

BAPTISTS PASS RESOLUTIONS ON LIQUOR ISSUE

Will Send "Strong and Dignified" Criticism to Wilson Concerning Message to Congress.

Denver, May 21.—Unanimous action condemning President Wilson for his recommendation to congress of the repeal of wartime prohibition was taken late today by the Northern Baptist convention, in session here. On motion from the convention floor, the convention voted to prepare a resolution "in strong and vigorous terms and at the same time dignified," expressing the convention's disapproval of the president's stand. The resolution will be drawn by a committee of which E. L. Tustin, former member of the Pennsylvania legislature, is chairman. Grant M. Hudson, Michigan anti-saloon worker, and C. M. Hill, president of Berkeley seminary, California are other members.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur bring back the vigor, color, gloss and youthfulness. Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will give a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application in the evening, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Adv.

Pretty Young Wife of Omaha Broker Charges Non-Support

Warrant Issued for Arrest of David L. Young, 45 Years Old—24-year-old Bride, Former Actress, Says He Abandoned Her.

Mrs. Mae Bryden Young, pretty young wife of David L. Young, broker, 3172 Dodge street, filed a complaint of non-support against her husband in police court at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. A warrant has been issued for his arrest. Mr. Young is 45 years old. His wife is only 24. His marriage six months ago to Miss Bryden, former vaudeville artist playing eastern circuits, was not made public. They were married by Rev. Charles W. Savidge on October 23, 1918.

Ordered Out of Home. With the complaint against her husband, Mrs. Mae Bryden Young alleges that since she was ordered out of the palatial home of her mother-in-law seven weeks ago, her husband has failed to support her. This the mother-in-law denies, though she says her son has been giving his wife money. "I ordered her out of the house because she was always nagging at me, asking David for money, and smoking cigarettes," Mrs. Erastus Young said. "Why, she even paid $18 of David's money for a tailored dress."

Mrs. Mae Bryden alleges that she left the home of her mother-in-law on her written demand because she "wasn't treated as a happy, young, smiling bride should be." "David never took me anywhere," Mrs. Mae Bryden Young said. "He introduced me to some of his friends and only on several occasions did he have dinner with me in chop suey parlors. Oh, he's too old for me. Anyway, if he doesn't want to support me I'll fix him."

came to Omaha to live with the Young family to show her qualities as a "promising bride," she said.
