which he never mentioned. Long ago I had deduced that his reason was the painful self-excoriating memories which the thought of

"Let me see that pretty bag you

Wondering I passed my brocaded

Unobtrusively he slipped a small s my guest of honor. Don't you white parcel and an envelope in the bag, closed it and passed it back across the table. Bewildered, rea-He was pathetic in his whimsical- lizing that he must have chosen to ity. I felt a lump in my throat as make the day memorable for me by the gift of both some jewel and a interest in the life and people about I agree that I have the dearest check, I mechanically took the bag. father in the world, and that he As I did so I heard a low, sneering ought to be allowed to do anything laugh from the table just behind me.

that he wishes," I retorted gayly. My father heard it also, raised his albeit with smarting eyelashes.

"Thank you." The words were low but full of meaning. "I wonder horror, his face turned the color of horror, his face turned the color of if you can ever guess how proud I ashes, and he put out his hand as

(Continued Tomorrow.)

Fashionable Nancy

It's time indeed for you to note The beauty of this evening coat, You'll gasp, I know when you are told,

This dazzling wrap is black and gold, It's caused, alas, some envy, bitter By all its gay and outward glitter.

This coat's draped skirt appears in black, As does the front and zig-zag back, Embroidery stands out in bold Relief upon the cloth of gold, "In this." Nance said, "I find a way To end a very perfect day."

(Copyright Applied For.)

ome less clearly defined point. It might not come to this in your case, but it does as a general rule.

back at a clean open record of your friendship's past. It seems to me quite all right that you should correspond with your boy friend if it is mutually agreeable. I can't define the subjects which should have place in your conversation. Omit malicious and sense less remarks. Cultivate a healthy and nature. Minter is 1515 Santa Barbara street, Santa Bargara, Cal. She was born in Shreveport, La., April 1, 1902, and her real name is Juliet Shelby.

Constance Talmadge's address is 729 Seventh avenue, New York
City. Her bigthplace was Brooklyn,
N. Y., and the date, April 19, 1900.
She is 5 feet 6 inches tall and weights 120 pounds. weighs 120 pounds.

Central High School Girls Will Not Suffer In Silence This Year.

Girls of the Central High school have come into their own. For year after year while the boys were enjoying their out-of-door games in the June air at their cadet camp, the girls have had to drone over their lessons in the stuffy class rooms. But now all is to be changed. As a result of repeated protests the girls are to be allowed to have a camp of their own. Like the boys that drill have their cadet camp, the girls that take physical training will have an encampment of their own. Because of lack of time to prepare for the camp this year the girls must endure "camp week" in the class rooms for one more year. Next way to their tents and swimming The camp will be held during the first week of June and will be under the supervision of the gymare expected to attend. A part of majority. His return to this country the expenses will probably be defrayed by presenting a play or some theatricals similar to the "Road Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Smith Show" which nets the boys about have returned from their wedding $1,000 each year.

year, however, they also will march plan-and that is a big one. How formerly Miss Olga Storz. are the girls going to visit their brothers and other girls' brothers at the cadet camp on the annual visitors' day, when they are off in a camp of their own? The event most looked forward to by the youthful soldiers is the arrival of the train bearing their "friends" on the Thursday of camp week made sacred to the visitors from the regions of soft beds and real "eats." Will the girls be willing to give up the idea of a camp that they may not lose the pleasure of promenad- near Philadelphia will return home ing by the cheveroned sleeves of the May 29 and Mr. Chick Neville who cadets on visitors' day?

May Party.

A charity dance and May party will be given Friday evening, May 23, at Kelpine's academy by the P. G. club. This is the closing party of the club, and the proceeds for this 24 for Denmark. They expect to year's activities will be given to a remain six months. Mr. Madsen local charity; the charity to be de- will join his family in Denmark cided on at a meeting of the club later. which will follow the closing of the season. Last year's proceeds of the club was donated to the Child Savings institute. The members of this club are composed of the employes of Paxton-Gallagher's ..

Change of Residence. Davenport street, whose home was plans for a new church building. you, in games, athletic sports, books very badly damaged in the recent have moved into a house L. B. The address of Mary Miles building. They do not expect to be able to occupy their own home be-

> Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Maloney have moved from their home at 3566 Woolworth avenue to 1301 auth Thirty-fifth avenue.

Fontenelle Chapter to Meet. Sessue Hayakawa may be found of Eastern Star will entertain at dinner Friday evening. May 23, at the Masonic temple. The dinner Fontenelle chapter of the Order in 1889, was educated in Japan and will be followed by installation of Charles W. Savidge Tuesday eve-

Personals

Mrs. G. S. Bingham and daughter, Miss Dorothy Bingham, accom-panied by Mrs. Bingham's mother, Mrs. Edward Lynch, arrived Tuesday evening from San Francisco, where they have been since they arrived from Honolulu. The Binghams have taken the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman at 3507 Harney

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coad, Miss Regina Connell and Herbert Connell

Mrs. Joseph M. Metcalf has re-opened her home, 1234 South Tenth street, which has been closed since September. Mrs. Metcalf has returned from a long stay in Corpus Christi and Los Angeles.

Mrs. L. J. Healey is spending a fortnight at Excelsior Springs.

Dr. Clyde Moore, who was a captain with Base Hospital 49, is now stationed in a hospital at Tours, nasium teachers. About 500 girls France, and has just received his trip and are at home for the present There is but one objection to the at the Fontenelle. Mrs. Smith was Misses Stella Abraham and Esther Newman return Saturday from Lin-coln where they have been attending the university. Mrs. Julius Wiel and son of Lincoln are guests of Mrs. Wiel's mother, Mrs. Carrie Livingston. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Neville have returned from their winter home in southern California. Miss Marie Neville who is attending Ogontz school' is at Yale plans to arrive home the middle of June. Mrs. George Stir-rat, formerly Florence Neville, is living in Seattle.

Mrs. Carl Madsen and children. Elinore and Carl, jr., will sail May Church Birthday Dinner.

The members of Clifton Hill Presbyterian church will celebrate their 27th birthday anniversary, Thursday evening at 6 o'clock when a dinner will be served in the church parlors, at 25 cents a plate. At this affair a Dr. and Mrs. Henry Lemere, 4826 general discussion will be held on

Walker-Henrie. The wedding of Alden Walker and Miss Margaret Henrie of New Cumson of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker

Angelus Club Dance. The Angelus club, one of the war camp community clubs, will give a dancing party Wednesday evening. May 21, at the Metropolitan hall.

Sturdevant-Depotie.

Woman's Service League to Benson Stage Mrs. Learned's New

Pageant In June. Miss Fitch of Chicago will arrive Omaha Tuesday when definite arrangements will be made regard- guests of honor at the annual lunching the production of "Pan and the Rose Fairy" in June. The Creche and the league will share equally in the receipts of this production.

Classes in Occupational Therapy are now being formed. The class in European Brail will meet Tuesare spending the week in Chicago. day and Friday mornings, beginning June 3. Mrs. F. N. Conner will be the teacher. This class is especially for those whose eyesight is defective or those who are willing to teach the blind to read.

Artistic service pins for the war workers of the league have been or dered and will be ready for distribution next week. Any one having the old pin may exchange it for the new one, which is given for war service only. The classes in basket ernoor weaving and bead work will also be Kuhn.

Woman's Entertains Prominent Club Women.

Mrs. Addison E. Sheldon and Mrs. J. N. Paul of St. Paul, Neb., were eon of the Benson Woman's club as a delegate to the woman's republican convention.

After the luncheon Mrs. Sheldon gave her well known lecture on birds, illustrated with slides. Mrs. J. W. Welch acted as toastmistress, and there were 40 members present.

started early in June, as soon as a competent teacher can be engaged. Anyone desiring information phone Tyler 2787, or call at the league's rooms, second floor court house.

Club Miss Frances Nash Interested In Symphony Orchestra Coming Friday.

Miss Frances Nash, who made her debut with the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra several years Tuesday. Mrs. Paul is en route to ago, is much interested in the re-Washington, D. C., where she goes turn of the orchestra to the city turn of the orchestra to the city Friday evening, May 23. Miss Nash will entertain at a box party at the concert and hopes to renew acquaintance with the director, Mr. Oberhoff. If Mr. Oberhoff's time permits Miss Nash will entertain him at her home.

A special hearing of the orchestra is being arranged for children Friday afternoon. No adult will be ad-mitted to this performance unless An Afternoon Bridge.

Miss Grace Allison entertained a foursome of bridge Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Marion cert, chaperoned by one of the teachers.

THE STORE OF QUALITY

Special Showing Thorness Thursday - Friday

New Sport Frocks--Coat Dresses, Skirts, Etc.

New Ideas In Attractive Apparel for Sport Wear

WITH the opening of Omaha clubs and resorts just a few days ahead and the approach of the outing season we have prepared a distinctive showing of the newest designs in apparel for general and sport wear. Come tomorrow and inspect this truly interesting

Fancy Frocks

Many extremely beautiful frocks are shown in crepe de chine, Chinese crepe, La Jerez, Fan-ta-sie, brocaded and plain Baronnette, Khaki Kool, wash satin, both in plain effects and braid trimmed; georgettes, etc., in white, blue, flesh, rose, apricot, and in tasteful combinations of black and white. These beautiful dresses are reasonably priced, at-

$25.00 Values $22.75

Coat Dresses

Attractive coat dresses for sport wear are shown in pretty tricollettes, paulettes and in silk jersey. These dresses in the most wanted colors are shown, at, from-$40.00 Values, $34.75 and Up

Printed Georgettes

Many attractive new dresses are shown in Foulards and in printed Georgettes in full assortments of colors. They are priced at-

$30.00 Values, $27.75

Linen Dresses Linen coat dresses are shown in many three-piece effects, as in one piece. Among these dresses are many new voiles and organdies. They are very reasonably priced, at, from-$10.00 Values, $8.75

and Up Fancy Skirts

In crepe de chine, Fan-ta-sie, Baronette, tricollette, georgette, etc., in pretty styles and wanted colors, at-$15.00 Values, $13.75

Between 18th and 19th

Good Principles

BASKET STORES aim at perfection. Our constant thought is to make BASKET STORES better ones-more desirable sources of supply-more efficient aids to thrifty housewives. We aim at perfection in all details-in quality, freshness of goods, variety of stock and low prices.

BASKET STORES' quality is of the very highest, and we are certain no store offers superior goods; the freshness cannot be questioned because we have such rapid turn-overs, the variety. of stock is complete and includes nationally-known productswhile our plainly-marked prices are lower than can be obtained elsewhere, on more than 300 average items.'

These principles and qualities have brought to BASKET STORES the ever-increasing and well-deserved business which they are enjoying, serving more than 30,000 customers daily and operating 67 BASKET STORES throughout Nebraska and Iowa. They are principles which should cause YOU-if you are not now our customer—to trade at BASKET STORES.

"Live Better for Less"

None Higher Than Basko Quality

There's a Basket Store Near You fitting model.

Buy your corset with your own personality in mind. The right model properly fitted is "the same as if made for you."

Redfern models are superior. They are the high grade economu corsets! And a Redfern Front Lace or Back Lace is the

Corset of the Hour

The Warner Brothers Company, Inc.

By the Fit of the Gown One Knows the Corset

That is—you can easily tell whether it is a well or an ill will be no regrets.

m a reader of your column and hink your advice is excellent. I have two questions. I would like o ask you (rather three questions), o I am sending you a personal letolder, you must take the word of er.
First, I will send a description should not kiss their boy chums I am 15 years old and in the me greatly in advising you, and I You will find it is just as easy to surely am very much obliged for area as to permit that liberty and these important details. Get a later be obliged to draw the line at

By BEATRICE FAIRFAXfreckle remedy from your druggist. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Your writing is legible. If every Since you give such splendid advice to other girls, I believe you can help girl who wished to become a movie st. : succeeded, the theatrical heavens would be crowded to overflow-I have a soldier friend who has ing. Nine girls out of every ten My trouble is this: My parents have your ambition and not one in are very good to me, but they don't a million succeed. Why not try approve of this young man's comsomething easier? He has enlisted in the army for three more years and he wants me to promise I'll wait for him. But my parents don't approve of him.

Token of Friendship.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a constant reader of your "Advice to the Lovelorn." I am 19 possible that I am in love with him? I feel that I adore him, but, of years old and am in love with a ourse, I am young, and it may just young man a few years my senior. he "puppy love."
He lives in another town and He has told me a number of times he loved me, and upon leaving here (probably for a year or more), asked me if I would wear something to wishes to see me before he leaves for anip. What can I do? Meet him ecretly, or simply tell him he will have to forget me? I can never forshow our friendship. I told him I would. Should I have done this? He sent me a ring.. There is no promise with this. Upon which Please advise me in the Sunday and should I wear it? Should I go with the other young men while I am corresponding with him? Hoping to see my answer in The

Bee, I remain, your friend,

BRIGHT EYES. The ring, evidently, is merely a oken of friendship and should be worn on the right hand. It is all right to accept the company of other young men-you have made no promise to the one who is away and it is well to remember that a year covers a wide gap in the lives of people, sometimes. Be discreet in your actions, so that if anything should come of your friendship there

Would-Be Actress: I can not give out the names of any of my correspondents without their consent. If your feet are good looking in up-to-date shoes, but not when you are barefoot, I suggest that you secure a theatrical manager who will star you only in plays where the feet are clothed. At any rate, I'm afraid you can't do much for your feet now except to support arches properly and keep them free from corns.

Not even I can answer your question about kissing as wisely as it should be answered, but until you are even though they like each other sincerely and honorably. Just a few of the many reasons which should feet 11 inches tall; weighting 106 be given:
pounds. I have a rather light com- A kiss is worth only what it plexion, light brown hair and blue expresses from the heart. A girl of eyes; a few freckles and not very 15 has not reached the stage where good looking.

Now, one of my questions is:

"What will take freckles off?"

How is my writing, would it pass

"The period of life where her education and development are receivable greatest growth, and if I would like to be a movie star.

Would you advise a young girl to be one? And what movie studio is the nearest to Chadron?

Thanking you for your advice, I remain,

LUVENNE.

The description of yourself assists

Cation and development are receiving their greatest growth, and if neglected, the lost opportunity of youth may go by forever.

There is a limit to the privileges which a girl should allow a boy to take, and that limit should be where liberties with her person are asked.