FLASHES from FILMLAND PHOTO-PLAY OFFERINGS FOR TODAY

ETHEL CLAYTON'S new picture, "Pettigrew's Girl," which is on view at the Strand theater today and Saturday, has scored a decided hit. The story deals with a chorus girl who marries a poor soldier rather than wed a millionaire for whom she had been angling for a long while until she met Pettigrew. The photoplay is one of exceptional interest and the supporting players, headed by Monte Blue, are clever in their respective portrayals.

The following letter, addressed to Nazimova, care of Metro studios, was signed by an engineer who has spent his life at the throttle of a 10-wheeler in the foothills of the Rockies:

"Dear Miss Nazimova: I here you are in a pitcher, 'The Red Lantern,' and I hope it will come out my way so I can see you act. I love to see you in pitchers. I want to ask you a question Miss Nazimova and would be glad for an answer. What copy of the Railroad Man's Magazine did that story run in. I never saw it in Railroad Man's Magazine and would like to get it. Much obliged, 'WILL WAITE.'"

Metro has advised the interested plot of the origin of Nazimova's "The Red Lantern," which is a screen version of Edith Wherry's novel of the same name, which is being shown this week at the Boyd.

The authors are Dr. Katherine Bement Davis and Edward H. Griffith, the latter having directed the production.

Midland College May Be Brought to This State From Kansas

Three Omaha Lutheran pastors spent Tuesday in Fremont on business connected with the proposed removal of Midland college and seminary from Atchison, Kan., to Fremont.

The ministers are Rev. S. H. Yerian, Rev. O. D. Baltzy and Rev. C. B. Harmon.

"This is one of the biggest things ever done by the Lutheran church," said Rev. Mr. Yerian, who is president of the Nebraska Lutheran synod.

"It will be a $500,000 proposition before we are through with it. We have seen a big vision and we are going to carry it out. At Fremont we found the finest prospect."

"One Lutheran has made a contribution of $50,000 cash. The only in a most efficient manner. Clair Adams depicts the heroine whose mother dared to tell her the warning truth.

When Elsie Ferguson was doing a dance number in the magnificent cabaret scene of "Eyes of the Soul," her latest photoplay, which will be presented at the Rialto the remainder of this week, several extra persons, including some waiters, had been engaged to make the restaurant scene as realistic as possible.

One pompous waiter, turning to Miss Ferguson's maid, inquired where Miss Ferguson was dancing now. The maid stared at the man in surprise. "What do you mean?" she asked indignantly. "Where does she dance—what cafe?" he replied. "She doesn't dance anywhere," answered the maid indignantly. "Miss Ferguson is a dramatic actress."

"Well," said the waiter crestfallen, "she should dance in a cabaret, for she is better than most cabaret dancers."

Miss Ferguson has a delightful role in "Eyes of the Soul." Her leading man is Wynham Standing. The story was written by George Weston and the scenario by Eve Unsell. Emile Chautard was the director.

Vote Against Federation.

New Orleans, May 21.—The general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church, in session here, voted, 136 to 99, today against federation with the Northern Presbyterian church.

CITY EMPLOYEES REFUSE TO OBEY WINNIPEG MAYOR

Union Men at Waterworks Walk Out When Told to Increase Pressure; Strike Situation Improved.

Winnipeg, Man., May 21.—A sharp change in the Winnipeg general strike, which has paralyzed local industries since last Thursday, came today when efforts of city officials, members of the citizens' committee and merchants to obtain facilities for public convenience proved successful.

Despite opposition from strike leaders in some cases, and with the co-operation of the union forces in other cases, the city water pressure was increased; professional men were able to reopen their offices in the higher stories of downtown buildings; bread, milk, meat, ice and coal were transported about the city without interference; fire and police protection were improved; deliveries were begun by some merchants and Mayor Charles F. Gray and the city council successfully forced their demand that the "union permission" placard be abolished.

Union men at the water works refused to obey the city order to increase the water pressure and walked out. Provincial engineers took charge of the plant and improved service was soon noticed throughout the city. Since last Thursday the pressure was not sufficient to carry water beyond the second story of buildings which did not have auxiliary pumps.

The union committee in charge of the general strike approved assistance for more satisfactory distribution of foodstuffs.

Sing and Be Saved Is Motto of Pastor as He Organizes New Choir

Rev. Charles W. Savidge is organizing a vested choir to sing in the People's church, of which he is pastor. "The choir will be vested in black," he said, "so that those who have poor clothes need not be abashed by those who have fine garments."

"I want singers to call on me, so that I can put them into this choir. They don't have to be Christians or 'good.' If they once get into my choir and open their mouths and sing the good, old hymns of the church I know they will soon become Christians under my preaching. This may be an opportunity for some souls to be saved."

Rev. Mr. Savidge's church has always been marked by extreme simplicity of service and the addition of a vested choir is an event of importance to the church.

Comes to Grief Trying To Break Into City's Exclusive Dope Ring

Raymond King, charged with violating the Harrison act by transporting morphine from Kansas City, Mo., to Omaha, was told that money could be made easily in Omaha peddling dope by a Kansas City dope peddler, according to testimony at his hearing before United States Commissioner McLaughlin yesterday morning.

King was arrested recently with seven bottles of morphine in his possession. He told arresting officers that he purchased the dope for $40 from a negro in Kansas City. Commissioner McLaughlin fixed his bond at $750. Both Captain of Detectives Dunn and Internal Revenue Agent Eberstein expressed the belief that King had purchased the narcotic for some Omaha peddler.

AT THE THEATERS

QUITE a distinguished company of theatrical people will be in Omaha on Tuesday, June 3, including Henry Miller, Ruth Chatterton and Blanche Bates. Mr. Miller and Miss Chatterton are to appear at the Brandeis theater Monday, June 2, and Tuesday, June 3, with a special Tuesday matinee, in Dumas delightful comedy "A Marriage of Convenience." Miss Bates, who is accompanied by her husband, George Creel, is traveling to the coast, where she will star with Mr. Miller in "Moliere," the powerful play by Philip Moeller, in which they have been appearing at the Liberty theater in New York recently, returning with this play to Omaha the first week in September. After appearing with Mr. Miller in Salt Lake City and San Francisco in "A Marriage of Convenience," Miss Chatterton will be seen in the new comedy life of Washington life of today, "The Merrie Month of May," now at Powers' theater in Chicago, at the Brandeis the last of August. In all Mr. Miller will have three companies of about 75 players in the west this summer, and to transport the original productions he will require five baggage cars, all of which shows confidence not only in the west but in theatrical post-war conditions.

At the Brandeis theater Friday evening, May 23, Henry Cox will present the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra—50 men—Emil Oberholfer, conductor—in concert at 8:15 promptly. This is one of the greatest American orchestras—ranking with the world's best, and is well known in Omaha, having appeared here upon several different occasions. Soloists with the orchestra include Emma Noe, soprano and Harriet McConnell, contralto.

Originally written for vaudeville, afterward expanded to a full evening's entertainment, and now appearing in its first form, the one-act musical comedy "The Four Husbands" is being presented this

White Slave Charge Against Italian Is Dismissed In Court

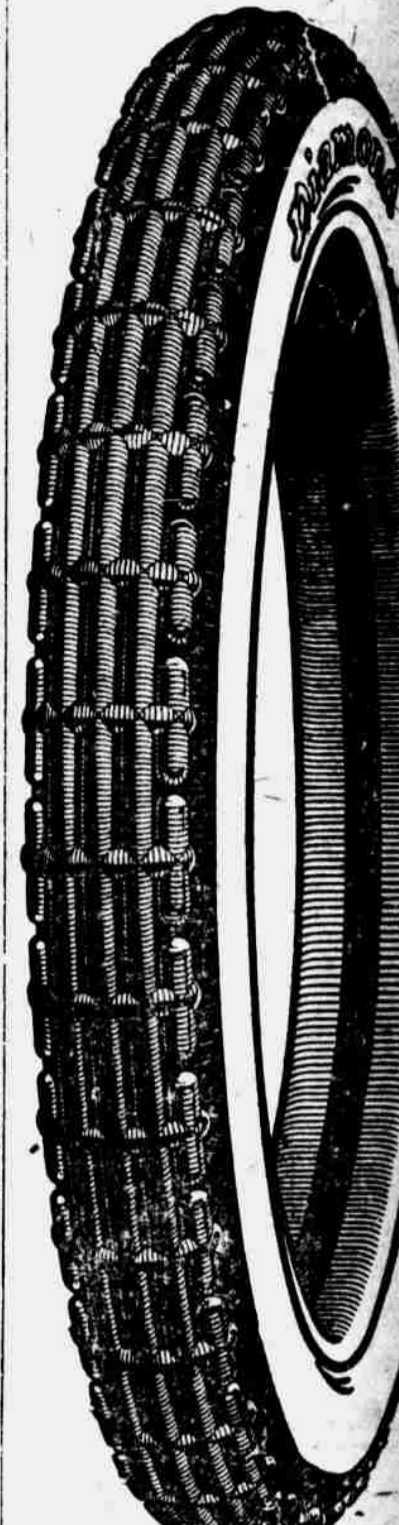

Charges of white slavery against Phillip Christina, Italian, yesterday arrested at 1415 William street, in company with Mrs. Helen Felepakis, Greek, from Chicago, were dismissed in police court yesterday. Both were given jail sentences for vagrancy.

The charges of violating the Mann act were dismissed because of the denial of the original statements of Mrs. Helen Felepakis, that she was brought here from Chicago by Christina.

Mrs. Helen Felepakis was given 10 days in jail. Christina was sentenced to 90 days.

week-as the Orpheum's stellar attraction. Trifling talk, fancy fiddling and a careless cello are features of the musical skit laughably presented by William Damarest and Estelle Collette. An amusing skit comprising comedy chatter, songs and clever dancing is offered by Percy Bronson and Wignie Baldwin. Black and O'Donnell, who appear as the violinist and the boob, are particularly funny.

"The 1919 Winter Garden Revue," with Faye O'Neill, Earl B. Miller and the Watson Sisters, assisted by a chorus of beautiful girls, headlines the new show opening at the Empress today. "Madelon," the "Over There" song of France, which has been sung by our boys in the many camps, is the feature song of the revue. "Songland," by Herman and Clifton gives opportunity for a repertoire of popular song numbers. A black and white face absurdity entitled "Some Doctor" gives Detzel and Carroll opportunities for demonstrating their ability as fun makers. Kale and Coyne offer juggling, tumbling, gun spinning and other eccentricities. In "The Love Call" Billie Rhodes, has one of the most charmingly original roles she has ever played.

Diamond SQUEEGEE TREAD Tires American Efficiency Ended the War

Working with precision, certainty, and relentless energy, American business men, turned warriors, gave a demonstration of efficiency never to be forgotten.

They learned their efficiency in American corporations—learned to make sure they were right, then go "full speed ahead." For that is the spirit of American business—that, for instance, is how corporations buy their tires.

Take the Iten Biscuit Co., in Omaha, for example. Out of a thousand Diamond Tires used in 1918, 995 made marks between 7,200 and 18,000 miles.

There's an example of American efficiency for you—efficiency in the production of big mileage tires at a reasonable price, and efficiency in knowing how to buy big money's worth.

Determining Factors Your Truck Should Possess

- First: To produce a well-performing truck, the proper selection and combination of the factors which govern the design properly is vital.
- Second: With capacity determined, the most important factors are total weight of the truck, motor size, motor speed, rear axle ratio, tire size, speed of the vehicle and low gear ratio in the transmission.
- Third: Only the proper selection and combination of these factors will give you well balanced power transmission from motor to rear tires—good performance on level and grades and a low fuel consumption.

These are the determining factors that guided Kissel for 11 years in producing motor trucks that are solving America's greatest problem—of Uninterrupted Transportation. Our truck salesmen will be glad to help you solve your transportation problems. No obligation.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELP

We find you can bring out the beauty of your hair to its very best advantage by washing it with canthox. It makes a very simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff, dirt and excess oil, leaving a wonderfully clean, wholesome feeling. After its use, you will find that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is never streaked in appearance and is always bright, soft and fluffy; so fluffy, in fact, that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. Just use a teaspoonful of canthox, which you can get from any good druggist, dissolve it in a cup of hot water; this makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head.—Adv.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsefied coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Adv.
