

REPUBLICANS NAME CHAIRMEN OF COMMITTEES

Penrose and Warren Selected Despite Opposition; Expect to Settle Differences at Conference.

Washington, May 23.—Framing of senate republican committee slates was reported completed today by the republican conference committee on committees. The program, it was stated upon reliable authority, proposes Senators Penrose of Pennsylvania and Warren of Wyoming for chairmanship of the finance and appropriation committees, respectively, despite the opposition of the progressives.

The committee slate will be presented at a conference of republican senators next Monday before convening of the senate. The progressives at that time are expected to take final action in opposition to Senators Penrose and Warren, but it was reported tonight that the factional troubles would be settled in the conference and probably not reach the senate floor.

Heads of Committees.
The chairmanship assignments understood to have been agreed upon by the committee on committees follow:

Foreign relations, Lodge, Massachusetts; finance, Penrose, Pennsylvania; appropriations, Warren, Wyoming; military affairs, Wadsworth, New York; naval affairs, Page, Vermont; judiciary, Nelson, Minnesota; interstate commerce, Cummins, Iowa; agriculture, Gronna, North Dakota; commerce, Jones, Washington; rules, Knox, Pennsylvania; public lands, Smoot, Utah; privileges and elections, Dillingham, Vermont; manufactures, LaFollette, Wisconsin; education and labor, Kenyon, Iowa; mines, Poindexter, Washington; immigration, Colt, Rhode Island; Indian affairs, Curtis, Kansas; irrigation and reclamation, McNary,

Tom O'Connor and Bob Smith Exchange a Few Compliments

Clerk of the District Court Says County Commissioner Might Qualify As a Janitor, and That Official In Turn Makes Some Remarks.

County Commissioner "Tom" O'Connor and Clerk of the District Court "Bob" Smith exchanged "left-handed compliments" yesterday over the commitment of Albert Swift to the insane asylum at Lincoln for one day.

A bill for $9.85 came in to the county commissioners at Lincoln a few days ago. Mr. O'Connor objected to paying this out to send a man to the asylum for one day merely as a matter of form.

When told of this, Mr. Smith spoke in part as follows: "Tom, O'Connor gets $2,400 a year and I don't think he's worth $50 a year. He might be all right as a janitor, provided he had some one to supervise his work, but that would be about the best I would hand him."

Mr. O'Connor, when told of the vitriol which Mr. Smith had handed him, replied in part as follows: "Smith has himself considerably overestimated. I would revise his value downward very much if I had my way. It will cost the county not only $9.85 to send this man to Lincoln, but about $20 to convene that insanity board when it acted on the case."

Swift is now in the county jail serving a 30-day sentence which will expire soon. He escaped from the insane asylum at Lincoln a few weeks ago. He was in the dispensary ward. Coming to Omaha, he went to work and earned about $300 in two weeks as an advertising salesman.

"Then he got hold of some bootleg whisky and was arrested for drunkenness," said Mr. Smith. "His aged mother came to see me. She was anxious to get him off. With the exception of the one slip he had been doing well since he escaped from the asylum. Still, we felt the discipline of the insane asylum must be upheld. So we ordered him returned with the recommendation that he be released after one day. That is what we are using the $9.85 for. You are certainly at liberty to publish my idea of the value of Mr. O'Connor's services."

Oregon; Philippines, Harding, Ohio; printing, Moses, New Hampshire; library, Brandegee, Connecticut.

Last Moment Changes.
Under the reported agreement, Senator Page, instead of Senator Poindexter, would head the naval committee by reason of strict adherence to the seniority rule. Last-moment changes also placed Senator Smoot at the head of the public land committee instead of the appropriations, for which he had been mentioned.

Three new members of the foreign relations committee reported chosen were Senators New, Indiana; Harding, Ohio, and Moses, New Hampshire.
