of life in the game. In the fifth inning the water works closed up and Joplin started in to make a cleaning. Horan and Breibeck each hit the ball, but were out and Lamb slammed out a single. He scored before the base gie. He scored before the base over a score of water that by the visitors, but sensational fielding by Jackson, Risberg and Schalk kept the score down. Score: Iver's two-base hit. Collins took a healthy swing at the pill, but pop ped one in the air, which Hale grabbed, retiring the side. After he retired the Miners, Hale stepped up with a single. Donica duplicated it and scored Hale Bashang sacrificed Donica to second and Hero Adolph smeared one for a single, on which Donica trotted home. Barbeau continued the good work and poked out a base hit. He and Schinkel died on the bases, for Jackson flied to right field and Hazen popped to short, but the two pearlies looked awful nice at this stage of the game. Airtight pitching by both Schinkel and Marks kept the bases empty until the eighth. Marks passed the only man of the game when Barbeau walked. Jackson sacrificed Jap to second and Hazen slammed out a double, scoring Barbeau. Kirby flied out to right field and Gislason hit to the second baseman and was thrown out to first.

The Miners could not find Schinkel's offering in the fifth frame, when they made two hits on which they made their lone tally, but the Omaha boys seem to have found their batting eyes and slammed out nine hits. Two extra base hits, one on each side, were made. Hazen made one of them and McIver the other. Schinkel and Marks each struck out two batters and Marks walked out, the only pass issued.
