

SIoux CITY MAN NAMED HEAD OF BAPTIST BODY

Buffalo Selected for 1920 Convention; J. A. Sunderland of Omaha on Executive Committee.

Denver, Colo., May 26.—Election of D. C. Shull, Sioux City, Ia., as president, selection of Buffalo, N. Y., as the 1920 convention city, adoption of a $100,000,000 budget, covering five years, completion of the $6,000,000 laymen's fund, and organization of the general board of planning and promotion were the principal features of today's session of the Northern Baptist convention.

The prominence given to western men and women was a feature of the report of the nominating committee presented to the Northern Baptist convention in session here today. Besides nominating D. C. Shull, a prominent business man of Sioux City, Ia., for president, the committee also selected a number of officers and board members for the ensuing year, gave greater recognition to the west than heretofore has been given.

Elect Shull President. In selecting Mr. Shull for president the committee also adhered to the long-established custom of limiting this office to yampan, although it had been suggested the position be given to a clergyman.

The principal nominations submitted by the committee were: President, D. C. Shull, Iowa; first vice president, Rev. Frederick E. Taylor, Indiana; second vice president, H. G. Stoddard, Massachusetts; corresponding secretary, Rev. William C. Biting, Missouri; recording secretary, Rev. Maurice A. Levy, Massachusetts; statistical secretary, Rev. Charles A. Walker, Pennsylvania; treasurer, Frank L. Miner, Iowa.

Omaha Man Named. Members of the executive committee (term expires 1922): Rev. W. S. Abernethy, Missouri; Rev. G. A. Briggs, New York; J. A. Earl, Iowa; Robert A. Earl, Minnesota; W. W. Everett, District of Columbia; Rev. Joseph C. Hazen, Illinois; Mrs. Andrew C. Leitch, Illinois; W. W. Smith, Michigan; E. J. Steinberg, Wisconsin; J. A. Sunderland, Nebraska.

President, American Baptist Foreign Mission society, Rev. T. J. Villers, Michigan; president, American Baptist Home Mission society, Charles R. Brock, Colorado; president, American Baptist Publication society, W. G. Brimson, Illinois; president, Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission society, Mrs. W. A. Montgomery, New York; president, Woman's American Baptist Home Mission society, Mrs. John Nuveen, Illinois.

The election of Mr. Sunderland came as a complete surprise. He was not in attendance at the convention and the first intimation he had that his name was to be placed before the meeting was when informed that an Associated Press dispatch told of his election.

Hines Adopts Permit System in Handling Grain Crop of West

Washington, May 26.—Permits for the shipment of grain from interior markets will be used by the railroad administration this year to control the movement of the mammoth harvest which is just beginning.

It was apparent that unless some method of restriction was devised, congestion which might paralyze the nation's transportation facilities was possible when the farmers, eager to market their wheat as quickly as possible under the standard price guarantee, began to pour the crop into the arteries of trade.

After consultation with leading grain men in the west and officials of the administration's grain corporation, the director general decided that a permit system similar to that in effect during the freight congestion of last year would be the best solution of the problem.

More than 300 kinds of fish are known to produce noises audible to human ears.

10-Year-Old Girl Threatens Suicide to Get Attention

Because Her Sister Attempted to Kill Herself Two Weeks Ago and Since Then Has Been "Fussed Over" by Family, Child Craves Liveliness.

Margaret Davis is only 10 years old but she's wise in the ways of the world and is a psychologist. About two weeks ago her sister, Thelma, 12, attempted to kill herself by swallowing poison. Since then the family has made much of Thelma endeavoring to show her the same kindness that there are many things in life worth while.

In strewing roses in Thelma's path the parents forgot that their other girl, Margaret, lived in the house, too, but they did not suspect the child, as they considered her, felt badly over all the fuss made about sister.

Margaret determined to get her share of attention.

Sunday afternoon she went to the bath room, took a bottle of iodine she found on a shelf and racing downstairs dashed out the door and into the street screaming, "I'm going to kill myself."

Her parents saw the bottle in her hand and the wild appearance of the child and called police before attempting to give chase.

When the patrol arrived with a physician and Sgt. John Coffey, Margaret was safely in the house.

The bottle had been empty. Margaret confessed the "suicide" attempt was merely camouflage to get a little attention.

The family resides at 1806 Miami street.

WIFE WHO SHOT "OTHER WOMAN" NOW ON TRIAL

tieth, where she took refuge in a store. From this store she was taken to the hospital. For days it was thought she could not live.

Mother of Juror III. The trial was delayed for more than an hour yesterday afternoon when William Cathro, one of the jurors, received word that his mother was critically ill. This was before taking of testimony had started. The state and defense agreed to a technical discharge of the remaining jurors. Their names were then called again, a new juror was examined and sworn in and the case proceeded.

Mrs. Van Ausdell gave an audible exclamation when Desk Sergeant Rose testified that she said at the police station shortly after the shooting.

"I'm sorry I didn't get both her and my husband. I was 'laying' for both of them."

Heard Woman Was Shot. Sergeant Rose said Van Ausdell called up the station about 9 o'clock and asked whether they had arrested his wife.

"He said he heard she had shot a woman," said Sergeant Rose. "I was just asking him the particulars when in she walked and said, 'Yes, here I am.' I placed her under arrest. She said she fired one shot at Mrs. Ijams and then the gun jammed."

Captain Heifeld testified that Mrs. Van Ausdell told him immediately after her arrest that she was sorry she "didn't get them both."

"I asked her," he said, "what the other one was and she said, 'That husband of mine.'"

The defense is relying on proving "emotional insanity" to back up the "unwritten law" in the effort to have Mrs. Van Ausdell acquitted. Judge Redick warned the attorneys and informed the jury that there is no such thing as the "unwritten law" in this state. Several prospective jurors were excused because they said they might take this "law" into consideration in arriving at a verdict.

Mrs. Van Ausdell, a small, slim woman in a grey-checked suit, was accompanied by her two daughters, Monique and Gay, 17 and 19 years respectively. They took turns sitting close to their mother.

Mrs. Ijams sat with her sister. She was fashionably attired and calm. From time to time she darted glances at Mrs. Van Ausdell, who kept a handkerchief to her face to shut off her vision from Mrs. Ijams.

Mrs. Van Ausdell is expected to go on the witness stand this morning.

Weather Conditions Delay Departure of Plane, NC-4

Washington, May 26.—Confirming weather forecasts of yesterday, Admiral Jackson at Ponta del Gada this morning cabled the Navy department that the naval seaplane NC-4 still was held at her moorings by unfavorable flight conditions. Weather reports from the Azores indicated the transatlantic flight probably cannot be resumed before Tuesday at the earliest.

FORM PROGRAM FOR RECEPTION TONEBRASKANS

merce, military and other organizations of the city. It was announced that from advance information the troops would arrive on seven trains, each coming in one-half hour apart.

This would mean seven separate parades, so that it is planned to have one band to join each contingent as it detains.

It is expected that when the last arriving detachment marches up Farnam street, the first arriving will have again entrained and be on the way to Lincoln, where a similar welcome is to be given.

No Crowds on Viaduct. Crowds will not be allowed in the railroad station, or on Tenth street from Mason to Farnam streets.

On the reviewing stand will be the governor and staff, Omaha and visiting Nebraska members of the Grand Army, and the mayor's committee. The stand will be erected in front of the city hall and The Bee building. A detail of girls will go to Council Bluffs with badges on which will be "Omaha City of the Fighting Eighty-ninth." A badge will be given to each soldier. Two girls will be assigned to each car.

Reception committees, especially appointed, will greet each section of the troop trains immediately on their arrival at the Omaha station. Soldiers from Fort Omaha will be in charge of the policing of the railway station and the viaduct on Tenth street. Each detachment as it detains will be escorted to the street by the committee in person, where an Omaha band will take the lead.

Twelve Bands in Parade. Twelve bands will be available. Along the parade route donations will be hung from trolley wires, telephone and telegraph poles.

Jacob Wachob, chairman of the parade committee, is authorized to appoint a grand marshal and an honorary grand marshal. Assistant marshals will head the various committees that will greet each detachment as it arrives at the railway station.

Fireworks, including bombs, gas explosions, etc., will be discharged from the tops of the higher buildings.

The mayor's executive committee is led by S. Slabaugh, Randall C. Brown, E. A. Brogan, C. E. Black, John T. Wachob, H. H. Lovell, E. F. Folda, P. P. Fodrea, Allan Tukey and Mayor Smith.

Colonel Wuest, Fort Omaha, and Chief of Police Eberstein have been authorized to confer and arrange a joint plan of policing the parade route.

Committees Appointed. Following is the reception and entertainment committee of 100 appointed by the mayor:

- Col. Jacob W. S. Frank Dewey, Wuest, command; Sophus Nebel, adj. officer; Fort Omaha, Neb. Truman Jackson, Capt. C. E. Adams, W. S. Stricker, commander; G. A. Howard, R. M. Banister, Dr. C. W. Man Arrested at Tacoma Indicted for Murder

New York, May 26.—For the first time since February 1, 1917, trading on the Stock exchange today exceeded by a slender margin the 2,000,000-share mark, the heavy buying of specialties contributing largely to the huge total.

The market was characterized by a greater degree of enthusiasm and confidence than any of the many active sessions since the middle of last February, when the current boom was inaugurated.

A very rapid pace was set from the beginning, the activity of commission houses suggesting further accumulation for interior account, particularly western and southwest-ern points.

DAYLIGHT LAW NEARS END OF SHORT CAREER

Repeal of Measure Sought by McLaughlin and to Be Effective Second Sunday After Bill Passes.

Washington, May 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative McLaughlin said today that at the meeting of the agricultural committee of the house of which he is a member, held this morning, the committee decided to attach to the agricultural appropriation bill an amendment repealing the daylight saving law and making it effective the second Sunday after the bill becomes a law. This early action is proposed so that the farmers throughout the country who are the bitterest opponents of the daylight saving, may have the benefit of the old time during the coming harvest season.

The committee also increased the appropriation for the Bureau of animal industry to be used for stamping out tuberculosis, from $900,000 to $1,500,000.

"Appropriations for agriculture, in view of the enormous benefits to be derived, have been uniformly low," said Mr. McLaughlin. "Anything that is appropriated to assist production and increase food supply is money only loaned and it comes back to us many fold."

Money for Platte Valley. Representative Kinkaid was advised today that Messrs. Whitehead, Powers, Westervelt, Sands and Willis, who have been interested in the irrigation and reclamation of arid lands, left Scotts Bluff valley Sunday for Washington to appear before the house committee on appropriations, to urge a larger appropriation for the North Platte project than was carried in the sundry civil bill that failed to get consideration by the senate committee on appropriations in the last session of congress.

The progressive republicans of the senate having been defeated in their fight to sidetrack Penrose as chairman of finance, and Warren as chairman of appropriations, this morning at the conference of republicans of the upper house, congress was held by the committee on committees made its report, which was adopted, 35 to 5, decided to abide by the action of the conference and for purposes of harmony not carry the fight to the floor of the senate.

Progressives who had opposed Senators Penrose and Warren and who did not attend the conference were: Norris, Nebraska; Kenyon, Iowa, and Borah, Idaho.

The list of committee assignments adopted by the conference makes Norris chairman of patents, and gives him a place on the following committees: Agriculture, banking and currency, expenditures in the War department, five civilized tribes, geological survey, industrial exhibitions, judiciary and public lands.

Senator Cummins, who will be chairman of interstate and foreign commerce, said today that it was his intention just as soon as the committee was organized to press for early consideration, bills relating to telegraphs and telephones, measures to enlarge the powers of the interstate commerce commission and Senator Poindeexter's bill to tighten up the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce law.

Representative Evans of Dakota City, who has been an outspoken opponent of the League of Nations, was amused in reading in The Bee of Saturday last a statement as coming from Mr. Evans that his talks with the men of the 89th division who landed in New York last week had "made him a stronger advocate of the league of nations than before."

When as a matter of fact the conversations had with the returning troops had made him a more outspoken antagonist of the league as at present constituted.

Governor McKelvie Greets Nebraskans With Western Yell

Camp Upton, N. Y., May 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Shrill patriotic yells reverberated over the camp tonight when the western governors and delegation of 400 westerners came on a special train from New York to extend a great welcome home to the 89th division. Thirteen thousand men gathered on the Nineteenth street parade grounds shouting themselves hoarse with joy when Governor S. R. McKelvie of Nebraska sounded one of the famous calls of the ranch men.

Governor Thomas E. Campbell of Arizona was present and spoke in behalf of the people of Arizona and New Mexico. Governor McKelvie represented Nebraska and Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas conveyed the greetings of the sunflower state.

Congressman Robert W. Bonyne welcomed the boys from Colorado and Adjutant General Harvey Clark of Missouri represented that state. There were 100 members of the Rocky Mountain club from New York led by Herbert Wall, to invite the men of Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado to be the guests of the club in New York.

Brig. Gen. William J. Nicholson, the camp commander, greeted the delegation in the name of the camp. Every speaker had a few names to read out of men who had either mother, sisters or sweethearts waiting to meet them at the stand or gifts of money sent by western friends. There were scores of reunions with relatives who had traveled many hundreds of miles just to be present at the reception.

The camp welfare workers united to entertain the men with vaudeville, movies and refreshments. Ice cream was passed out by relays of women as the army marched by in four long lines.

The units of the 89th, which were the 352d, 354th and 355th infantry, the 34th and 341st field artillery, the 314th ammunition train and the 314th mobile ordnance detachment. The infantry will leave for the west tomorrow and the other organizations will follow promptly.

'Nut Club' May Have to Look to Laurels When the "Monkeys" Organize

"I think paving contractors are making monkeys of us," said Mayor Smith to the city council committee of the whole yesterday morning.

"Yes, and I believe they are making 'nuts' out of some of us," replied Commissioner Butler. The mayor urged getting after the contractors and the street railway company with a sharp stick on account of the delay in paving and repaving work.

"I hold in my hand a list of contracts let last August and the work not yet started," continued the mayor. "One contracting firm was awarded seven contracts and not one has been started."

The commissioners voted to summon the paving contractors and the officials of the street railway company to appear in the city council chamber at 9 o'clock Thursday morning to explain why they should not be taken out into the municipal backyard and a sharp stick applied where it will do the most good.

Permit Granted to Move Mexican Troops Through Arizona

Phoenix, Ariz., May 26.—Permission for armed Mexican troops to pass through Arizona, New Mexico and Texas from the state of Sonora, Mexico, to Juarez was sought today by the Mexican authorities through Acting Secretary of State Polk at Washington and granted by Arizona, according to an announcement tonight by R. E. McGillen, acting governor of Arizona.

The state department telegraphed the acting governor that the Mexican authorities sought permission to transport 1,000 Mexican soldiers across United States soil to Juarez and asked if Arizona would acquiesce. The permit was telegraphed, according to the acting governor, with the understanding that the troops will be moved across American soil under the supervision of the United States immigration inspector at El Paso.

U. S. Will Keep Hun Ships Seized in American Ports

Washington, May 26.—President Wilson has informed officials here that the council of four at Paris has reached a full understanding by which the United States will retain the 700,000 tons of German shipping seized in American ports when this country entered the war.

Great Britain had proposed that this tonnage as well as German ships seized in other countries be placed in a common pool and allotted on the basis of tonnage lost through action of enemy submarines. The United States has steadfastly refused to accede to this plan.

May Provide $2,000,000 for Railroad in Alaska

Washington, D. C., May 26.—Decision was reached today by the house appropriations committee to include in the general deficiency bill an appropriation of $2,000,000 for immediate use in the construction of the government railroad in Alaska. Members of the Alaskan engineering commission told the committee that construction would be interrupted unless money was provided soon by congress.

The commission's request for an increase of the original $35,000,000 authorization for building the line, of which $31,000,000 has been spent, will be considered by the committee in framing the new sundry civil appropriation bill.

"I don't anticipate any difficulty in persuading Mr. Curtiss to let me make the flight. He once said it was impossible. But he said the same thing of a non-stop flight from New York to Chicago. When I accomplished that he said nothing was impossible. We planned the transatlantic trip last summer but at that time it did not look feasible."
