Beans, In Transit for Two Months, Arrive In Omaha as 'Has-Beens'

A suit, which is said to represent a good "sample" of government operation of railroads and telegraphs, was filed in district court yesterday by Simon Brothers company against Director General of Railroads Hines, the Missouri Pacific, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads.

It involves a carload of beans, 600 bags, which wandered around on the three railroad lines for two months before finally being delivered here. The beans were shipped by the California Packing corporation of Stockton, Cal., on October 12, 1918, consigned to St. Joseph, Mo. While they were on the way the shippers decided to divert them to Simon Brothers company of Omaha.

In some way unexplained the telegram was lost or the beans were lost. At any rate they didn't appear, it is alleged, until December 13, 1918, when they arrived in Omaha consigned to Simon Brothers. But when the car was opened the beans were found to have become "has-beens," and Simon Brothers are suing for $2,390.18, the amount of the depreciation.

K. of C., In Convention Here, Say Living Wage Not Justice Measure

The fifteenth annual Knights of Columbus convention in Omaha Wednesday adopted resolutions declaring that "a living wage is not necessarily the full measure of justice."

"We demand a legal minimum wage high enough to provide not only for present needs of workers and families, but a surplus that shall be sufficient for adequate savings. We believe that the laborer is a human being, not merely an instrument of production and that the laborer's right to a decent living is the first moral charge on industry."

Dishwasher for the League Of Nations In Police Court

Washing dishes for the League of Nations was the distinctive job held by M. B. LeVan, Thirtieth and Douglas streets, until he was arrested Wednesday night for vagrancy. In police court yesterday morning he was discharged when he emphatically asserted that he helped with work for the League of Nations.

"What do you mean? Washing dishes for the league?" the police judge asked.

"Yeah, 'wuz workin' at the League of Nations restaurant on North S'teenth street, judge," Le Van replied.

Youthful Crap Shooters Given Lecture by Judge

Police broke up a crap game in an alley near Twenty-fifth and Elm streets Wednesday night and arrested six boys. The raid was made while two of the boys stood watch at each end of the alley. In police court yesterday morning all six of the boys were discharged after listening to advice from the police judge. They are: Frank Kraft, John and Stanley Mervels, John Sheffskie, Leonard Franks and Steve Rushing, all living in the neighborhood of Twenty-fifth and Elm streets.
