

RUMOR CRISIS IN HON CABINET; LEADERS LEAVE

Unexpected Departure of the Chancellor and Others Leads to All Sorts of Reports.

Berlin, May 23.—(By Associated Press.)—The unexpected departure of Chancellor Scheideemann, Count von Bernstorff, Dr. Bernhard Dernburg and Dr. Bell, the colonial minister for Spa last night started a rumormongering of a cabinet crisis. Reports of dissensions in the cabinet have been most prominent during the past few days. The cabinet had an animated session today which resulted in Scheideemann and the others leaving Berlin. It was denied in official circles that the hurried trip to Spa had any other significance than a desire to get in closer communication with Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau.

Warden Discharged By Reform Board and Prisoners Strike

Rawlins, Wyo., May 23.—Every one of the 280 convicts at the Wyoming state penitentiary struck yesterday when the state board of charities and reform refused to reinstate C. L. Martin, former warden. Martin was removed two weeks ago on the allegation that discipline at the institution was poor. The prisoners, late in the day threw down their tools and turned off the power in the prison shirt room. The acting warden, and guards, placed the men in solitary confinement today, where they will be kept, it is announced, until they agree to work. Members of the board of charities and reform will arrive in Rawlins tomorrow to investigate.

Warden Martin formerly was a minister and school teacher and had attempted many reforms at the penitentiary. The advertiser who uses The Bee Want Ad Column increases his business thereby and the persons who read them profit by the opportunities offered.

79 MEN OF 89TH PROUDLY CARRY SERVICE CROSS

Middlewest Division Was Nicknamed "Fighting Farmers" by Enemy and Comrades of the A. E. F.

(Union Pacific Press Bureau.) New York, May 23.—(Special.)—Here are a few pithy paragraphs about the 89th division, some of them brought back by the men themselves, others by their comrades in the A. E. F. who saw the mid-western fighters in action. Ninety-seven distinguished service crosses were won by men of the 89th division, according to the War department figures. Only 16 other units exceeded this number. When an organization gets a nickname from its comrades in arms or its enemies, it can be considered a success. That is why the name of "Fighting Farmers" gained by the 89th is considered a compliment, although the unit is officially the 89th or Middlewest division. When the football team of the 89th won the A. E. F. championship at Coblenz, it completed an athletic record second to no other division. In its play as in its fighting, the mid-western organization showed speed, initiative and pep.

Perhaps the most sincere praise received by the 89th comes from many air service officers, who have declared that the co-operation given them by the western troops was of the best at every stage of the game. In the Bois de Bantheville, it has been said, the 89th was intrusted with the capture of a pivotal point in the Argonne-Meuse operation and second in none in importance. This together with the fact of the heavy fighting as "shock troops" given the division, is considered one of the highest unspoken compliments received by the men. It was in a raid on Donmartin wood in the St. Mihiel drive. A lieutenant was seen to whirl and stumble. "Are you hit?" yelled a fellow officer. "Nicked in the arm, but going like hell," gritted the lieutenant as he again dashed forward.

Praise Other Organizations. A noticeable thing among the returning veterans is the tendency to lavish praise on other organizations. They all have something to say regarding the outfits supporting them, which they supported or fought beside and the inclination speaks well for the unity and spirit of the corps of the division.

Many freaks of shell fire are described by the returning men who tell of cases where men were picked off from the middle of the crowd, or wounded when others nearest the burst were unharmed. "To what do you give most credit for the splendid record of the 89th?" an officer of the division was asked. "The bulk of the success of the 89th as well as that of the entire A. E. F. is credited to the men and the junior officer, the two grades which, in the final analysis fight the battles. It was their indomitable courage, unselfish heroism and supreme self-sacrificing under even the hardest of conditions which made the American army invincible."

Leonard and Myrtle, Colored, Decide to Try Married Life Again

Leonard Washington, 29 years old, and Myrtle Washington, 31 years old, met on North Sixteenth street Thursday afternoon. It was the first time they had seen each other since their divorce was granted in Salt Lake City two years ago. "Well, where have you been all this time, honey?" asked Leonard. "Oh, I've just been sorta driftin' around," said Myrtle. "How's the world treatin' you?" "I can't complain, Myrtle, except I certainly made a mistake when I let you get that divorce," responded Leonard. "Kinda think I made a mistake in separating from my honey boy, too," acknowledged Myrtle. "Supposing we fix it all up again?" ventured Leonard. "You certainly elucidated my thoughts, honey man," said Myrtle. The colored pair took a street car to the court house. The license was made out. Leonard paid the $2. He called for the judge to marry them. "I've got $1.50 left," he said. He was told that the legal fee is $2. "Well, we'll go to a minister then," said Myrtle. "He'll do it for $1. I want it done up right this time." The air departed in a blaze of happiness.
