

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Do Any Kiddies Shake Hands With You?

By HENRY TURNER BAILEY.

Children's children are the crown of old men, and the glory of children are their fathers. Prov. 17:6.

Shake hands, dad. How many children call you that? There are five who have called me dad or pa or poppy. Excuse me for mentioning it, but I want you to know that I am no mere theorist in this matter of being the father of a family.

Now here is some straight stuff: It is father's duty to give some time every week to his boys and girls. The only time I have been able to give to mine is Sunday. My Sundays have belonged to the children.

I have been to church and Sunday school with them always, because in the light of some hundreds of years of history, there is nothing that yields better returns, in the long run, than the reverence for God. "Only those who believe in God do good in private," say the French.

Sunday afternoons we have always taken a walk, when the weather permitted, or if too stormy, we have read story books together, or have made various kinds of scrap books.

In our walks we usually had a definite objective. We went to see somebody, or to get a particular view, or to visit our favorite trees, or to look for some bird in particular. We mounted birds as possible; learned the wild flowers, the ferns, the butterflies and moths, the birds, the trees, the mushrooms; made collections of colored things—flowers, leaves, insects, pebbles and so forth, and arranged them in the album.

The sily costume floats above. A silken silk Nancy calls a 'love.' And has devoted quite a space to imitation flit lace.

Indeed, it cannot be denied. It makes one long to stay inside. Happy the woman who has on this chic affair of blue chiffon.

Prohibition May Bring Community Playhouse to the Kiddies.

Why not turn the corner saloon into a community playhouse when the law effects the closing of these gathering places?

And what results? Five open-eyed, open minded, intelligent young men and women, devoted to their parents and grateful for what their Heavenly Father has done for them.

Through the community center, if it be in a district populated largely of one foreign nationality, these people could present pageants of the life in their mother countries, translating them into English, so that Americans and also the younger English-speaking members of their household could understand and appreciate their traditions.

Room, saloons, clubs, stag parties? When the short-sighted, self-indulgent, arrogant fathers, that in their own wives and children are the possibilities of perennial delights and solid satisfactions compared with which other things are dust and ashes.

The Cost of Living. From time to time this department has published studies of the cost of food, just ordinary food, such as all of us have every day.

We used to say that people could be adequately nourished at 25 cents per person per day. Now we say 35 cents per person per day is the minimum for a diet that satisfies all bodily needs.
